Golden Odes Of Love Al Muallaqat:

Desmond O'Grady, 1997 Arabic literature sprang into existence in the sixth and seventh centuries AD with an outburst of poetry Across northern Arabia poets recited qasidas odes in which a series of themes is elaborated with vivid imaginative language and cast in complex rhythmic and rhyming schemes These seven odes are known collectively as the Muallaqat the suspended poems because they were transcribed in letters of gold on linen and suspended in the shrine of the Kaaba at Mecca as masterpieces of the qasida form Desmond O'Grady's verse renderings of the odes capture the rhythm and spirit of this vibrant art The known facts of the poets' lives serve as brief introductions

Archaeology of Babel Siraj Ahmed, 2017-12-12 For more than three decades preeminent scholars in comparative literature and postcolonial studies have called for a return to philology as the indispensable basis of critical method in the humanities Against such calls this book argues that the privilege philology has always enjoyed within the modern humanities silently reinforces a colonial hierarchy In fact each of philology's foundational innovations originally served British rule in India Tracing an unacknowledged history that extends from British Orientalist Sir William Jones to Palestinian American intellectual Edward Said and beyond Archaeology of Babel excavates the epistemic transformation that was engendered on a global scale by the colonial reconstruction of native languages literatures and law In the process it reveals the extent to which even postcolonial studies and European philosophy not to mention discourses as disparate as Islamic fundamentalism Hindu nationalism and global environmentalism are the progeny of colonial rule Going further it unearths the alternate concepts of language and literature that were lost along the way and issues its own call for humanists to reckon with the politics of the philological practices to which they now return The Golden odes of love: Al - Mu'allaqat

Durakovic,2015-04-24 Through analysing ancient and classical Arabic literature including the Qur an from within the Arabic literary tradition this book provides an original interpretation of poetics and of other important aspects of Arab culture Ancient Arabic literature is a realm of poetry prose literary forms emerged rather late and even then remained in the shadow of poetic creative efforts Traditionally this literature has been viewed through a philologist s lens and has often been represented as materialistic in the sense that its poetry lacked imagination As a result Arabic poetry was often evaluated negatively in relation to other poetic traditions The Poetics of Ancient and Classical Arabic Literature argues that old Arabic literature is remarkably coherent in poetical terms and has its own individuality and that claims of its materialism arise from a failure to grasp the poetic principles of the Arabic tradition Analysing the Qur an which is known for confronting the poetry of the time this book reveals that post Qur anic literature came to be defined against it Thus the constitution and interpretation of Arabic literature imposed itself as a particular exegesis of the sacred Text Disputing traditional interpretations by arguing that Arabic literature can only be assessed from within and not through comparison with other literary traditions this book is of interest to students and scholars of Islamic Studies Arabic Studies and Literary Studies
