Loss of the Assumptive World Jeffrey Kauffman, 2013-05-13 The assumptive world concept is a psychological principle of the conservation of human reality or culture it is a lens for seeing the psychological disturbances that occur in times of change In this collection the authors examine the assumptive world from diverse theoretical perspectives providing the reader with an array of different viewpoints illuminating the concept and its clinical usefulness

Conscious Culture Joanna Barclay, 2014-08-15 With employee engagement between 26-30 percent leaders are looking for ways to engage untapped employee potential and maximize their capital investment in HR A new business paradigm is emerging in the twenty first century where an organization's culture is the most important and valuable asset a company has to attract engage and retain top talent The most successful corporations in the world are values driven and consciously invest in building their workplace culture so that it aligns with the personal values of their people Values are a source of life force energy that come from within They inspire and motivate us and embody our heart and soul Study of contextual cardiology has demonstrated the existence and power of the heart's energy We experience this in the form of emotional intelligence and intuition The more leaders practice connecting with their emotional intelligence emotions such as love compassion loyalty and trust the more effective they will be at leading themselves and others This is because employees are looking for leaders

they can trust and who care for others want to make a difference and contribute to society A facilitative leadership style is the key to transforming an organization and creating a culture of engagement It moves people from being focused on me self interest to we common good Facilitative leaders unify the organization connect hearts and minds empower employees to bring their best selves to work and create a WOW culture where employees love what they do The book contains unique tools for inner and outer transformation along with case studies and worksheets to support leaders journeys of culture change to measure map and manage cultural transformation What you measure you can manage Organizational transformation begins with the personal transformation of the leaders because organizations don t change it s the people in them who do Leaders learn how to walk the talk and be the change they want to see

Consumer-Citizens of China Kelly Tian, Lily Dong, 2010-11-01 A PDF version of this book is available for free in open access via www.tandfebooks.com as well as the OAPEN Library platform www.oapen.org It has been made available under a Creative Commons Attribution Non Commercial No Derivatives 3.0 license and is part of the OAPEN UK research project This book presents a comprehensive examination of Chinese consumer behaviour and challenges the previously dichotomous interpretation of the consumption of Western and non Western brands in China The dominant position is that Chinese consumers are driven by a desire to imitate the lifestyles of Westerners and thereby advance their social standing locally The alternative is that consumers reject Western brands as a symbolic gesture of loyalty to their nation state Drawing from survey responses and in depth interviews with Chinese consumers in both rural and urban areas Kelly Tian and Lily Dong find that consumers situate Western brands within select historical moments This embellishment attaches historical meanings to Western brands in ways that render them useful in asserting preferred visions of the future China By highlighting how Western brands are used in contests for national identity Consumer Citizens of China challenges the notion of the patriot's paradox and answers scholars questions as to whether Chinese nationalists today allow for a Sino Western space where the Chinese can love China without hating the West Consumer Citizens of China will be of interest to students and scholars of business studies Chinese and Asian Studies and Political Science Kelly Tian is Professor of Marketing and holds the Anderson Chair of Business at New Mexico

State University Lily Dong is Associate Professor of Marketing at the University of Alaska at Fairbanks External Communication in Social Media During Asymmetric Conflicts Bernd Hirschberger, 2021-07-02 Social media increasingly shapes the way in which we perceive conflicts and conflict parties abroad Conflict parties therefore have started using social media strategically to influence public opinion abroad This book explores the phenomenon by examining 1 which strategies of external communication conflict parties use during asymmetric conflicts and 2 what shapes the selection of these communication strategies In a comprehensive case study of the conflict in Israel and Palestine Bernd Hirschberger shows that the selection of strategies of external communication is shaped by the asymmetric conflict structure Buffy and the Art of Story Season One L. Kreidler, 2005-09 Educational resource for teachers parents and kids Loss, Hurt and Hope Sandra L. Bloom, Lorelei Atalie Vargas, 2009-03-26 What happens when a child experiences bereavement or trauma or both When left untreated childhood trauma crosses generational boundaries developing risk factors that far outpace the threat of any other childhood disease and yet most children who have lived through a significant traumatic experience usually do not get the care they need to begin their healing process Children who have experienced trauma are often left grappling with devastating loss loss of self esteem security innocence and trust that is more challenging to diagnose and treat than the more concrete loss of family a pet or a home Loss Hurt and Hope The Complex Issues of Bereavement and Trauma in Children gathers the collective wisdom of professionals who have spent years on the front lines working with children victimized by trauma Each chapter illuminates how loss can shape a child s development and provides professionals with the tools necessary to help these children move from despair to hope and renewal Experts in the field of child trauma explore the vulnerability of these children effective methods of caring for them in a variety of treatment settings and examine the impact of loss on organizations charged with caring for those who have experienced trauma Loss Hurt and Hope offers a multifaceted lens through which loss can be examined and appreciated laying the groundwork for significant progress toward improving the understanding of the power of loss in our society Love and Work Mieke

Polderman,2014-09-01 Is there interaction between love and work If so in what ways does it appear The main incentive for this research is the notable increase of American and Dutch people who wish to spend more and more of their time working and who feel useless and robbed of their identity when separated from their jobs It seems that work is considered more fulfilling and satisfying than love which can be undermined by failing relationships tension depression violence addiction crime or angry and unmanageable children Whereas Proust described love in a milieu where most of the work was done by servants and artists Freud was convinced that love and work were the two main pillars of society This view has been echoed by psychologists sociologists philosophers and novelists However a new phenomenon is that men and women share love and work Finding the right balance between the two is a hot topic in how to books newspaper and magazine articles but the underlying connections have received little if any scrutiny In fact it may well be a mission impossible since as the Frankfurt School asserted the capitalist powers in search of profit urge politicians to lure men women and children onto the work floor by telling them work is a duty that not only will provide disposable income but also happiness and fulfillment in life Hence people internalize this message without asking themselves why continuous consumption is more important than giving and receiving love which they crave but seldom find Although focusing on middle class people between the ages of twenty five and forty who are travelling the highway of life have paid jobs a relationship of at least three years and children this study should be of interest to everyone The Unitarian Register ,1926 The Economist ,1926 Christian Register and Boston Observer ,1926 Shrink-Proof Your Life: Top Ten Ways to Stay Off the Therapist's Couch Peter Allman, MA,2016-08-15 Most of us are creatures of habit Unfortunately some habits specifically our thinking patterns can be unhealthy In Shrink Proof Your Life seasoned psychotherapist Peter Allman shares advice that will help us break away from negative habits or suffocating situations and illuminate the path toward an expanding life filled with more love purpose and joy Allman who has been a psychotherapist for more than twenty years offers strategies to create stronger relationships resolve inner and outer conflicts and find the inner strength to tackle obstacles While teaching ways to work through normal feelings of sadness annoyance and grief Allman also includes conversations with counseling clients that show practical approaches helpful metaphors and proven methods that train the mind to achieve better mental health and resiliency through life s greatest challenges
