Urban Regeneration and Neoliberalism Clare Kinsella,2020-10-29 This book explores the concept of home in Liverpool over phases of regeneration following the Second World War Using qualitative research in the oral history tradition it explores what the author conceptualises as forward facing regeneration in the period up to the 1980s and neoliberal regeneration interventions that prioritise the past from the 1980s to the present The author examines how the shift towards city centre focused redevelopment and event led initiatives has implications for the way residents make sense of their conceptualisations of home and demonstrates how the shift in regeneration focus discourse and practice away from Liverpool s neighbourhood districts and towards the city centre has produced changes in the ways that residents identify with neighbourhoods and the city centre with prominence being given to the latter Employing Pierre Bourdieu s concepts of habitus and field as mechanisms for understanding different senses of home and shifts from localised views to globalised views this book will appeal to those with interests in urban sociology regeneration geography sociology home cultures and cities Detroit, American Urban Renaissance Arthur M. Woodford,1979 A History of Mortgage Banking in the West E. Michael Rosser,Diane M. Sanders,2017-10-15 Part economic history part public history A History of Mortgage Banking in the West is an insider s account of how the mortgage banking sector worked over the last 150 years including analysis of the causes of the 2007 mortgage crisis Beginning with the land and railroad development acts that encouraged settlement in the west E Michael Rosser and Diane M Sanders trace the laws institutions and individuals that contributed to the economic growth of the region Using Colorado and the west as a case study for the nation s economic and property development as a whole since the late nineteenth century Rosser and Sanders explain how farm mortgages and agricultural lending steadily gave way to urban development and housing mortgages all while the large mortgage and investment firms financed the development of some of the state s most important water resources and railroad networks Rosser uses his personal experience as a lifelong practitioner and educator of mortgage banking along with a plethora of primary sources academic archives and industry publications to analyze the causes of economic booms and busts as they relate to real estate and development Rosser s professional acumen combined with Sanders s research experience makes A History of Mortgage Banking in the West a rich and nuanced account of the region s most significant economic events It will be an important work for scholars and practitioners in regional and financial history mortgage market practice and development government housing and mortgage policy and financial stability and of great significance to anyone curious about the role of the federal government in national housing policy and the inherent risk in mortgages Victorian Hartford Tomas J. Nenortas,2005-02-09 From workers housing to the grand homes of industrialists prosperous Hartford experienced an explosion of Victorian building that turned this capital city into a rich mixture of culture beauty and business The capital of the insurance industry Hartford was also home to the first public art museum the Wadsworth Atheneum the first municipal rose garden Elizabeth Park and colossal factories that produced Colt firearms typewriters sewing machines and even the first automobiles Victorian Hartford showcases the citys great architecture through historic images some of which are the only evidence of the citys former grandeur and provides glimpses into a world long gone Planning and Urban Change Stephen Ward,2004-02-18 Fully revised and thoroughly updated the Second Edition of Planning and Urban Change provides an accessible yet richly detailed account of British urban planning Stephen Ward demonstrates how urban planning can be understood through three categories ideas urban planning history as the development of theoretical approaches from radical and utopian beginnings to the new right thinking of the 1980s and recent interest in green thought and sustainability policies urban planning history as an intensely political process the text explains the complicated relation between planning theory and political practice and impacts urban planning history as the divergence of expectation and outcome each chapter shows how intended impacts have been modified by economic and social forces This Second Edition features an entirely new chapter on the key policy changes that have occurred under the Major and Blair governments together with a critical review of current policy trends Home and International Law Henrietta Zeffert,2024-03-26 This book is about home and international law More specifically it is about the profound and frequently devastating transformations of home that are happening almost everywhere in the world today and what international law has to do with them Through three stories of home the desert home the lake home and the city home this book traces how the everyday operations of international law shape the material affective and imaginative experience of home It argues that international law s homemaking work is characterised by acts of domination practices of resistance and the production of unhomely spaces However the book also considers whether and how the liberatory potential of international law could be unlocked through the metaphor of home This book draws from fieldwork conducted by the author in Palestine Cambodia and the United Kingdom It takes a global socio legal approach to home and international law informed by feminist political theory feminist geography home studies and contemporary critical approaches to international law It is the first academic work to examine the relationship between home and international law This book s global socio legal approach to home and international law will be of interest to those teaching and studying in international law socio legal studies legal pluralism and legal geography Sustainable Urban Neighbourhood David Rudlin,Nicholas Falk,2010-05-14 This successful title previously known as Building the 21st Century

