history and the supernatural      Growing Up Muslim in Europe and the United States Medhi Bozorgmehr, Philip Kasinitz, 2018-07-27 This volume brings together scholarship from two different and until now largely separate literatures the study of the children of immigrants and the study of Muslim minority communities in order to explore the changing nature of ethnic identity religious practice and citizenship in the contemporary western world With attention to the similarities and differences between the European and American experiences of growing up Muslim the contributing authors ask what it means for young people to be both Muslim and American or European how they reconcile these at times conflicting identities how they reconcile the religious and gendered cultural norms of their immigrant families with the more liberal ideals of the western societies that they live in and how they deal with these issues through mobilization and political incorporation A transatlantic research effort that brings together work from the tradition in diaspora studies with research on the second generation to examine social cultural and political dimensions of the second generation Muslim experience in Europe and the United States this book will appeal to scholars across the social sciences with interests in migration diaspora race and ethnicity religion and integration      Saudi Arabia Michael Spilling, Hunt Janin, Margaret Besheer, 2014-08-01 Within the pages of this book learn everything about Saudi Arabia including its history culture economy art people government and more All books of the critically acclaimed Cultures of the World series ensure an immersive experience by offering vibrant photographs with descriptive nonfiction narratives and interactive activities such as creating an authentic traditional dish from an easy to follow recipe Copious maps and detailed timelines present the past and present of the country while exploration of the art and architecture help your readers to understand why diversity is the spice of Life      Growing Up Muslim Andrew Garrod, Robert Kilkenny, 2014-04-11 While 9 11 and its aftermath created a traumatic turning point for most of the writers in this book it is telling that none of their essays begin with that moment These young people were living probing and shifting their Muslim identities long before 9 11 I've heard it said that the second generation never asks the first about its story but nearly all the essays in this book include long intimate portrayals of Muslim family life often going back generations These young Muslims are constantly negotiating the differences between families for whom faith and culture were matters of honor and North America's youth culture with its emphasis on questioning exploring and inventing one's own destiny from the Introduction by Eboo Patel In Growing Up Muslim Andrew Garrod and Robert Kilkenny present fourteen personal essays by college students of the Muslim faith who are themselves immigrants or are the children of immigrants to the United States In their essays the students grapple with matters of ethnicity religious prejudice and misunderstanding and what is termed Islamophobia The fact of 9 11 and subsequent surveillance and suspicion of Islamic Americans particularly those hailing from the Middle East and the Asian Subcontinent have had a profound effect on these students their families and their communities of origin      Compassionate Vietnamese American CEOs Lena Tran, 2013 Much has been written on how to build and grow successful corporations And yet traditionally management gurus often hesitated to explore the role that culture played in corporate success and growth Recently however and especially in our straitened economic climate it has become more acceptable to surmise that culture does indeed play a significant role and to explore alternate culturally infused paths to corporate success Author Lena Tran is right on the money in her new book from Happy About Compassionate Vietnamese American CEOs She explores the role of culture particularly Vietnamese culture in creating business success Interviewing several community visionaries including one billionaire and a couple of millionaires who worked for major high tech enterprises Lena explores the cultural context and values they brought to bear to build happy and successful companies even in turbulent economic times Using a rigorous and analytic interview approach she describes how success can be hinged on core values built upon cultural beliefs family traditions and time honored culturally contextual leadership practices The author s purpose is to nurture an understanding of the deep connections between culture and corporate success and at the same time tell an interesting and engaging story In this she succeeds with remarkable ease and clarity She narrates how each of her interviewees sought to blend their deep rooted cultural beliefs with western leadership theories and practices of business management She reveals how consciously or subliminally core values linked to cultural beliefs and family traditions shaped leadership practices Vietnamese culture has always focused on respect for others and self consideration for employees saving face for families and a faith in karma and Lena expertly shows how these can serve as cornerstones to create happy cohesive and successful companies Compassionate Vietnamese American CEOs a great read under any circumstances becomes doubly relevant in today s economic scenario Educating the Muslims of America

