May,2018-11-08 Constitutions can play a central role in responding to environmental challenges such as pollution biodiversity loss lack of drinking water and climate change The vast majority of people on earth live under constitutional systems that protect the environment or recognize environmental rights Such environmental constitutionalism however falls short without effective implementation by policymakers advocates and jurists Implementing Environmental Constitutionalism Current Global Challenges explains and explores this implementation gap This collection is both broad and deep While some of the essays analyze crosscutting themes such as climate change and the need for rule of law that affect the implementation of environmental constitutionalism throughout the world others delve deeply into geographically contextual experiences for lessons about how constitutional environmental law might be more effectively implemented This volume informs global conversations about whether and how environmental constitutionalism can be made more effective to protect the natural environment Globalization and Sustainability - Ecological, Social and Cultural Perspectives ,2024-10-23 This book Globalization and Sustainability Ecological Social and Cultural Perspectives gives an interesting overview of the frontiers of scientific research in this practically important and scientifically interesting applied ecological research area It offers chapters about ecological economic cultural and sociological aspects of this area from theoretical and practical viewpoints I am sure that this book will be very useful for everybody researchers teachers students or others interested in the field who would like to get some insight into this part of the complex phenomena of global sustainability The Oxford Handbook of International Environmental Law Lavanya Rajamani,Jacqueline Peel,2021 Taking stock of all the major developments in the field of international environmental law this text explores core assumptions and concepts basic analytical tools and key challenges Transition to Peace Ho-Won Jeong,2021-10-15 This book enhances our understanding of how societies torn by violence can be rebuilt Instabilities in those societies continue to be fuelled by political marginalization economic social inequality violent crimes and injustice Historically international response has been largely inadequate due to a failure of adaptation to local circumstances This collection focuses on how peacebuilding programmes can be more effectively carried out to create a more functional society In a nutshell this volume sheds light on local practice and experiences that can be utilized to meet unique circumstances of countries that have suffered from a destructive conflict The collection will investigate the transition to peace by highlighting the missing links between peacebuilding norms and practice political economy emotions justice and reconciliation Post-Conflict Peacebuilding Vincent Chetail,2009-03-26 Post Conflict Peacebuilding comes at a critical time for post conflict peacebuilding Its rapid move towards the top of the international political agenda has been accompanied by added

scrutiny as the international community seeks to meet the multi dimensional challenges of building a just and sustainable peace in societies ravaged by war Beyond the strictly operational dimension there is considerable ambiguity in the concepts and terminology used to discuss post conflict peacebuilding This ambiguity undermines efforts to agree on common understandings of how peace can be most effectively built thereby impeding swift coherent action Accordingly this lexicon aims to clarify and illuminate the multiple facets of post conflict peacebuilding by presenting its major themes and trends from an analytical perspective To this end the book opens with a general introduction on the concept of post conflict peacebuilding followed by twenty six essays on its key elements including capacity building conflict transformation reconciliation recovery rule of law security sector reform and transitional justice Written by international experts from a range of disciplines including political science and international relations international law economics and sociology these essays cover the whole spectrum of post conflict peacebuilding In reflecting a diversity of perspectives the lexicon sheds light on many different challenges associated with post conflict peacebuilding For each key concept a generic definition is proposed which is then expanded through discussion of three main areas the meaning and origin of the concept its content and essential components and its means of implementation including lessons learned from past practice Building Environmental Peace Natalia Dalmer,2022-03-17 By analyzing the UN Environment Programme s UNEP s contribution to peacebuilding this book aims to show how international bureaucracies develop knowledge and thereby come to matter on the world stage Portraying UNEP as an open system it explores how a growing understanding within the Programme of how environmental degradation shapes insecurities and vice versa has motivated its work on peacebuilding The theoretical part of this book addresses knowledge open systems and knowledge creation It then presents a historical discussion of UNEP s development in an open system context Finally it investigates how knowledge emergence on the linkage between the environment conflicts and insecurities influenced UNEP s interests and its work on environmental peacebuilding

