Holy Companions Sylvia Maddox, Mary C. Earle, 2004-08 Let the lives and the wisdom of the Celtic saints teach you to pray An excellent resource for individuals or groups who want to learn from the masters Holy Companions Sylvia Maddox, Mary C. Earle, 2004-07-01 The Celtic tradition continues to captivate readers Centuries old it seems to speak to the modern world with a fresh voice In Holy Companions readers are invited to get to know and journey with eighteen Celtic saints The authors have provided a theme inspired by each saint along with a brief biography a reflection on what the saint's life and words may mean to us today and some spiritual exercises and practices that grow out of that life and work Written accessibly this is an excellent book for individual exploration or group study Celtic Christian Spirituality, 2011 The Celtic Christians beheld the world around them and perceived the divine life of God as upholding every aspect of the material universe Their prayers and poems their liturgies and theological interpretations give Christians a sense of faith that is confident in a merciful and infinitely creative healing God Nurturing Children's Spirituality Holly Allen, 2008-03-01 Children's spiritual development is currently a hot topic in Christian circles as well as in other fields and disciplines such as educational psychology medicine developmental psychology education and sociology The key question for Christian scholars and educators is How do Christian beliefs and practices uniquely interrelate with children's spirituality In 2003 and again in 2006 a national conference entitled Children's Spirituality Conference Christian Perspectives examined children's spirituality from a distinctly Christian standpoint This book is a collection of the best materials from the 2006 conference The first half of the book addresses definitional historical and theological concerns related to spiritual development in children The second half explores best practices for fostering spiritual growth among our children in our homes families churches Christian schools and among special populations of children from a wide spectrum of Christian scholars and practitioners The volume closes with John Westerhoff's moving keynote address and Catherine Stonehouse and Scottie May's eloquent culminating plenary address Nurturing Children's Spirituality provides a rich cross section of the current research and writing by Christian scholars on children's spirituality Contributors Holly Catterton Allen Michael J Anthony Stacy Berg Chris J Boyatzis MaLesia Breeding Marilyn Brownlee Linda V Callahan Jane Carr Mara Lief Crabtree Karen Crozier James Riley Estep Jr Jeffrey E Feinberg Stephanie Goins Judy Harris Helm Dana Kennamer Hood Sungwon Kim Kevin Lawson Scottie May Marcia McQuitty Heidi Schultz Oschwald Donald Ratcliff Pam Scranton Timothy A Sisemore Catherine Stonehouse La Verne Tolbert T Wyatt Watkins John H Westerhoff III The Celtic Way of Evangelism, Tenth Anniversary Edition Dr. George G. Hunter III, 2011-11-01 Celtic Christianity the form of Christian faith that flourished among the people of Ireland during the Middle Ages has gained a great deal of attention lately George G Hunter III points out that while the attention paid to the Celtic Christians is well deserved much of it fails to recognize the true genius of this ancient form of Christianity What many contemporary Christians do not realize is that Celtic Christianity was one of the most successfully evangelistic branches of the church in history The Celtic church converted Ireland from paganism to Christianity in a remarkably short period and then proceeded to send missionaries throughout Europe North America is today in the same situation as the environment in which the early Celtic preachers found their mission fields unfamiliar with the Christian message yet spiritually seeking and open to a vibrant new faith If we are to spread the gospel in this culture of secular seekers we would do well to learn from the Celts Their ability to work with the beliefs of those they evangelized to adapt worship and church life to the indigenous patterns they encountered remains unparalleled in Christian history If we are to succeed in reaching the West again then we must begin by learning from these powerful witnesses to the saving love of Jesus Christ This classic book on the power of indigenous evangelism has been thoroughly revised and updated proving once again how much these ancient Christians have to teach anyone who seeks to spread the word of the gospel The Soul's Slow Ripening Christine Valters
