Grief Contemporary Theory And The Practice Of Ministry:

Grief Melissa M. Kelley, 2010-03-12 The experience of grief has been a source of intrigue and curiosity throughout history and it continues to stimulate thought and theory in various fields of study Unfortunately these fields tend to function in isolation from each other The result is a substantial disconnect between grief research theory and care which has evolved greatly over the last two decades and ministerial practice Using a metaphor of grief as a mosaic Melissa Kelley presents contemporary grief theory and research integrated with important theological religious and ministerial perspectives Written in an accessible way for ministers ministers in training and all pastoral and spiritual caregivers this book provides the most up to date theory and research in grief to help inform their care of others Through exploration of critical topics including attachment to God meaning making and religious coping in grief readers are brought right to the heart of a contemporary understanding of grief

Where Do Broken Hearts Go? W. Ross Hastings, 2016-06-28 Grounded in the narrative of the loss of his own wife Ross Hastings seeks to provide insight into the universal human condition of loss and grief and speaks comfort All kinds of losses produce grief loss of jobs homes friendships health losses through divorce and loss through death of parents children and spouses and we are often unprepared for it Applicable to all who go through loss this book will also offer skills for pastors pastors in training and friends seeking to offer comfort to grieving people It will weave together first order theological as well as integrated psychological insights that relate to loss and grieving interspersed with personal stories The ultimately redemptive nature of grief is highlighted with sensitivity to the grieving process It offers comfort for the grieving found in fresh awareness of the orientation and action of the triune God who is for us who invites us to participate in his life and love and gathers up our grief and in Christ suffers with us It beckons us towards spiritual attentiveness permission for emotional honesty normalization of the grief process practices that enable coping and redemptive transformation in the present and hope grounded in future resurrection reality

The Deritualization of Death Charles Lynn Gibson, 2019-10-15 The problematic field of investigation for this study was for the care of bereaved human beings in the context of significant cultural shifts now shaping the twenty first century

Deritualization was identified as a significant interdisciplinary concern that contributes to potential distress in processes of grieving. The objective of the research was the development of a practical theology of compassionate caregiving for the bereaved with deference to the problem of deritualization. The theoretical framework was guided by the Oxford Interdisciplinary Research model and the Loyola Institute of Ministries model of practical theology. The study was designed for applied research for funeral directors and vocational pastors utilizing qualitative research methods. Hermeneutical and empirical components addressed six research questions through two domains of inquiry: disciplinary perspectives and educational dynamics of bereavement caregiving. Using the method of hermeneutics to critically evaluate the first two research questions, three disciplinary fields of knowledge were examined and integrated from the perspective of pastoral care, funeral service, bereavement psychology, and practical theology. Each discipline individually converged upon meaningful caregiving, meaning reconstruction, and meaning reframing as significant modes of bereavement care. Using ethnographic, semi-structured interviews to critically evaluate the remaining four research questions, data were collected from a Christian university and a mortuary college. The interview questionnaire included twenty-five main questions organized in four parts: Philosophy of Education, Hermeneutics of Bereaved Families, Care of Bereaved Families, and Encounter of Bereaved Families. The study utilized two cycles of qualitative coding techniques to report the findings of each participating school. A hybrid form of in vivo and holistic coding, as well as a second cycle of pattern coding, distilled the interview responses into actionable statements that reinforced bereavement caregiving. By synthesizing all of the findings, a compelling case was made for a paradigm of comforting presence supported by principles from a Louwian perspective of practical theology, including theological anthropology, promissiotherapy, bipolarity, and hermeneutics. The study connected a philosophy of meaning reframing and a paradigm of comforting presence to a meta-theoretical framework within a narrative approach to care. The research elucidated an interdisciplinary understanding that contributed toward a compassionate practical theology of caregiving for the bereaved.

Holy Spirit, The Richard Lennan, Nancy Pineda-Madrid, 2017. Reflects on the Holy Spirit in relation to the life of faith; the chapters consider how we become aware of the Holy Spirit's presence, review how the tradition of faith has interpreted the movement of the Holy Spirit, and detail what it means to discern and embrace the gift of the Holy Spirit.