Conflict-Sensitive Conservation Carl Bruch,Geeta Batra,Anupam Anand,Shehla Chowdhury,Sierra Killian,2023-08-10 This book provides an empirically formulated foundation for conflict sensitive conservation a field in which the existing literature relies primarily on anecdotal evidence Seeking to better understand the impact of conflict on the implementation and outcomes of environmental projects the Global Environment Facility GEF Independent Evaluation Office and the Environmental Law Institute undertook an evaluation of GEF support to fragile and conflict affected contexts Following a qualitative and quantitative analysis of documents from more than 4 000 projects the research team discovered a statistically significant negative correlation between a country s Fragile States Index score and the implementation quality of environmental projects in that country In this book the evaluation and research team explain these groundbreaking findings in detail highlighting seven key case studies Afghanistan Albertine Rift Balkans Cambodia Colombia Lebanon and Mali Drawing upon additional research and interviews with GEF project implementation staff the volume illustrates the pathways through which conflict and fragility frequently impact environmental projects It also examines how practitioners and sponsoring institutions can plan and implement their projects to avoid or mitigate these issues and find opportunities to promote peacebuilding through their environmental interventions Examining data from 164 countries and territories this innovative book will be of great interest to students and scholars of environmental management conservation international development and the fast growing field of environmental peacebuilding It will also be a great resource for practitioners working in these important fields The Open Access version of this book available at www.taylorfrancis.com has been made available under a Creative Commons Attribution Non Commercial No Derivatives 4.0 license

Natural Resources and Human Rights Jérémie Gilbert, 2018 Examining the role human rights can play in the regulation of natural resource management this book shines light on the duties of states and private actors when exploiting natural resources and the procedural rights of affected citizens

From Conflict to Peacebuilding Richard A. Matthew, Oli Brown, United Nations Environment Programme, David Jensen, 2009 Today's changing security landscape requires a radical shift in the way the international community engages in conflict management This report by the United Nations Environment Programme aims to review the latest knowledge and field experience on the linkages between environment conflict and peacebuilding and to discuss the ways in which these issues can be addressed and integrated in a more coherent and systematic way by the UN Member States and other stakeholders involved in peacebuilding interventions and conflict prevention

Tigris and Euphrates Rivers: Their Environment from Headwaters to Mouth Laith A. Jawad, 2021-09-12 The system of the Tigris Euphrates Rivers is one of the great river systems of southwestern Asia It comprises the Tigris and Euphrates Rivers which follow roughly parallel courses through the heart of the Middle East The lower portion of the region that they run through is known as Mesopotamia was one of the cradles of civilisation There are several environmental factors that govern the nature of the two rivers and shape the landscape the two rivers running through Geological events create rivers climate monitor the water supply the surrounding land influences the vegetation and the physical and chemical features of water The Tigris Euphrates system runs through the territory of four countries Iraq Iran Turkey and Syria Therefore any scientific approach to the environment of these two rivers should include the natural history events in these countries The book Tigris and Euphrates Rivers Their Environment from Headwaters to Mouth will be divided into nine parts These parts deal with the issues of the environment the status of the flora and fauna the abiotic aspects ecology hydrological regime of the two rivers the biotic aspects Water resources stress of the environment conservation issues Since the book of Julian Rzoska Euphrates and Tigris Mesopotamian Ecology and Destiny in 1980 no book or major reference has been published that includes between its cover the facts and information that the present book will present Therefore the importance of the present book falls in stating the present status of the environment of the two rivers and the comparison of their environment between now and that of 37 years ago as given by J Rzoska 1980 The recent studies showed that there are a large number of natural and political events that happened within the last three decades in the area of the Tigris Euphrates river system that for sure have done a great change to the environment of the two rivers and consequently changing the biological and non biological resources of the two rivers This book will be a reference book to both Academic and students across the Middle East in different disciplines of knowledge to use in their researches on Tigris Euphrates river system The scholars interested in this area will use this book as a guide to compare this freshwater system with other areas in Asia and the world Effective
