200. Revised Constitution (Supreme and Legislative assemblies voted for the Revised Constitution of 1970. The National Assembly approved it and the provinces agreed to it. It was signed by the President and is now in force. It provides for a federal system of government, with a strong central government and a weak provincial government. It also provides for a strong judiciary and a strong executive branch. The Revised Constitution is a landmark document in the history of Pakistan, as it marks the first time that the country has had a constitution that was approved by the people. It also marks the first time that the country has had a constitution that was signed by the President. The Revised Constitution is a testament to the resilience of the Pakistani people and their commitment to democracy and the rule of law.
