Governance in Post-Conflict Societies Derick W. Brinkerhoff, 2007-01-24 This volume explores questions of rebuilding governance in post conflict societies from an interdisciplinary perspective focusing on three interconnected gaps that arise in fragile states deficits in legitimacy effectiveness and security Policy and Governance in Post-Conflict Settings Puthsodary Tat, 2019-08-13 Post conflict societies are commonly constructed as weak fragile and failed states Economic recovery risks of renewed violent conflict natural resource degradation and poverty alleviation become prioritized agendas of donor countries and international institutions Billions of dollars on development policy and governance reform have been invested However misapplication ineffectiveness and foreign aid dependency have become a controversial debate on whose policy whose governance and whose outcomes To understand the problems the author employs a blend of social constructionism and discourse theory to establish a platform for understanding and discussing hegemonic aid conditionality on recipient governments The theories also help analyze how the meanings of post conflict governance are socially economically and politically constructed and used in state building state apparatuses institutional building and policy making process He reveals that the philosophical and theoretical knowledge that underlies the interface between the mode of governance and policy design create the consensus of values norms and indicators between experts public servants donors and communities in post conflict settings The author also shares illuminating case studies by way of his considerable wealth of experience leading reconstructive efforts in Afghanistan and Cambodia Guiding Principles for Stabilization and Reconstruction

United States Institute of Peace, 2009 Claude Chabrol s second film follows the fortunes of two cousins Charles a hard working student who has arrived in Paris from his small hometown and Paul the dedicated hedonist who puts him up Despite their differences in temperament the two young men strike up a close friendship until an attractive woman comes between them Guide to Rebuilding Public Sector Services in Stability Operations Derick W. Brinkerhoff, Ronald W.

actual scope and role of local government is far less frequently discussed This gap remains despite a considerable literature on local government in developing countries more generally particularly with regard to decentralisation but also despite a considerable and growing literature on post conflict reconstruction This volume provides a mixture of case study cross case studies practitioner reflection and conceptual material on the function of local government in the context of decentralisation in post conflict countries from both academics and policy makers This collection of in depth single and multi country case study analysis is complemented by practitioner reflections and framed within the 2030 Agenda building on the New Urban Agenda and particularly the Sustainable Development Goal 16 to promote peaceful and inclusive societies for sustainable development provide access to justice for all and build effective accountable and inclusive institutions at all levels The chapters in this book were originally published in the online journal Third World Thematics

Engendering Democracy in Africa Niamh Gaynor,2022-06-01 This book investigates women s political participation in Africa Going beyond the formal institutions of electoral politics it explores a range of spaces where everyday politics take place at national and at local levels In recent years there have been significant improvements in the number of women elected to parliament in Africa However there is little indication that this is translating into better developmental outcomes and indeed there is mounting evidence that it could in fact help to bolster some authoritarian regimes Starting from the premise that politics is a far broader project than securing a seat in national or local legislatures alone this book explores the opportunities for women s political participation across a number of informal spaces where women and men gather organise and interact in a more regular and systematic manner Combining insights from political science sociology and feminist theory and drawing on detailed cases from the Congo Kenya Malawi Nigeria and Rwanda it examines how power in its multiple dimensions circulates across a range of everyday political spaces while drawing attention to the links between domestic gender inequalities and the global political economy Inviting scholars practitioners and activists to broaden their focus beyond formal electoral institutions if they want to support women to become more politically active this book provides fresh insights into major issues at the heart of African studies development studies gender and development democratisation and international relations

Institutional Reform and Diaspora Entrepreneurs Jennifer M. Brinkerhoff, 2016-08-08 Externally promoted institutional reform even when nominally accepted by developing country governments often fails to deliver lasting change Diasporans immigrants who still feel a connection to their country of origin may offer an In Between Advantage for institutional reform which links problem understanding with potential solutions and encompasses vision impact operational and psycho social advantages Individuals with entrepreneurial characteristics can catalyzing institutional reform Diasporans may have particular advantages for entrepreneurship as they live both psychologically and materially between the place of origin they left and the new destination they have embraced Their entrepreneurial characteristics may be accidental cultivated through the migration and diaspora experience or innate to individuals personalities This book articulates the diaspora institutional entrepreneur In Between Advantage proposes a model for understanding the characteristics and motivational influences of entrepreneurs generally and how they apply to diaspora entrepreneurs in particular and presents a staged model of institutional entrepreneur actions I test these frameworks through case narratives of social institutional reform in Egypt economic institutional reform in Ethiopia and political institutional reform in Chad In addition to identifying policy implications this book makes important theoretical contributions in three areas First it builds on existing and emerging critiques of international development assistance that articulate prescriptions related to alternative theories of change Second it fills an important gap in the literature by focusing squarely on the role of agency in institutional reform processes while still accounting for organizational systems and socio political contexts In doing so it integrates a more expansive view of entrepreneurship into extant understandings of institutional entrepreneurship and it sheds light on what happens in the frequently invoked black box of agency Third it demonstrates the fallacy of many theoretical frameworks that seek to order institutional change processes into neatly definable linear stages      Doing Good Or Doing Better Monique Kremer, Peter van Lieshout, Robert Went, 2009 Development policies in the globalising world
