Moon Montana Through the Wilderness Brad Orsted, 2023-06-27 Award winning Yellowstone photographer and documentary filmmaker Brad Orsted's seven year search for refuge and redemption in America's greatest wilderness. When Brad Orsted's fifteen month old daughter Marley died mysteriously at the home of Brad's mother, he descended into madness. Blaming himself, he plunged into an abyss of grief, guilt, and self-recrimination fueled by prescription drugs and alcohol. He planned his suicide as his wife Stacey searched for a new beginning. She finally found a job in Yellowstone National Park and with their daughters Mazzy and Chloe, the pair fled Michigan looking for refuge and redemption in the 2.2 million acres of glorious American wilderness. Through the Wilderness begins in Yellowstone five months after the family's arrival in 2012 when in an alcoholic haze Brad stumbled into a field of sage and survived a face-to-face encounter with an adult male grizzly bear. For the first time in almost two years, he realized he wanted to live; he just didn't know how. Desperate for help, Brad invited himself to a Crow sweat lodge ceremony where an elder told him it was time to stop grieving. The elder's words started Brad on a journey towards sobriety and inner peace, only possible because of lessons he learned in the wild: his new job as a wildlife photographer and filmmaker, and two orphan grizzly cubs who carried him back home and taught him how to live again. Brad's ten year odyssey is about finding the wild inside the human heart. It is a journey of the spirit, a journey to forgiveness and sobriety, to love and life, to memory and ultimately to Marley.

Mathematics for the Environment Martin Walter, 2011-01-18 Mathematics for the Environment shows how to employ simple mathematical tools such as arithmetic to uncover fundamental conflicts between the logic of human civilization and the logic of Nature. These tools can then be used to understand and effectively deal with economic, environmental, and social issues. With elementary mathematics, the book se

Research Handbook on International Law and Natural Resources Elisa Morgera, Kati Kulovesi, 2016-11-25 Research Handbook on International Law and Natural Resources provides a systematic and comprehensive analysis of the role of international law in regulating the exploration and exploitation of natural resources. It illuminates interactions and tensions between international environmental law, human rights law, and international economic law. It also discusses the relevance of soft law, international dispute settlement, as well as of various unilateral, bilateral, regional, and transnational initiatives in the governance of natural resources. While the Handbook is accessible to those approaching the subject for the first time, it identifies pressing areas for further investigation that will be of interest to advanced researchers.

Anacarnation and Returning to the Lived Body with Richard Kearney Brian Treanor, James L. Taylor, 2022-10-26 This edited collection responds to Richard Kearney's recent work on touch, incarnation, and embodiment, as well as his broader work in carnal hermeneutics, which sets the stage for his return to and retrieval of the senses of the lived body. Here, fourteen scholars engage the breadth and depth of Kearney's work to illuminate our experience of the body. The chapters, collected within, take up a wide variety of subjects: from nature and non-human animals to our experience of the sacred and the demonic, and from art's account of touching to the political implications of various types of embodiment. Featuring also an inspired new reflection from Kearney himself in which he lays out his vision for anacarnation this volume is an important statement about the centrality of touch and embodiment in our experience and a reminder that despite the excarnating tendencies of contemporary life the lived body remains a touchstone for wisdom in our increasingly complicated and fragile world Written for scholars and students interested in touch embodiment phenomenology and hermeneutics this diverse and challenging collection contributes to a growing field of scholarship that recognizes and attempts to correct the excarnating trends in philosophy and in culture at large

Abbey in America John A. Murray, 2015-05-15 More than twenty five years after his death iconic writer and nature activist Edward Abbey 1929 1989 remains an influential presence in the American environmental movement Abbey s best known works continue to be widely read and inspire discourse on the key issues facing contemporary American society particularly with respect to urbanization and technology Abbey in America published forty years after Abbey s popular novel The Monkey Wrench Gang features an all star list of contributors including journalists authors scholars and two of Abbey s best friends as they explore Abbey s ideas and legacy through their unique literary personal and scholarly perspectives

A Reenchanted World James William Gibson, 2009-04-14 A surprising and enlightening investigation of how modern society is making nature sacred once again For more than two centuries Western cultures as they became ever more industrialized increasingly regarded the natural world as little more than a collection of useful raw resources The folklore of powerful forest spirits and mountain demons was displaced by the practicalities of logging and strip mining the traditional rituals of hunting ceremonies gave way to the indiscriminate butchering of animals for meat markets In the famous lament of Max Weber our surroundings became disenchanting with nature s magic swept away by secularization and rationalization But now as acclaimed sociologist James William Gibson reveals in this insightful study the culture of enchantment is making an astonishing comeback From Greenpeace eco warriors to evangelical Christians preaching creation care and geneticists who speak of human animal kinship Gibson finds a remarkably broad yearning for a spiritual reconnection to nature As we grapple with increasingly dire environmental disasters he points to this cultural shift as the last utopian dream the final hope for protecting the world that all of us must live in

