This substantially revised Fourth Edition represents one of the most up to date research based methods texts available today. This text has two specific goals to change how teachers think about teaching and to change how they actually teach. Solidly grounded in research, the text describes practical methods in a clear, readable manner with numerous case examples and offers suggestions for applying those methods in today's diverse school environments. Kauchak and Eggen organize their discussion around three important themes in education: diversity, motivation, and technology. The American Catalog, 1896
