Startup Your Life Anna Akbari, 2016-12-27 A young entrepreneur and sociologist shows readers how to reach personal fulfillment using the same strategies that power Silicon Valley's greatest startups As an entrepreneur Anna Akbari learned that one of the best things about startups is their ability to pivot quickly basically a euphemism for failing and starting over And she quickly found that personal success is no different It's not just about developing and following the right process but also having a good idea And that demands rigor and daily maintenance far beyond a few positive affirmations Like any Silicon Valley startup the business of life is not as glamorous as its Instagram account would make it seem What do you do when planning is not an option When control is out of your reach You isolate the small stuff experiment constantly and use the results to lay a more sustainable foundation for the future You validate your idealized vision by testing it out in bite sized increments You see what sticks integrate and move forward And inevitably you experience a series of failures along the way but those failures are key to your next success Living a start up life is about maximizing flexibility and measuring on going results not avoiding failure or reaching one particular end goal It's about embracing defeat analyzing it and failing up In Startup Your Life Akbari shows that after all it's often the stumbles that pave the way for real happiness

The Complete Idiot's Guide to Social Media Marketing, 2nd Edition Jennifer Abernethy, 2012-04-03 The Complete Idiot's Guide to Social Media Marketing Second Edition covers cutting edge techniques for small and large businesses alike Ask the Author Q How has social media marketing changed business and personal lives A The playing field has been leveled for business No longer do you need a 6 or 7 figure budget to reach people around the country or globe for that matter Personally many lives have been affected Many people more connected businesses have grown because of the connections TV and singing careers have been launched money has been raised for charity books have been marketed and purchased and so on Q What has been the most challenging part of utilizing social media A I think the learning curve With all of these sites they come with no directions and no LIVE phone number Q What has worked the best and worst thus far A Facebook because of its broad reach really has worked for me but many would argue that YouTube works the best particularly since it is the search engine of choice with the 11-34 age group Q How can a person searching for a job use social media marketing A So many ways They need to be on LinkedIn with a professional looking profile photo and contact information They could also utilize video to begin sharing their expertise Candidates need to stand out in a crowd of millions

so if they say sent in a video introducing themselves and a video follow up email that would wow them Q What is the newest thing since Twitter A I believe companies and individuals are starting to utilize audio for creating their own iTunes channel and also location based social media like FourSquare I personally am not sold on location based services as of yet from a safety point of view but for retailers it can be a good thing I believe video is going to explode in popularity in 2011 for the 35 market as well They just need to get comfortable being on camera Groupon Frank Sennett,2015-08-01T00:00:00+02:00
