Richmond, 2015-07-20 Excerpt from The Good Neighbor In the Modern City This little book was begun last summer in the mountains where I had the encouragement and daily companionship of the best neighbor I have ever known But before two chapters had been written God called her up there among the hills The whole is now dedicated most lovingly to her memory About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books Find more at www.forgottenbooks.com This book is a reproduction of an important historical work Forgotten Books uses state of the art technology to digitally reconstruct the work preserving the original format whilst repairing imperfections present in the aged copy In rare cases an imperfection in the original such as a blemish or missing page may be replicated in our edition We do however repair the vast majority of imperfections successfully any imperfections that remain are intentionally left to preserve the state of such historical works

Good Neighbors, 1943 The Good

Neighbors Edgar Pangborn, 2011-10 The ship itself occasioned some excitement but back there at the tattered end of the century what was one visiting spaceship more or less Others had appeared before and gone away discouraged or just not bothering The first knowledge of the escape came when the region of Seattle suffered an eclipse of the sun which was not an eclipse but a near shadow which was not a shadow but a thing The darkness drifted out of the northern Pacific It generated thunder without lightning and without rain When it had moved eastward and the hot sun reappeared wind followed a moderate gale The coast was battered by sudden high waves then hushed in a bewilderment of fog And then she began to drift slowly into the east Things happened in the east Terrible terrible things
