King of the Mountain Arnold M. Ludwig,2013-07-24 People may choose to ignore their animal heritage by interpreting their behavior as divinely inspired socially purposeful or even self serving all of which they attribute to being human but they masticate fornicate and procreate much as chimps and apes do so they should have little cause to get upset if they learn that they act like other primates when they politically agitate debate abdicate placate and administrate too King of the Mountain presents the startling findings of Arnold M Ludwig s eighteen year investigation into why people want to rule The answer may seem obvious power privilege and perks but any adequate answer also needs to explain why so many rulers cling to power even when they are miserable trust nobody feel besieged and face almost certain death Ludwig s results suggest that leaders of nations tend to act

remarkably like monkeys and apes in the way they come to power govern and rule Profiling every ruler of a recognized country in the twentieth century over 1 900 people in all Ludwig establishes how rulers came to power how they lost power the dangers they faced and the odds of their being assassinated committing suicide or dying a natural death Then concentrating on a smaller sub set of 377 rulers for whom more extensive personal information was available he compares six different kinds of leaders examining their characteristics their childhoods and their mental stability or instability to identify the main predictors of later political success Ludwig s penetrating observations though presented in a lighthearted and entertaining way offer important insight into why humans have engaged in war throughout recorded history as well as suggesting how they might live together in peace Essential Psychology Philip Banyard,Gayle Dillon,Christine Norman,Belinda Winder,2015-01-30 Essential Psychology returns for a second edition with a vivid narrative writing style for undergraduates features designed to stimulate critical thinking and inspire students to learn independently and an expanded companion website full of useful resources for lecturers and students This comprehensive introductory text is relevant for both the specialist and non specialist psychology student challenging those who studied psychology before university while remaining accessible to those who did not The 2nd edition Gives students a firm foundation in all areas covered on accredited British Psychological Society degree courses Includes new chapters on psychopathology research methods language motivation and emotion lifespan development health psychology forensic psychology and critical social psychology Relates theory to the real world to help students think about where they will employ their degree after undergraduate study Comes with a SAGE edge companion website with a suite of resources to enhance the learning experience <https://edge.sagepub.com/banyard2e> The World's Work Walter Hines Page,Arthur Wilson Page,1922 A history of our time New England Journal of Education Thomas Williams Bicknell,Albert Edward Winship,Anson Wood Belding,1904 The Literary Digest Edward Jewitt Wheeler,Isaac Kaufman Funk,William Seaver Woods,Arthur Stimson Draper,Wilfred John Funk,1921
