Homemaking For The Black Woman:

Urban Black Women and the Politics of Resistance Z. Isoke, 2013-01-23 Contemporary urban spaces are critical sites of resistance for black women By focusing on the spatial aspects of political resistance of black women in Newark this book provides new ways of understanding the complex dynamics and innovative political practices within major American cities

Women and Disability Mary Jo Deegan, 2018-04-27 The special needs of women with disabilities have been disregarded in a wide variety of vital areas Issues pertain to women as wives and mothers Studies of the effects on female sexuality of such conditions as renal disease and diabetes are lacking though the sexual functioning of men with these diseases has been researched On the economic front the Federal State Vocational Rehabilitation system and the regulations concerning disability benefits under Social Security provide less adequately for women than for men Hopefully this volume will raise the consciousness of its readers to the special status of women with disabilities as a minority group experiences multiple sources of discriminations

Black Women in Politics Michael Mitchell, 2017-09-29 The research included in this volume examines the competing pressures felt by black women as political agents in the domains of elections public policy and social activism Their challenges and initiatives are explored in public spaces institutional behaviours and public policy The volume features cutting edge research exploring black women s political engagement The first group of contributors interrogates the treatment of black women within the discipline of political science The second group examines the relationship between cultural politics and policymaking The third and final group outlines the politics of race gendered identity and black feminist practice Black Women in Politics includes chapters on black leadership radical versus moderate politics in New Orleans and the Shelby vs Holder Supreme Court decision The editors introduce a new series highlighting trends in black politics Finally the work notes the passing of William Nick Nelson and Hanes Walton Jr prominent members of the National Conference of Black Political Scientists

Black Women in Politics Julia S. Jordan-Zachery, Nikol G. Alexander-Floyd, 2018-09-01 Examines how Diasporic Black women engage in politics This book explores how Diasporic Black women engage in politics highlighting three dimensions citizenship power and justice that are foundational to intersectionality theory and politics as developed by Black women and other women of color By extending beyond particular time periods locations and singular definitions of politics Black Women in Politics sets itself apart in the field of women s and gender studies in three ways by focusing on contemporary Black politics not only in the United States but also the African Diaspora by showcasing politics along a broad trajectory including social movements formal politics public policy media studies and epistemology and by including a multidisciplinary range of scholars with a strong concentration of work by political scientists a group whose work is often excluded or limited in edited collections The final result expands our repertoire of methodological tools and concepts for discussing and assessing Black women s lives the conditions under which they live their labor and the politics they enact to improve their circumstances Black Women in Politics offers a new perspective on Black women as political actors Jordan

Zachery and Alexander Floyd have assembled a stellar group of essays that speak to the broad experiences and concerns of Black women as political actors Together the essays present a compelling story of what we learn when we center Black women s voices in policy debates democratic theory and notions of political leadership Wendy Smooth The Ohio State University Home Making Marion Harland,1911 Mary McLeod Bethune and Black Women's Political Activism Joyce A. Hanson,2003-03-14 Mary McLeod Bethune was a significant figure in American political history She devoted her life to advancing equal social economic and political rights for blacks She distinguished herself by creating lasting institutions that trained black women for visible and expanding public leadership roles Few have been as effective in the development of women s leadership for group advancement Despite her accomplishments the means techniques and actions Bethune employed in fighting for equality have been widely misinterpreted Mary McLeod Bethune and Black Women s Political Activism seeks to remedy the misconceptions surrounding this important political figure Joyce A Hanson shows that the choices Bethune made often appear contradictory unless one understands that she was a transitional figure with one foot in the nineteenth century and the other in the twentieth Bethune who lived from 1875 to 1955 struggled to reconcile her nineteenth century notions of women s moral superiority with the changing political realities of the twentieth century She used two conceptually distinct levels of activism one nonconfrontational and designed to slowly undermine systemic racism the other openly confrontational and designed to challenge the most overt discrimination in her efforts to achieve equality Hanson uses a wide range of never or little used primary sources and adds a significant dimension to the historical discussion of black women s organizations by such scholars as Elsa Barkley Brown Sharon Harley and Rosalyn Terborg Penn The book extends the current debate about black women s political activism in recent work by Stephanie Shaw Evelyn Brooks Higginbotham and Glenda Elizabeth Gilmore Examining the historical evolution of African American women s activism in the critical period between 1920 and 1950 a time previously characterized as doldrums for both feminist and civil rights activity Mary McLeod Bethune and Black Women s Political Activism is important for understanding the centrality of black women to the political fight for social economic and racial justice Broadening the Contours in the Study of Black Politics Michael Mitchell,2017-07-05 Broadening the Contours in the Study of Black Politics volume 17 of the National Political Science Review NPSR is divided thematically into two books available separately or as a set The first concentrates on the institutional aspects of Black politics The second book addresses various dimensions of social capital that constitute the fundamental building blocks of Black politics Each contains peer reviewed articles a symposium section and book reviews as well as other featured sections Together these books build on the previous NPSR volume Black Women in Politics The symposium in Volume 17 1 examines the struggle of Black women both in the political science discipline and in getting their work published In the symposium section of Volume 17 2 members of the National Conference of Black Political Scientists carry on a revealing conversation about the dilemmas of professional life for Black women in political science The set also contains a section called Trends which offers data to use as starting points for discussions in teaching on professional panels or in the mass media regarding the new versions of the Voting Rights Act after the Shelby County v Holder decision of 2013 Both volumes 17 1 and 17 2 contain rigorously vetted articles on significant themes in the study of Black politics This set represents the most recent offering in the distinguished National Political Science Review series