Yvonne Y Haddad, Farid Senzai, Jane I Smith, 2009-02-26 As the U S Muslim population continues to grow Islamic schools are springing up across the American landscape Especially since the events of 9 11 many have become concerned about what kind of teaching is going on behind the walls of these schools and whether it might serve to foster the seditious purposes of Islamist extremism The essays collected in this volume look behind those walls and discover both efforts to provide excellent instruction following national educational standards and attempts to inculcate Islamic values and protect students from what are seen as the dangers of secularism and the compromising values of American culture Also considered here are other dimensions of American Islamic education including new forms of institutions for youth and college age Muslims home schooling the impact of educational media on young children and the kind of training being offered by Muslim chaplains in universities hospitals prisons and other such settings Finally the authors look at the ways in which Muslims are rising to the task of educating the American public about Islam in the face of increasing hostility and prejudice This timely volume is the first dedicated entirely to the neglected topic of Islamic education The Sage International Encyclopedia of Politics and Gender Lia K. Islamic Charity Samantha May, 2021-07-29 Since 9 11 and the global War on Terror practitioners of Islam in Europe and beyond have been scrutinised and surveyed under suspicion of disloyalty and as potential disrupters of national social cohesion. Seemingly benign altruistic practices such as charity are viewed as potential threats to national security and have increasingly become subject to counter terrorism policies. This work seeks to critically assess the assumptions behind the lesser known financial War on Terror through exploration of the effects of current policies on Muslim charitable practices in the UK. The consequences of current policies are multi faceted from the stigmatization and suspicion of Muslim charities and communities individual loss of status and financial standing to a decrease of living standards and or loss of lives. Engaging with the everyday socio political activities of Muslim individuals this book gives voice to the motivations apprehensions and challenges faced by Muslim charitable practitioners. A must read for anyone wanting to challenge policy assumptions behind increased surveillance of charities and individual donors whilst outlining the repercussions of current policies on Muslim individuals and charities.

Muslims in Britain Humayun Ansari, 2002-09-03. The situation of Muslims in Britain is one of the most pressing issues facing British society today. A rise in the number of attacks on Muslims in Britain increasing threats to civil liberties in the name of security measures a resurgence in the activities of the far right in Britain as well as elsewhere in Europe and a crackdown on refugees fleeing persecution place serious questions over Britain's commitment to minority rights. The purpose of this report is to explore Muslim experience in Britain and to call for legislative and policy change. The author considers Muslims access to education employment and housing drawing upon new research and existing statistics as well as case studies and interviews. He discusses Muslims diverse and changing identities their participation in politics at local and national level their campaigns around education. He gives an outline of how Sharia law and English law conflict in some areas but have been reconciled in others. Islamophobia and the media and within the criminal justice system particularly post September 11th are also examined. Finally the author examines existing human rights legislation in relation to Muslims in Britain and finds that they are for the most part unprotected. A set of recommendations proposes some steps that could be taken to tackle religious discrimination Islamophobia in the media and other issues of concern.

Anthropological Perspectives on Aging Britteny M. Howell, Ryan P. Harrod, 2023-02-21. Taking a holistic approach to the study of aging this volume uses biological archaeological medical and cultural perspectives to explore how older adults have functioned in societies around the globe and throughout human history.

Lived Islam A. Kevin Reinhart, 2020-06-11. Does Islam make people violent? Does Islam make people peaceful? In this book A. Kevin Reinhart demonstrates that such questions are misleading because they assume that Islam is a monolithic essence and that Muslims are made the way they are by this monolith. He argues that Islam like all religions is complex and thus best understood through analogy with language. Islam has dialects a set of features shared with other versions of Islam. It also has cosmopolitan elites who prescribe how Islam ought to be even though these experts depending on where they practice the religion unconsciously reflect their own local dialects. Reinhart defines the distinctive features of Islam and investigates how modernity has created new conditions for the religion. Analyzing the similarities and differences between modern and pre modern Islam he clarifies the new and old in the religion as it is lived in the contemporary world