Home and now in its second edition explores and explains the trends and issues that underlie the renaissance of UK towns and cities and describes the sustainable urban neighbourhood as a model for rebuilding urban areas The book reviews the way that planning policies architectural trends and economic forces have undermined the viability of urban areas in Britain since the Industrial Revolution Now that much post war planning philosophy is being discredited we are left with few urban models other than garden city inspired suburbia Are these appropriate in the 21st century given environmental concerns demographic change social and economic pressures The authors suggest that these trends point to a very different urban future The authors argue that we must reform our towns and cities so that they become attractive humane places where people will choose to live The Sustainable Urban Neighbourhood is a model for such reform and the book describes what this would look like and how it might be brought about The Rough Road to Renaissance Jon C. Teaford,1990-08 Teaford history Purdue U describes efforts in twelve older central cities in the Northeast and Midwest to achieve revitalization during the period from 1940 to 1985 Focusing on local rather than state or federal perspectives he explores the changing trends in city politics and municipal finance as well as other policies in pursuit of urban renaissance Annotation copyrighted by Book News Inc Portland OR The Everyday Practice of Public Art Cameron Cartiere,Martin Zebracki,2015-11-19 The Everyday Practice of Public Art Art Space and Social Inclusion is a multidisciplinary anthology of analyses exploring the expansion of contemporary public art issues beyond the built environment It follows the highly successful publication The Practice of Public Art eds Cartiere and Willis and expands the analysis of the field with a broad perspective which includes practicing artists curators activists writers and educators from North America Europe and Australia who offer divergent perspectives on the many facets of the public art process The collection examines the continual evolution of public art moving beyond monuments and memorials to examine more fully the development of socially engaged public art practice Topics include constructing new models for developing and commissioning temporary and performance based public artworks understanding the challenges of a socially engaged public art practice vs social programming and policymaking the social inclusiveness of public art the radical developments in public art and social practice pedagogy and unravelling the relationships between public artists and the communities they serve The Everyday Practice of Public Art offers a diverse perspective on the increasingly complex nature of artistic practice in the public realm in the twenty first century The Publishers Weekly ,2008 Mass Housing in Europe Sako Musterd,2009-11-30 Based on empirical research from 29 major postwar housing estates in 15 European cities this collection explores mass housing experiments examining the problems policy responses and residents everyday experiences in the estates in the context of change and regeneration

Cities and Regions in Crisis Martin Jones,2019 This book offers a new geographical political economy approach to our understanding of regional and local economic development in Western Europe over the last twenty years It suggests that governance failure is occurring at a variety of spatial scales and an impedimenta state is emerging This is derived from the state responding to state intervention and economic development that has become irrational ambivalent and disoriented The book blends theoretical approaches to crisis and contradiction theory with empirical examples from cities and regions

The Spatial Turn Barney Warf,Santa Arias,2008-09-18 This book analyses approaches to space identifying commonalities and explores how and why differences appear It includes thirteen essays by authors from America Canada Europe and Latin America and will appeal to everyone conducting conceptual and theoretical research on space in geography and other related fields Housing Displacement Guy Baeten,Carina Listerborn,Maria Persdotter,Emil Pull,2020-10-14 This book examines reasons processes and consequences of housing displacement in different geographical contexts It explores displacement as a prime act of housing injustice a central issue in urban injustices With international case studies from the US the UK Australia Canada India Spain Denmark Sweden and Hungary this book explores how housing displacement processes are more diverse and mutate into more new forms than have been acknowledged in the literature It emphasizes a need to look beyond the existing rich gentrification literature to give primacy to researching processes of displacement to understand the socio spatial change in the city Although it is empirically and methodologically demanding for several reasons studying displacement highlights gentrification s unjust nature as well as the unjust housing policies in cities and neighborhoods that are simply not undergoing gentrification The book also demonstrates how expulsion though under researched has become a vital component of contemporary advanced capitalism and how a focus on gentrification has hindered a potential focus on its flipside of displacement as well as the study of the occurrence of poor cleansing from a long term historical perspective This book offers interdisciplinary perspectives on housing displacement to academics and researchers in the fields of urban studies housing citizenship and migration studies interested in housing policies and governance practices at the urban scale

