Force, Religion, and the Quest for African American Justice Daniel A. Morris, 2025-06-26 This study argues that Black calls for force in the struggle against white supremacy have echoed concepts and principles in the Western just war tradition After establishing that just war theory has ignored Black calls for force and that the Trans Atlantic Slave Trade relied on just war ethics for its justification this book turns to African American resistance rhetoric in three crucial periods of U S history In the antebellum period the Civil Rights movement and the era of mass incarceration African American thinkers have drawn on ideas and forms of logic that run parallel to just war ethics This makes Black rhetoric of forceful resistance morally normal rather than radical or extremist Figures in the Black just war tradition such as David Walker Henry Highland Garnet Harriet Tubman Huey Newton Bree Newsome and others should be included in the discipline of just war ethics and white American Christians should recognize that their endorsements of force are consistent with widely accepted moral positions

Moses and the Monster and Miss Anne Carole C. Marks, 2024-03-18 This engaging history presents the extraordinary lives of Patty Cannon Anna Ella Carroll and Harriet Tubman three dangerous women who grew up in early nineteenth century Maryland and were vigorously enmeshed in the social and political maelstrom of antebellum America The monstrous Patty Cannon was a reputed thief murderer and leader of a ruthless gang who kidnapped free blacks and sold them back into slavery whereas Miss Anna Ella Carroll a relatively genteel unmarried slaveholder foisted herself into state and national politics by exerting influence on legislators and conspiring with Governor Thomas Holliday Hicks to keep Maryland in the Union when many state legislators clamored to join the Confederacy And of course Harriet Tubman slave rescuer abolitionist and later women's suffragist was both hailed as the Moses of her people and hunted as an outlaw with a price on her head worth at least ten thousand dollars All three women lived for a time in close proximity on the Eastern Shore of Maryland an isolated region that thrived on tobacco and then lost it procured slaves and then lost them and produced strong minded women and then condemned them Though they never actually met and their backgrounds and beliefs differed drastically these women s lives converged through their active experiences of the conflict over slavery in Maryland and beyond the uncertainties of economic transformation the struggles in the legal foundation of slavery and most of all the growing dispute in gender relations in America Throughout this book Carole C Marks gleans historical fact and sociological insight from the persistent myths and exaggerations that color the women s legacies and she investigates the common roots and motivations of three remarkable figures who bucked the era s expectations for women She also considers how each woman s public identity reflected changing ideas of domesticity and the public sphere spirituality and legal rights and limitations Cannon Carroll and Tubman each in her own way passionately fought for the future of Maryland and the United States and from these unique vantage points Moses and the Monster and Miss Anne portrays the intersecting and conflicting forces of race economics and gender that threatened to rend a nation apart The Better Angels Robert C. Plumb,2020-03 Harriet Tubman Harriet Beecher Stowe Clara Barton Julia Ward Howe and Sarah Josepha Hale came from backgrounds that ranged from abject enslavement to New York City s elite Surmounting social and political obstacles they emerged before and during the worst crisis in American history the Civil War Their actions became strands in a tapestry of courage truth and patriotism that influenced the lives of millions and illuminated a new way forward for the nation In this collective biography Robert C Plumb traces these five remarkable women s awakenings to analyze how their experiences shaped their responses to the challenges disappointments and joys they encountered on their missions Here is Tubman fearless conductor on the Underground Railroad alongside Stowe the author who awakened the nation to the evils of slavery Barton led an effort to provide medical supplies for field hospitals and Union soldiers sang Howe s Battle Hymn of the Republic on the march And amid national catastrophe Hale s campaign to make Thanksgiving a national holiday moved North and South toward reconciliation Bound for the North Star Dennis B.