On Active Grounds Robert Boschman, Mario Trono, 2019-04-17 On Active Grounds considers the themes of agency and time through the burgeoning interdisciplinary field of the environmental humanities Fourteen essays and a photo album cover topics such as environmental practices and history temporal literacy graphic novels ecocinema ecomusicology animal studies Indigeneity wolf reintroduction environmental history green conservatism and social ecological systems change The book also speaks to the growing concern regarding environmental issues in the aftermath of the 2015 Paris Climate Conference COP21 and the election of Donald Trump in the United States This collection is organized as a written and visual appeal to issues such as time how much is left and agency who is active what can be done what does and does not work It describes problems and suggests solutions On Active Grounds is unique in its explicit and twinned emphasis on time and agency in the context of the Environmental Humanities and a requisite interdisciplinarity      The Hour of Land Terry Tempest Williams, 2016-05-31 A personal lyrical and idiosyncratic ode to our national parks      Routledge Handbook of Ecocultural Identity Tema Milstein, José Castro-Sotomayor, 2020-05-01 The Routledge Handbook of Ecocultural Identity brings the ecological turn to sociocultural understandings of self The editors introduce a broad insightful assembly of original theory and research on planetary positionalities in flux in the Anthropocene or what in this Handbook cultural ecologist David Abram presciently renames the Humilocene a new epoch of humility Forty international authors craft a kaleidoscopic lens focusing on the following key interdisciplinary inquiries Part I illuminates identity as always ecocultural expanding dominant understandings of who we are and how our ways of identifying engender earthly outcomes Part II examines ways ecocultural identities are fostered and how difference and spaces of interaction can be sources of environmental conviviality Part III illustrates consequential ways the media sphere informs challenges and amplifies particular ecocultural identities Part IV delves into the constitutive power of ecocultural identities and illuminates ways ecological forces shape the political sphere Part V demonstrates multiple and unspooling ways in which ecocultural identities can evolve and transform to recall ways forward to reciprocal surviving and thriving The Routledge Handbook of Ecocultural Identity provides an essential resource for scholars teachers students protectors and practitioners interested in ecological and sociocultural regeneration The Routledge Handbook of Ecocultural Identity has been awarded the 2020 Book Award from the National Communication Association's USA Environmental Communication Division      Ecology and Literatures in English Françoise Besson, 2018-12-14 In all latitudes writers hold out a mirror leading the reader to awareness by telling real or imaginary stories about people of good will who try to save what can be saved and about animals showing humans the way to follow Such tales argue that in spite of all destructions and tragedies if we are just aware of and connected to the real world around us to the blade of grass at our feet and the star above our heads there is hope in a reconciliation with the Earth This may start with the emergence or rather the return of a nonverbal language restoring the connection between human beings and the nonhuman world through a form of communication beyond verbalization Through a journey in Anglophone literature with examples taken from Aboriginal African American English Canadian and Indian works this book shows the role played by literature in the protection of the planet It argues that literature reveals the fundamental idea that everything is connected and that it is only when most people are aware of this connection that the world will change Exactly as a tree is connected with all the animal life in and around it texts show that nothing should be separated From Shakespeare's theatre to ecopoetics from travel writing to detective novels from children's books to novels all literary genres show that literature responds to the violence destroying lands men and nonhuman creatures whose voices can be heard through texts      Moon Montana & Wyoming: With Yellowstone, Grand Teton & Glacier National Parks Carter G. Hermeneutics of Human-Animal Relations in the Wake of Rewilding Mateusz Tokarski, 2019-05-21 In consequence of significant social political economic and demographic changes several wildlife species are currently growing in numbers and recolonizing Europe While this is rightly hailed as a success of the environmental movement the return of wildlife brings its own issues As the animals arrive in the places we inhabit we are learning anew that life with wild nature is not easy especially when the accumulated cultural knowledge and experience pertaining to such coexistence have been all but lost This book provides a hermeneutic study of the ways we come to understand the troubling impacts of wildlife by exploring and critically discussing the meanings of ecological discomforts Thus it begins the work of rebuilding the culture of coexistence The cases presented in this book range from crocodile attacks to mice infestations and their analysis consequently builds up an ethics that sees wildlife as active participants in the shaping of human moral and existential reality This book is of interest not only to environmental philosophers who will find here an original contribution to the established ethical discussions but also to wildlife managers and even to those members of the public who themselves struggle to make sense of encounters with their new wild neighbors
