Recognising the different kinds and levels of giftedness, it explains why certain children are gifted and how giftedness is manifested, with each chapter addressing the relevance of a specific topic for children with AD/HD and Asperger Syndrome. Lovecky guides parents and professionals through methods of diagnosis and advises on how best to nurture individual needs, positive behaviour, and relationships at home and at school. Lovecky explores concepts such as asynchrony and the effects of such uneven development on children, using case studies to illustrate emotional, intellectual, creative, and social development. She also highlights the inadequate measures currently in place to assist parents and teachers and goes on to clearly define what is required to understand and help these children so that their needs can be met more positively in the future. Different Minds, with its wealth of practical and background information, is essential reading for all those who live or work with gifted children with attention difficulties.

Many homeschool parents have a long-term relationship with self-doubt: Did I make the right decision? Could someone else do this better? Am I robbing my kids of something by not sending them to regular school? What if there's a better way? Not a 3-step technique or a shiny new curriculum, but a change in perspective that transforms the way you plan, teach, and homeschool. Homeschool Bravely teaches you to see homeschooling as a calling, helps you overthrow the tyranny of impossible expectations, and guides you through the common bumps in the road, including how to juggle school and parenting with toddlers at home, teach a struggling learner, plan with the end in mind, accept your own limitations without feeling guilty, stay the course even in the face of criticism, reclaim your hope, renew your purpose, and transform your homeschool. Because the truth is, God will use every part of your homeschool, even your fears, faults, and failures, to weave good plans for your kids.