Aging Wisely... Wisdom of Our Elders Silverman, Ellen Beth Siegel, 2017-06-30. Aging Wisely: Wisdom of our Elders is a unique resource that reflects the ideas, opinions, and experiences of a diverse group of senior citizens. Each story provides a unique perspective on the physical, emotional, and social aspects of growing old from those who have made the journey.

Valor and Vulnerability Robert C. Dykstra, Ryan LaMothe, 2025-04-10. Intimacy, vulnerability, precarity, resiliency, and loss are ingredients of any life, though they take on particular shape and tone when we listen to the experiences of boys and men. The voices and stories of men and boys are invitations for pastoral ministers and theologians to understand and respond to their joys, struggles, and sorrows, as well as to recognize and affirm their courage and strengths. In this book, thirteen scholars in pastoral theology from diverse backgrounds and perspectives collaborate in engaging art literature the social sciences and cultural artifacts to explore the intersection of masculinity and religious life in rich and varied forms Their aim in part is not only to deepen and appreciate wide ranging experiences of boys and men but also to attend and respond to systemic realities that contribute to or undermine their flourishing The ^AOxford Handbook of the Prophets Carolyn Sharp,2016-09-01 This volume engages the cultural norms and theological convictions of ancient Israel in the shadow of the Egyptian Babylonian and Persian empires Essays explore ancient Near Eastern historical contexts interpret prophetic narratives and poetry offer feminist materialist and postcolonial readings and more Indispensable for scholars and students of the prophets Engage Matthew Floding,2017-01-05 Theological field education in which a ministry student steps out of the classroom and begins practicing with the supervision of a mentor is a critical part of accredited ministry programs Engage equips both students and their supervisor mentors to engage in this important opportunity with energy and imagination and it prepares students for the challenging work of integrating theory into real world practice Engage provides coaching from recognized experts in the arts of ministry preaching administration evangelism pastoral care public ministry leadership faith formation liturgical arts and more Other chapters address themes such as race gender and ministry across faith traditions or no faith tradition The book addresses field education in a range of contexts from churches to non profits Engage offers a valuable resource for students making the most of their transition from the classroom into real world ministry with all its joys and many challenges The Pastor's Complete Memorial Guidebook David M Carmichael,2021-10-20 The Pastor s Complete Memorial Guidebook is designed to give clergy insight on all aspects of death and dying and to offer templates and materials with which they can plan and conduct memorial services Formed as a result of personal experience in dealing with end of life care the contents within this guide are both inspirational and practical David Carmichael weaves his own story into this holistic manual describing his experience of loss and his work in pastoral care In a straightforward and encouraging manner he presents the great hope of Christians in the face of death and he also walks his readers through the process of dying grief and planning for a memorial Replete with templates sermon outlines suggested funeral liturgies scriptures and hymns this personal and practical guide will serve as a valuable tool and companion to men and women in all stages of their pastoral calling Liberation through Reconciliation O. Ernesto Valiente,2015-12-01 In the past one hundred years alone more than 200 million people have been killed as a consequence of systematic repression political revolutions or ethnic or religious war The legacy of such violence lingers long after the immediate conflict Drawing on the author s experiences of his native El Salvador Liberation through Reconciliation builds on Jon Sobrino s thought to construct a Christian spirituality and theology of reconciliation that overcomes conflict by attending to the demands of truth justice and forgiveness The Secularization of Medicine Nathan Carlin,Director of the McGovern Center for Humanities and Ethics Samuel Karff Chair Nathan Carlin,2025-08-29 While it is true that medicine and religion once had overt connections that have since declined The Secularization of Medicine argues that religion as a social force in medicine has not been extinguished Instead religious material or ideas have migrated to non religious or secular spaces and have been absorbed by the surrounding culture Medicine is not as secular as we might imagine it to be and this has implications for the well being of physicians Justice Matters Kyungsig Samuel Lee, Danjuma G. Gibson, 2022-09-29 The nine chapters in this book along with a critical introduction address complex theological issues relating to structural inequalities of our society exacerbated by the experience of the COVID 19 pandemic Pastoral theology as an academic discipline is not a value free enterprise This book strives to speak against all forms of injustice and to advocate for those who suffer under existing structural inequalities because such a liberative and social transformative task constitutes the fundamental work of pastoral theology Each chapter in this book analyses how private problems of individuals are occurring within the immediate world of experience with public issues historically