Redefining the Political Alex J. Moffett-Bateau,2024-09-06 Identifies socio political concepts and frameworks that can be used to recognize and understand the styles of political engagement political rebellion and political identity creation used by poor Black women living in the United States

To Advance the Race Linda M. Perkins,2024-04-09 From the United States earliest days African Americans considered education essential for their freedom and progress Linda M Perkins s study ranges across educational and geographical settings to tell the stories of Black women and girls as students professors and administrators Beginning with early efforts and the establishment of abolitionist colleges Perkins follows the history of Black women s post Civil War experiences at elite white schools and public universities in northern and midwestern states Their presence in Black institutions like Howard University marked another advancement as did Black women becoming professors and administrators But such progress intersected with race and education in the postwar era As gender questions sparked conflict between educated Black women and Black men it forced the former to contend with traditional notions of women s roles even as the 1960s opened educational opportunities for all African Americans A first of its kind history To Advance the Race is an enlightening look at African American women and their multi generational commitment to the ideal of education as a collective achievement

Intimate Inequalities Ella Parry-Davies,2025-09-15 Mobilizing performance to amplify migrant domestic workers creative expertise Intimate inequalities exist where the embodied and the everyday rub up against transnational structures of power Ella Parry Davies conducted collaborative research with migrant domestic workers from the Philippines living in the UK and Lebanon where migration is regulated by employer sponsorship systems to explore how they negotiate the intimacy of the family home and the attendant inequalities of laboring within it Intimate Inequalities Performing Migrant Domestic Work brings these conditions into focus while articulating a methodological inquiry into the dynamics of collaborative performance research Parry Davies examines site specific soundwalks recorded and coedited with domestic workers which steer the book between church choirs in Beirut and activist gatherings in London and from urban performances in Lebanon s 2019 revolution to mutual aid organizing amid COVID 19 in the UK Breaking with prevalent depictions of migrant domestic workers as voiceless and victimized Intimate Inequalities mobilizes performance as both an analytic lens and a practical methodology amplifying its subjects expertise while reckoning with the intimate yet unequal dynamics of research itself

The Art of Home-making in City and Country, in Mansion and Cottage Margaret Elizabeth Sangster,1898

White Women's Rights Louise Michele Newman,1999 A reinterpretation of the history of the American women s movement The book traces the intellectual roots of the women s movement revealing how it took on racial overtones and demonstrating that white middle class women laid the intellectual groundwork for the social movements that followed

Cultural Heritage and Mobility from a Multisensory Perspective Magdalena Banaszkiewicz, Karolina Nikielska-Sekuła, 2024-09-26 Cultural Heritage and Mobility from a Multisensory Perspective bridges the gap between cultural heritage and mobility studies through the employment of theoretical and methodological multisensory perspectives. An interdisciplinary volume covering a broad range of empirical cases, this book focuses on the engagement with cultural heritage in the context of mobility. The book presents a grassroots perspective of individual heritage performances by mobile and moving actors, analyzing them with close attention to their embodied aspects: bodily experiences, sensory impressions, and the affect and emotions they evoke. As a result, the collection of case studies presented covers empirical, theoretical, and methodological accounts of the embodiment of heritage in the context of mobility on macro, meso, and micro levels, exploring heritage change and mobility from a multisensory perspective. Cultural Heritage and Mobility from a Multisensory Perspective is primarily targeted at scholars, students, and practitioners working within and at the intersection of the fields of cultural heritage and mobility. It will also be of interest to those engaged in the study of tourism, migration, and integration studies. Chapters 2, 3, 4, 5, 13, 14, and Introduction of this book is freely available as a downloadable Open Access PDF at <http://www.taylorfrancis.com> under a Creative Commons Attribution-Non Commercial-No Derivatives CC BY-NC-ND 4.0 license.

Journal of Sociology and Social Welfare, 1981. Includes unpublished papers presented at the Division's meetings.

Intersectional Socialism Charles Masquelier, 2025-02-11 In the context of sustained economic and environmental crises marked by extreme inequalities of wealth, rising xenophobia, racism, and precarity, never has the need for a radical change of system been so pressing. This book is an invitation to think the world otherwise. The author breathes new life into socialist thought through the deployment of an intersectional lens, bringing diverse struggles for emancipation both within and outside the Global North into dialogue with one another. In doing so, he offers the kind of bold and holistic thinking the present situation calls for.

