Homoeroticism In Classical Arabic Literature:

Homoeroticism in Classical Arabic Literature Jerry W. Wright, Everett K. Rowson, 1997 This text examines the importance of masculine homosexual allusion in classical Arabic literature It explores the underlying meanings of masculine motifs in classical texts The fawn for example was often a symbol for the ethereally beautiful male youth while the stallion represented masculine bravery and valour For the most part such symbols do not represent homosexual intention but are a reflection of sublime erotic ideals intertwined with religious beliefs

Before Homosexuality in the Arab-Islamic World, 1500-1800

Khaled El-Rouayheb, 2009-03-02 Attitudes toward homosexuality in the pre modern Arab Islamic world are commonly depicted as schizophrenic visible and tolerated on one hand prohibited by Islam on the other Khaled El Rouayheb argues that this apparent paradox is based on the anachronistic assumption that homosexuality is a timeless self evident fact to which a particular culture reacts with some degree of tolerance or intolerance Drawing on poetry biographical literature medicine dream interpretation and Islamic texts he shows that the culture of the period lacked the concept of homosexuality

The Boswell Thesis Mathew Kuefler, 2006-03 Few books have had the social cultural and scholarly impact of John Boswell's Christianity Social Tolerance and Homosexuality Arguing that neither the Bible nor the Christian tradition was nearly as hostile to homoeroticism as was generally thought its initial publication sent shock waves through university classrooms gay communities and religious congregations Twenty five years later the aftershocks still reverberate The Boswell Thesis brings together fifteen leading scholars at the intersection of religious and sexuality studies to comment on this book's immense impact the endless debates it generated and the many contributions it has made to our culture The essays in this magnificent volume examine a variety of aspects of Boswell's interpretation of events in the development of sexuality from Classical Antiquity through the Middle Ages including a Roman emperor's love letters to another man suspicions of sodomy among medieval monks knights and crusaders and the gender bending visions of Christian saints and mystics Also included are discussions of Boswell's career including his influence among gay and lesbian Christians and his role in academic debates between essentialists and social constructionists Elegant and thought provoking this collection provides a fitting twenty fifth anniversary tribute to the incalculable influence of Christianity Social Tolerance and Homosexuality and its author

The Homoerotics of Orientalism Joseph A. Boone, 2014-03-25 One of the largely untold stories of Orientalism is the degree to which the Middle East has been associated with deviant male homosexuality by scores of Western travelers historians writers and artists for well over four hundred years And this story stands to shatter our preconceptions of Orientalism To illuminate why and how the Islamicate world became the locus for such fantasies and desires Boone deploys a supple mode of analysis that reveals how the cultural exchanges between Middle East and West have always been reciprocal and often mutual amatory as well as bellicose Whether examining European accounts of Istanbul and Egypt as hotbeds of forbidden desire juxtaposing Ottoman homoerotic genres and their European imitators or unlocking the homoerotic encoding in Persian miniatures and Orientalist paintings this remarkable study models an ethics of crosscultural reading that exposes with nuance and economy the crucial role played by the homoerotics of Orientalism in shaping the world as we know it today A contribution to studies in visual culture as well as literary and social history The Homoerotics of Orientalism draws on primary sources ranging from untranslated Middle Eastern manuscripts and European belles lettres to miniature paintings and photographic erotica that are presented here for the first time

of Wisdom Jeffrey J. Kripal, 2001-12 William Blake once wrote that The road of excess leads to the palace of wisdom Inspired by these poetic terms Jeffrey J Kripal reveals how the works of scholars of mysticism are often rooted in their own mystical experiences roads of excess which can both lead to important insights into these scholars works and point us to our own palaces of wisdom In his new book Kripal addresses the twentieth century study of mysticism as a kind of mystical tradition in its own right with its own unique histories discourses sociological dynamics and rhetorics of secrecy Fluidly combining autobiography and biography with scholarly exploration Kripal takes us on a tour of comparative mystical thought by examining the lives and works of five major historians of mysticism Evelyn Underhill Louis Massignou R C Zaehner Agehananda Bharati and Elliot Wolfson as well as relating his own mystical experiences The result Kripal finds is seven palaces of wisdom the religious power of excess the necessity of distance in the study of mysticism the relationship between the mystical and art the dilemmas of male subjectivity and modern heterosexuality a call for ethical criticism the paradox of the insider outsider problem in the study of religion and the magical power of texts and their interpretation An original and penetrating analysis of modern scholarship and scholars of mysticism Roads of Excess Palaces of Wisdom is also a persuasive demonstration of the way this scholarly activity is itself a mystical phenomenon

Masculine Identity in the Fiction of the Arab East since 1967 Samira Aghacy, 2009-12-08 This book offers an exploration of masculinity in the literature of the Arab East Lebanon Jordan Palestine Syria and Iraq in the context of a specific set of anxieties about gender roles and sexuality in Arab societies While gender studies in the area have focused primarily on the situation of women the treatment of Arab men as gendered subjects has fallen behind Samira Aghacy's rich analysis presents gender relations not within a fixed biological mold but rather as a complex phenomenon fraught with ambivalence and operating within particular historical and geopolitical settings Through a series of close readings of twenty contemporary Arabic novels Aghacy presents a mosaic of masculinities that challenges the generally held view of an essentialized archetypal Arab man and that mirrors a contested vision of manliness where men figure in diverse sociocultural environments This groundbreaking work reveals the volatile nature of masculinity and its inextricability from femininity

Sufism and Early Islamic Piety Arin Shawkat Salamah-Qudsi, 2019 Explores aspects of the private lives and interpersonal ties between the personal and communal domains of early Sufis