socially and politically As a whole this book addresses racial injustice ableism foster family care and issues faced by Christian churches during the COVID 19 pandemic The chapters in this book were originally published as a special issue of the Journal of Pastoral Theology The Last Pastor Gail Cafferata, 2020-01-18 Gail Cafferata was heartbroken when the church she pastored voted to close its doors It may have been the right decision but it led to a million questions in her mind about her call leadership and future She began to think that other pastors who close churches perhaps go through this same experience This led her to conduct a sociological study of over 130 pastors in five historically established denominations Episcopal Lutheran United Methodist Presbyterian and United Church of Christ who were called to serve churches that closed This book tells the results of that study which consisted of many interviews and the hard won lessons learned by these courageous pastors Equipping the Church with Grief Ministry Skills Dr. Michael D. Baker, 2022-01-26 This project is a training tool for Christian leaders to educate and equip leader and laity alike with the knowledge of the field of grief and to equip them to improve their ministry to the bereaved This book can be used by denominational leaders conventions and church leaders to train pastors deacons and lay leaders in grief ministry skills The book examines the theological dimensions of death and grief as well as the theoretical foundations of grief both normal grief and complicated Also the book identifies essential grief ministry skills and the practical application of those skills The book is both educational and practical This book can be used in a seminary class room or can be used by associations to develop the grief ministry skills of its local pastors This book can also be used in the local church to equip deacons and lay leaders to better minister to its congregants This book holds value for its commitment to examining the field of grief while holding to Christian principles Most literature that combines the knowledge of grief and Christian principles either prepares a person for counseling or ministers to the person that has experienced loss This book can in fact assist those studying for a career in grief counseling and at the same time help those experiencing loss The intention of the author is help the professional as well as the layman prepare for grief ministry and develop specific skills to assist them in their ability to minister to the bereaved      On Loss and Living Onward Melissa Dalton-Bradford,2014-05-06 After experiencing the loss of her first born son Melissa Dalton Bradford thrust herself into literature searching for those who have experienced similar devastating loss What she found was comfort and guidance to help her overcome the pain of losing a loved one and the faith to face her own life without him In On Loss and Living Onward she has compiled the best resources that will guide the living through the process of grief Superbly written essays by author and bereaved mother accompany each of five sections Life at Death Love at Death Living After Death Learning From Death Life Love and Light Over Death Quotes are from across history geography and the philosophical spectrum A substantial bibliography and suggested readings list is included      Motherhood and Autism Eilidh Campbell,2022-07-08 While autism is gaining increasing attention as an important subject of theological inquiry the maternal experience of caring for a child with autism has had less attention Traversing issues of gender embodiment disability and motherhood this book explores the distinctness of mothering within the context of autism examining how theology currently responds to the challenges this lived experience presents Weaving together an honest reflection on her own experience with analysis of contemporary theological works on disability and motherhood the book reflects on mothering and especially mothering of autistic children as a unique site of struggle and resistance      Body Connections Michael S. Koppel,2021-08-03 A new articulation of pastoral theology care and counseling Too often we think and teach in ways that reinforce a mind body split This can lead people to self alienation impeding holistic healthy relationships between people God and each other Body Connections takes a different approach teaching us to see the connections between our embodied experience and faithful spiritual care Author Michael Koppel focuses on the human body and its relationship to faith and spiritual care He engages religious texts and traditions as well as scientific insights offering accessible theology and spiritual practices for healing and care of the body Our bodies are amazing resources but we are too often unaware of their power or unable to harness it in helpful ways for our own good This remarkable book empowers pastors counselors chaplains seminarians and caregivers to understand and provide the ministry of care in an entirely new life giving way This book is highly useful for individuals and groups It is for clergy chaplains spiritual directors seminarians clinical educators lay people in churches and those who are institutionally unaffiliated but care deeply about fostering a holistic spiritual path Praise for Body Connections Everything we think feel and do comes through the body But practices of spiritual care tend to downplay the body as a source of knowledge and a tool for responding to others and to God Koppel s book reclaims that wisdom coaching us to strengthen our