Written Out Joel Cabrita, 2023-01-17 Systemic racism and sexism caused one of South Africa's most important writers to disappear from public consciousness. Is it possible to justly restore her historical presence? Regina Gelana Twala, a Black South African woman who died in 1968 in Swaziland (now Eswatini), was an extraordinarily prolific writer of books, columns, articles, and letters. Yet today, Twala's name is largely unknown. Her literary achievements are forgotten. Her books are unpublished. Her letters languish in the dusty study of a deceased South African academic. Her articles are buried in discontinued publications. Joel Cabrita argues that Twala's posthumous obscurity has not developed accidentally, as she exposes the ways prejudices around race and gender blocked Black African women like Twala from establishing themselves as successful writers. Drawing upon Twala's family papers, interviews, newspapers, and archival records from Pretoria, Uppsala, and Los Angeles, Cabrita argues that an entire cast of characters: censorious editors, territorial White academics, apartheid officials, and male African politicians whose politics were at odds with her own, conspired to erase

Twala's legacy Through her unique documentary output Twala marked herself as a radical voice on issues of gender race and class The literary gatekeepers of the racist and sexist society of twentieth century southern Africa clamped down by literally writing her out of the region's history Written Out also scrutinizes the troubled racial politics of African history as a discipline that has been historically dominated by White academics a situation that many people within the field are now examining critically Inspired by this recent movement Cabrita interrogates what it means for her a White historian based in the Northern Hemisphere to tell the story of a Black African woman Far from a laudable recovery of an important lost figure Cabrita acknowledges that her biography inevitably reproduces old dynamics of White scholarly privilege and dominance Cabrita's narration of Twala's career resurrects it but also reminds us that Twala tragically is still not the author of her own life story

Feminist Activist Ethnography Christa Craven,Dána-Ain Davis,2013-04-04 Writing in the wake of neoliberalism where human rights and social justice have increasingly been subordinated to proliferating consumer choices and ideals of market justice contributors to this collection argue that feminist ethnographers are in a key position to reassert the central feminist connections between theory methods and activism Together we suggest avenues for incorporating methodological innovations collaborative analysis and collective activism in our scholarly projects What are the possibilities and challenges that exist for feminist ethnography 25 years after initial debates emerged in this field about reflexivity objectivity reductive individualism and the social relevance of activist scholarship How can feminist ethnography intensify efforts towards social justice in the current political and economic climate This collection continues a crucial dialog about feminist activist ethnography in the 21st century at the intersection of engaged feminist research and activism in the service of the organizations people communities and feminist issues we study

Challenging the Legacies of Racial Resentment Tiffany Willoughby-Herard,2017-07-05 Domestic and international health activism and health policy are focal points in this volume a publication of the National Conference of Black Political Scientists This work demonstrates the continuing importance of the medical civil rights movement through examples of activism of women of colour in AIDS service organizations of their health issues and of the struggle for racial equity in health care in Brazil Spikes in police and vigilante violence as well as fear of a reversion to segregated schools have brought a new urgency to black political activism The contributors explore the effect of race on American attitudes toward immigration policy and reform black state legislators and American morality politics the historically disproportionate influence of Southern whites in American politics and the undermining of school desegregation laws with nullification strategies The volume's Trends section features conversations on the BlackLivesMatter movement in Los Angeles the 2016 presidential election and examines the teaching of the Trayvon Martin story at the University of California Irvine The volume also includes a diverse selection of book reviews

The Sage International Encyclopedia of Politics and Gender Lia K. Roberts,2025-09-08

This four volume encyclopedia set is organized to allow the reader to explore gender and politics from an updated interdisciplinary intersectional and global perspective. The organization format will be an A-Z approach of approximately 500-600 entries with entries ranging in word count from 1,500-3,000 words with some entries on foundational topics at around 5,000. Coverage will examine both the role gender plays within the realm of politics, political participation, leadership, etc., as well as policies that are based in gender, abortion, and reproductive policies, transgender rights, etc. Foundational topics will include entries such as International Security and Gender, which will introduce gender and war, human trafficking, gender and militarism, and women and terrorism; and International Relations and Gender, which will introduce topics such as gender mainstreaming, the Convention on the Elimination of All Forms of Discrimination Against Women (CEDAW), and eco-feminism. A Comparative Politics foundational entry will focus on research areas surrounding political representation and participation, legislative processes, and law, such as gender quotas, gender gap in political participation and leadership, intersectionality, and barriers in representation and leadership. Ni Unos Menos (Not One Less) Movement, recent significant activist movements, and transgender-specific law. Concepts connected to feminist and queer theory as applied in regional studies will also be covered. For example, marianismo or the connection between Catholicism and gender roles in Latin American and Latinx communities, Asian American and Pacific Islander (AAPI) voters and political mobilization, and LGBTQIA+ leaders and social movements will be included. This encyclopedia will be essential for any undergraduate or graduate course on gender studies in gender studies programs as well as sociology, political science, history, or other related programs, disciplines, gender and politics, international relations, and gender or area-specific courses such as Gender and Latin American Politics or Gender and African Studies.