Men in African Film & Fiction Lahoucine Ouzgane, 2011 Fills a gap in the international literature by offering new insights into the heterogeneous ways in which African men are performing negotiating and experiencing masculinity Through their analysis of the depictions in film and literature of masculinities in colonial independent and post independent Africa the contributors open some key African texts to a more obviously politicized set of meanings Collectively the essays provide space for rethinking current theory on gender and masculinity how only some of the most popular theories in masculinity studies in the West hold true in African contexts how Western masculinities react with indigenous masculinities on the continent how masculinity and femininity in Africa seem to reside more on a continuum of cultural practices than on absolutely opposite planes and how generation often functions as a more potent metaphor than gender Lahoucine Ouzgane is Associate Professor of English Film Studies University of Alberta Canada Sex and Desire in Muslim Cultures Aymon Kreil, Lucia Sorbera, Serena Tolino, 2020-12-10 What have different ideas about sex and gender meant for people throughout the history of the Middle East and North Africa This book traces sex and desire in Muslim cultures through a collection of chapters that span the 9th to 21st centuries Looking at spaces and periods where sexual norms and the categories underpinning them emerge out of multiple subjectivities the book shows how people constantly negotiate the formulation of norms their boundaries and their subversion It demonstrates that the cultural and political meanings of sexualities in Muslim cultures as elsewhere emerge from very specific social and historical contexts The first part of the book examines how people constructed discussed and challenged sexual norms from the Abbasid to the Ottoman period The second part looks at literary and cinematic Arab cultural production as a site for the construction and transgression of gender norms The third part builds on feminist historiography and social anthropology to question simplistic dichotomies and binaries Each of the contributions shows how understanding of sexualities and the subjectivities that evolve from them are rooted in the mutually constitutive relationships between gender and political power In identifying the plurality of discourses on desires the book goes beyond the dichotomy of norm and transgression to glimpse what different sexual norms have meant at different times across the Middle East Iraq Heather Bleaney, Roper, Peter Sluglett, 2004-06-01 Well considered answers to the many questions raised by the situation in Iraq past and present are rare This first comprehensive thematically organised bibliography devoted to Iraq is based on the full Index Islamicus database and is drawn from a wide variety of European language journals and books Featuring an extensive introduction to the subject and its literature by Peter Sluglett this bibliography will help readers to find their way through the massive secondary literature now available Following the pattern established by the Index Islamicus both journal articles and book publications are included as well as important internet resources The editors have taken care to add much new material to bring its coverage up to date and supplement the previously published volumes while the most important and or influential publications are conveniently highlighted in the introduction An indispensable gateway for all those with a more than superficial interest in what is and what has been happening in this nation so much the focus of attention today The Dangerous Lives of Public Performers A. Shay, 2014-07-10 Examining performers from the ancient Mediterranean world to the modern Islamic Middle East including India and Pakistan Shay explores the careers artistic performances and legacies of these individuals who were forced to produce entertainment and art for and have sex with any and all patrons World Writing Mary Gallagher, 2008-08-16 Much has been said about the relationship between globalization and culture and the political implications of that relationship There has been little effort made however to investigate the effect of globalization on poetics or on the ethical moment of literature World Writing is therefore concerned with studying the intersection of contemporary ethics poetics and globalization through historical and critical readings of writing from various parts of the world Following an introductory chapter by Mary Gallagher which maps this conceptual terrain the contributors investigate how globalization inflects the necessary relationship between poetics culture ethics and politics Among the essays are Celia Britton's reading of douard Glissant on languages in the globalized world Mary Gallagher's comparison of Glissant's poetics of cultural diversity with the ethics of Emmanuel Levinas David Palumbo Liu's exploration of the ethics of postcolonial fiction in J M Coetzee's work Mary Louise Pratt's critique based on recent Latin American writing of the prematurely celebratory nature of globalization and Julia Kristeva's argument for the value of poetics and the ethics of hospitality What emerges is an intricate discussion of the elusive relationship between the realms of ethics poetics and politics as they intersect in our changing world

Al-Maqāmāt al-luzūmiya by Abū l-Ṭāhir Muḥammad ibn Yūsuf al-Tamīmī al-Saraqustī, ibn al-Aṣṭarkūwī (d. 538/1143) James Monroe, 2021-10-11 Although the Arabic maq mah a branch of the picaresque genre was much cultivated in the Middle Ages little is known about it aside from the works of al Hamadh n and al ar r its first two cultivators This translation of the Maq m t al luz m yah by the twelfth century Andalusī author al Saraqust makes available to Western scholars of narrative prose a hitherto little known but important collection of Arabic maq m t The Preliminary Study places this specific collection in the context of the overall maqama genre it further places that genre in the contexts both of Arabic and of world literature exploring the differences between the picaresque genre and the modern novel It discusses the meaning of the work shows the way in which it is original within its genre and establishes its organic unity Finally it shows that late and post classical Arabic literary works such as that of al Saraqust which were composed during the so called period of decadence are not decadent at all contrary to the opinion prevalent among scholars in the field

Rūmī and the Hermeneutics of Eroticism Mahdi Tourage, 2007-11-30 This is the first systematic examination of the esoteric significance of the bawdy tales and explicit sexual passages present in R m s d 1273 Mathnaw a masterpiece of medieval Perso Islamic mystical literature and theosophic teachings Using the relevant features of postmodern theories as strategic conceptual tools and drawing on the recent interpretations of medieval kabbalistic texts it is a fascinating examination of the link between the dynamics of eroticism and esotericism operative in R m s Mathnaw In some of these bawdy tales the phallus is used as an esoteric symbol The book concludes that these tales are used primarily to communicate esoteric secrets particularly when this communication is contemplated along gender lines mediated through erotic imagery or expressed in sexual terms
