Teaching and Learning across Culture and Age Fengfeng Ke,Alicia Fedelina Chávez,2013-05-24 With limited empirical research available on online teaching across cultures especially with Native and Hispanic American students this book will present the findings of a two year Spencer funded study in creating an inclusive i e multicultural and intergenerational instructional design model for online learning The book is expected to provide the readers a field guide of teaching approach comprising pedagogical technical relational and other suggestions for teaching for inclusive e learning with a foundation in the research on how students from different cultures and generation groups learn online This two year multi course site study as a first effort to examine online college teaching and learning effective across culture and age contributed a list of important findings on the following questions To what extent are online learning and interaction experiences and performances consistent across varied ethnic cultural and age groups and in what ways do they vary What online instructional contexts do students and faculty especially non traditional and minority students identify as supporting learning and student success What are the relationships between online instructional contexts online learning performance and learning success of students with diverse ethnicity culture and age background By consolidating the findings for the aforementioned research questions the researchers of this study have developed a data driven online instructional design model that can work as a field guide on cross cultural and intergenerational teaching and learning for online education practitioners Cultures of Educational Leadership Paul Miller,2016-12-13 This book explores how to be fully cross cultural and intercultural with research and theory building in educational leadership It adopts an integrated approach to the examination of common issues across and between cultures and contexts Each chapter examines an issue or a set of issues that builds on evidence from a minimum of three countries across at least two continents The data collection methods are consistent for all countries and therefore allow meaningful conclusions to be drawn across the field All six continents are represented in the book including both developing and developed countries to ensure an open dialogue and an innovative approach to lay the foundations for future research Everybody's Classroom Carol Ann Tomlinson, 2022 Most people are keenly aware that every student is different and that today's classrooms challenge educators to build safe and successful learning communities comprising students whose races languages cultures experiences assets and dreams vary greatly This book offers K 12 teachers both the foundations for differentiating their instruction and the means to maximize learning opportunities by getting to know students beyond the labels and stereotypes that often accompany them into the classroom Tomlinson shows how to use Highways and Exit ramps to reach the whole class with highway content and exit ramps to specialize needs Chapters offer numerous recommendations for modifying environments activities and assessments for helping teachers move forward in their instructional planning and for helping each learner grow academically Everybody's Classroom extends Tomlinson's previous work by looking more deeply at specific student populations to help educators create classrooms that are more inclusive than ever before Chapters cover successful differentiation for English learners students experiencing poverty students with different ethnic cultural religious and gender orientations and students with diverse identified special needs Book Features Provides a framework for understanding the scope of differentiation as opposed to seeing it as a prescribed set of instructional strategies Shows how to recognize common student needs that cut across student labels from gifted to traumatized Offers suggestions for teacher actions based on observation of students and student work Classroom examples and helpful tables charts and graphics The Rhizomatic West Neil Campbell, 2008-12-01 Is the American West in Sergio Leone's spaghetti westerns the same American West we find in Douglas Coupland's Generation X In Jim Jarmusch's movies In Calexico's music Or is the American West as this book tells us a constantly moving mutating idea within a complex global culture And what precisely or better yet imprecisely does it mean Using Gilles Deleuze and Félix Guattari's concept of the rhizome Neil Campbell shows how the West or west-ness continually breaks away from a mainstream notion of American rootedness and renews and transforms itself in various cultural forms A region long traversed by various transient peoples from tribes and conquerors to immigrants traders and trappers the West reflects a mythic quest for settlement permanence and synthesis even notions of a national or global identity at odds with its rootless history culture and nature Crossing the concept of roots with routes this book shows how notions of the West in representations ranging from literature and film to photography music and architectural theory give expression to ideas about identity nationhood and belonging in a world increasingly defined by movement across time and borders The Rhizomatic West offers a new vision of the American West as a hybrid performative space a staging place for myriad intersecting and constantly changing identities Narratives of Storytelling across Cultures Tony R. DeMars, Gabriel B.

Tait, 2019-09-18 Narratives of Storytelling Across Cultures demonstrates how meaning found within interpersonal communication is not universal across all cultures Miscommunication can occur when the foundations of cultural meaning within stories as told socially and within media vary among different cultures Positioned within the communication and media field this book connects issues of societal tension and political battles to media portrayals social communication events and power dynamics that result when people with different meanings systems attempt to negotiate truth among their competing narratives After establishing the theoretical foundation of the book contributors provide specific case studies that demonstrate underlying cultural components and complexities that lead to these issues Tony R DeMars and Gabriel Tait have assembled contributors with research experience and understanding of intercultural communication challenges in different social groups allowing the book to take on a broader scope of intercultural communication Scholars of communication conflict resolution political science sociology and media studies will find this book particularly useful The Returning

Hero Simon Hornblower, Giulia Biffis, 2018-09-13 A recurring and significant theme in ancient Greek literature is that of returns and returning chiefly but by no means only of mythical Greek heroes from Troy One main and certainly the most marked ancient Greek word for return is nostos plural nostoi from which is derived the English nostalgia Nostos related traditions were important ingredients of colonial foundation myths and the theme runs through both ancient Greek prose and poetry from Homer's Odyssey to Lykophron's Alexandra also leaving traces in the historical record through the archaeological and epigraphical commemoration of nostoi which played a central part in defining Greek ethnicity and crystallizing personal and communal identities This volume offers a truly interdisciplinary exploration of the concept of nostos in ancient Greek culture which draws on its contributors expertise in ancient Greek and Roman history literature archaeology and religion The chapters examine both literary and material evidence in order to achieve a better understanding of the nature of Greek settlement in the Mediterranean zone and of sometimes equivocal Greek and Roman perceptions of home displacement and returning The special problems and vocabulary of exile are explored in the long Introduction which offers an incisive yet accessible overview of the volume's key themes and sets its range of contributions clearly in context while two chapters are concerned in different ways with emotions and personal identity making use of the theoretical tool of place attachment another demonstrates that failed nostoi can be more interesting than successful examples Evidential absence can be as important and illuminating as presence and mythical women underrepresented in this regard feature extensively in several chapters which open up a range of new perspectives on nostos PEACE STUDIES, PUBLIC POLICY AND GLOBAL SECURITY - Volume VII Ursula Oswald Spring, Ada Aharoni, Ralph V.
