The Salt Lake Temple Scott D. Marianno, Assistant Academic Vice President Reid L. Neilson, 2025-08-08 Marianno and Neilson share the history of the temple located at the center of the headquarters for the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints in Salt Lake City, Utah, from the time church president Brigham Young declared its precise spot in 1847 to the twenty-first century. Beyond its forty years of construction, readers will learn how the temple shaped and influenced the development of the church into a global faith and its contemporary significance as an icon and symbol for Latter-day Saints.

Developing a Strategy for Missions (Encountering Mission) J. D. The book includes all the features that have made other series volumes useful classroom tools, such as figures, sidebars, and case studies. Students of global or domestic mission work and mission practitioners will value this new resource. Home and Foreign Missions Topics Fall 2013

Kimberly Freeman, 2013-08-01 The Home and Foreign Mission Topic challenges the believer to step outside of the normalcy of their everyday lives and do something to help those who are in need. United States. Congress. House. Committee on Appropriations. Subcommittee on State, Foreign Operations, and Related Programs, 2012. Doing the Word T. Laine Scales, Melody Maxwell, 2024-01-12 In the pantheon of publications related to women's educational history, there is little research concerning women's education in the context of the Baptist church. In Doing the Word, Southern Baptists Carver School of Church Social Work and Its Predecessors, 1907-1997, T. Laine Scales and Melody Maxwell provide a complete history of this unique institution. By exploring the dynamic evolution of women's education through the lens of the women's training program for missions and social work at the Southern Baptist Theological Seminary, the authors show how the institution both expanded women's education and leadership and also came into tension with changes in the Southern Baptist Convention, ultimately resulting in its closing in 1997. A touchstone for women's studies and church history alike, Doing the Word reopens a lost chapter in the evolution of women's leadership during the twentieth century, a tumultuous period in which the Carver School, under significant pressure to reverse course, sought to expand the roles of women in leading the church.
