Public Theology and Violent Rhetoric Examined in a Queer Womanist Critical Ethnography Teresa L. Smallwood, 2025-01-23 Public theology is an emerging constructive tool In its inception public theology was largely contextualized as the public church However this thoughtful and empathetic book situates our publics everywhere Smallwood contends that those who have been harmed by violent rhetoric from speech actors who would other them retain the capacity to have and hold a theology This different entry point allows for people of faith those who are and those who are not associated with a particular communion of faith or denominational affiliation to claim public space for theologizing Here public theology is about the capacity of those who are othered to affirmatively express their faith and to critically engage with those who would deny and denigrate their ontology Enduring hardship as a good soldier does not mean exposing oneself to verbal abuse week after week Many LGBTQIA persons are assaulted degraded humiliated and derogated from the pulpits and podiums of places of worship This abuse caused many to turn away from their faith Those who withstood protracted verbal abuse turned it inward and began to hate themselves Through ethnography Smallwood tackles these tough truths and engages with LGBTQIA persons This book critically examines both the harm done to them and the help that is to come from a paradigmatic shift in care Smallwood emphasises how spiritual self assessment ritual and indigenous spiritual practices offer a way to wholeness and healing Drawing from Yoruba epistemology this work offers a framework for rebirth renewal and reclamation

Sex and Desire in Muslim Cultures Aymon Kreil, Lucia Sorbera, Serena Tolino, 2020-12-10 What have different ideas about sex and gender meant for people throughout the history of the Middle East and North Africa This book traces sex and desire in Muslim cultures through a collection of chapters that span the 9th to 21st centuries Looking at spaces and periods where sexual norms and the categories underpinning them emerge out of multiple subjectivities the book shows how people constantly negotiate the formulation of norms their boundaries and their subversion It demonstrates that the cultural and political meanings of sexualities in Muslim cultures as elsewhere emerge from very specific social and historical contexts The first part of the book examines how people constructed discussed and challenged sexual norms from the Abbasid to the Ottoman period The second part looks at literary and cinematic Arab cultural production as a site for the construction and transgression of gender norms The third part builds on feminist historiography and social anthropology to question simplistic dichotomies and binaries Each of the contributions shows how understanding of sexualities and the subjectivities that evolve from them are rooted in the mutually constitutive relationships between gender and political power In identifying the plurality of discourses on desires the book goes beyond the dichotomy of norm and transgression to glimpse what different sexual norms have meant at different times across the Middle East