abilities to read listen and think with the body I can t wait to teach this practical wise and convicting book which addresses embodied emotion grief silence trauma and more Koppel s seasoned pastoral voice offers a rich synthesis of sources and insights that demonstrate the body s place at the center of ministry Duane Bidwell professor of practical theology spiritual care and counseling Claremont School of Theology Claremont CA Body Connections provides new insights into the voice and language of the body Koppel crafts a body theology that encourages spiritual care practitioners to be proactive in their spiritual practices of listening adapting and responding to our bodies and to the bodies of those to whom we offer care Using the image of body as storyteller and other metaphors Koppel captures and defines the healing power of the body in clear and profound ways Bishop Teresa Jefferson Snorton D Min Presiding Bishop Fifth Episcopal District The CME Church Michael Koppel returns the body to its rightful place at the center of each person s story and the center of the Christian story He calls readers home to their bodies and gently challenges escapes from the body into hasty fixing detached rationalizing anxious dithering or addictive numbing At a time when the COVID pandemic has underscored the vulnerability of bodies Koppel s focused healing deep body consciousness paints a portrait of health far beyond mere absence of disease Don t just read this book absorb it practice it and let it heal you Douglas M Thorpe PhD is Executive Director of the Virginia Institute of Pastoral Care and a past president of the American Association of Pastoral Counselors It is surprisingly difficult even confusing to have a body to be a body to touch talk and listen to even read a sensing body to honor and restore the body s wounds traumas and shame while celebrating its healing and resilience Koppel is a wise guide and caregiver for those seeking to embrace the sacredness of a human body and its unique story Body Connections empowers a reader to discover body knowledge anew It deepens trust in the most intimate relationship one has the relationship with one s body Jaco J Hamman professor of religion psychology and culture and director of the Program in Theology and Practice Vanderbilt University Nashville TN The Grief Walk Alister G. Hendery, 2024-05-09 This practical book is for people who are grieving for people who want to support them as they undertake the painful journey of grief and for anyone who wants to reflect on their own experiences of loss When Alister asked Isobel whose husband had died a few years before what would have helped her most then her response was immediate Someone who would walk with me Not people who would talk at me and give me answers but simply listen to me and walk with me The grief walk Grieving and loss are universal experiences but how you experience grief is unique to you In his ministry Alister has found that models of the stages of grief are unhelpful as is the idea of closure Instead he gives you permission to work through your grief in the ways and at the times that are helpful to you Alister explores disenfranchised grief that occurs when we are denied the right to grieve and our loss isn t recognised Our lives are marked by countless losses and we all carry grief about many losses in our life If we embrace our grief we can journey on to something new and find fresh hope Praise for The Grief Walk The Grief Walk has a freshness and honesty about grief beginning with its imaginative title and sustained until the final affirmation of hope We all experience loss and grief in our lives But as Hendery writes until we name and acknowledge a loss and recognise that we have a right to grieve we are unable to come to terms with it He emphasises that grief doesn t follow a predetermined path and nor can we close it off like a tap He describes a perceived end process of closure as psychobabble While grief may not be permanently disabling we learn to encompass it This is not the same as closure Grief may find expression in different physical and emotional symptoms and we can t expect religious faith to provide a magical answer Finding someone who listens and understands who in a sense personifies the presence of God can help us with the grief journey The Grief Walk confronts the idea that grief is momentary or experienced in clearly defined stages and points to a hope This book is a gift for all who grieve or who walk with those who grieve John Meredith in Tui Motu Magazine Issue 253 October 2020 27 Far too often people present grieving as a one way process with well defined stages concluding with something they call closure I strongly reject such an extremely unhelpful model Alister does also he is clear that your grieving is unique to you Rev d Bosco Peters on Liturgy co nz This book will read you as you are reading it It is a book you will pick up and put down and pick up and put down as you find yourself walking again through parts of your life maybe unexpectedly rediscovering boggy patches you had forgotten or not realised are still painful There is ancient wisdom here alongside modern psychology There is gentleness and there is a reality faced that grief is universal painful and not always an easy walk But beware As I read Alister s words I found myself thinking lamenting crying and laughing I surprised myself with the depth of some of what rose to the surface for me Ancient griefs recent disappointments and the ambivalent feelings that came like fish to breathe the air again From the Foreword by The Rev d Rob Ferguson
