The Spiritual Churches of New Orleans Claude F. Jacobs, Andrew J. Kaslow, 2001 The New Orleans Spiritual churches constitute a distinctive African American belief system Influenced by Catholicism Pentecostalism Spiritualism and Voodoo the group is a New World syncretic faith similar to Espiritismo Santería and Umbanda The Spiritual Churches of New Orleans combines a historical account of the emergence of this religion with careful ethnographic description of current congregations At the same time text and photographs eloquently convey the ecstasy at the heart of the Spiritual experience The Spiritual churches began in the 1920s as a women's movement Men later assumed leadership in an effort to legitimate the group within the New Orleans religious community and form associations with Spiritual churches elsewhere in the United States Unlike earlier researchers who treated practices in the churches as expressions of black folk traditions the authors see Spiritual ritual not as based on magic but as the way the sacred is acted out within an African American aesthetic During worship members may be filled by the Holy Spirit as in Pentecostal churches or entertain spirits or spirit guides as in Spiritualism or Voodoo Prophecy and healing are presented as the markers of this faith and the Native American figure Black Hawk as a major symbol of empowerment Based on extensive interviews with church members years of participant observation and careful research in documentary sources this book achieves rigorous conceptual clarity in a straightforward engaging style The Authors Claude F. Jacobs holds a Ph.D. in anthropology from Tulane University He teaches at Oakland University Andrew J. Kaslow holds a Ph.D. in anthropology from Columbia University He is a consultant to international organizations