Spectacle and the City Jeroen Kloet,Lena Scheen,2025-10-01 China is urbanizing at an unprecedented speed Filmmakers artists musicians and writers all try to come to terms with the changes of their city How is the Chinese city as spectacle visualised and thus imagined and reimagined if not contested in art and popular culture What are the possible escape routes from a completely commodified cityscape How to realign artistic expressions of the spectacle with everyday practices The imaginations of the Chinese city in art and popular culture that this book explores are not taken as merely mirroring or reflecting reality on the contrary they are part and parcel of the construction destruction and deconstruction of that reality As such these imaginations are enmeshed in the social material and political realities that produce Chinese cityscapes Spectacle and the City Chinese Urbanities in Art and Popular Culture brings together essays by an interdisciplinary team of experts on Chinese cities including world renowned scholars like Ackbar Abbas and Chua Beng Huat as well as leading cultural critics like Ou Ning Aiming to steer away from an exclusive focus on Mainland China the adjective Chinese has a cultural meaning and includes places like Singapore and Hong Kong House on Fire David N. Cicilline,2022-08-30 Congressman David Cicilline offers his provocative takes on Republicans Democrats and the world of politics in the wake of

Donald Trump The rioters were still in the Capitol shattering the door to the House Chamber and bellowing Hang Mike Pence when David Cicilline safely locked inside his office began writing the articles of impeachment that would lead to Donald Trump s second Senate trial He helped prosecute the case earning admiration from his fellow progressives and a national following But by summer he would be calling out some of those same colleagues for caving to special interests and attempting to block his plan to rein in the Big Tech companies like Facebook and Google Beyond sounding an alarm House on Fire identifies the key threat to our democracy that the GOP has become a Trumpist authoritarian cult and outlines how we fight back A response that must include both citizen opposition and practical reforms including an end to the Senate filibuster discarding the Electoral College expanding the Supreme Court and requiring that justices adhere to a code of ethics Cicilline actually believes in politics and the system He used them both to deliver for the people in a once corrupt city he ran as mayor and in Washington where he has risen to help lead the Democratic Party in Congress In HOUSE ON FIRE Cicilline spares no one from criticism as he argues for a politics that produces results and warns that without it Trump or someone worse will take power in 2024 and make us wish for the days when the only thing we complained about was gridlock Back to the City ,1974 20th Century Urban Design in the Netherlands Hans Ibelings,1999 Edited by Hans Ibelings Urban Legends Ngaire E. Genge,2010-06-09 Urban Legends is a remarkably complete collection of the modern myths that make the rounds in offices college dorms and every other place where people tell the stories that spring from our deepest fears and fascinations Every culture has its folktales including ours Except instead of involving gods and goddesses or princes and princesses ours involve some guy my sister s best friend knows or someone who woke up in a motel room They happened supposedly to real people usually recently in a particular place And they touch the most sensitive nerves of our psyches with ironic twists gross out shocks and moral lessons learned the hard way From the classic tale The Mexican Pet in which the dog turns out to be no Chihuahua to the more unappetizing story of condoms as fast food burger garnish from surgically skilled kidney thieves to sexual experiments that end in the emergency room Urban Legends relates more 300 of the most enticing macabre and unforgettable tales Expertly told they are arranged in such chapters as Crazy Little Thang Called Sex Oh Scare Me Campus Capers Corporate Convolutions and So Much For Comfort Food Fascinating chilling and occasionally repulsive Urban Legends has all your favorites and hundreds more
