1. Consent to Treatment and/or Service. By entering into this Service Agreement the Service Provider indicated above ("Caring People", "we" or "our") agrees to provide and the patient ("I" or "you") voluntarily consents to receive home health treatment and/or service based upon the Plan of Care specifically tailored to my health and social needs.

2. Terms of Payment

a. Invoices are payable upon receipt. I have requested home health services from Caring People and understand that by making this request, I become fully financially responsible for any and all charges incurred in the course of the treatment authorized or services rendered. I understand that employee time sheets must be signed on a daily basis and at the end of the work week in order to confirm the hours/days of services rendered. I further understand that fees are due and payable as set forth herein. Invoices are prepared on a bi-weekly basis. We will charge your credit card or debit your bank account pursuant to the Electronic Funds Transfer (EFT) Authorization on the date the invoice is rendered. A finance charge of eighteen percent (18%) per annum will be charged on all invoices past due for 30 days from the date on the invoice. Should any balance be referred for collection, you further agree to pay all reasonable costs of collection including attorney's fees, disbursements, court costs and interest. Caring People reserves the right to discharge any patient for nonpayment of charges upon (3) days written notice. If you should be discharged for nonpayment an assessment will be done and instructions provided for any needed ongoing care or treatment, including pain management.

b. Fees. The payment terms and rates set forth above are based upon our current fees for the type of services required based upon the Plan of Care prepared for you. Our invoices will include any disbursements made on your behalf such as travel, telephone, mailing and/or purchase of personal items on your behalf. Should your condition change necessitating a modification of the Plan of Care (such as a change from Live In to Hourly) or should we amend or adjust our billable rate schedule, you will be notified of the proposed rate modification in writing no less than seven (7) days before the new rates go into effect. In the case of an emergency regarding your care, we reserve the right to provide such information verbally to you.

Congress. House. Select Committee on Aging,1987 The Challenges of Public Procurement Reforms Annalisa Castelli,Gustavo Piga,Stéphane Saussier,Tünde Tátrai,2020-08-31 Public procurement affects a substantial share of world trade flows amounting to 1000 billion euros per year In the EU the public purchase of works goods and services has been estimated to account on average for 16 percent of GDP The novelty of this book is that it focuses on the new European Union Directives approved in 2014 by the EU Parliament The book consists of original contributions related to four specific themes of interest to the procurers day to day role in modern public purchasing organizations both economists and lawyers allowing for relevant exchanges of views and real time interaction The four sections which characterize the book are Life cycle Costing in Public Procurement Calculating Costs and Savings of Public Procurement Corruption and Probity in Public Procurement and Public Procurement and International Trade Agreements CETA TTIP and beyond These themes have been chosen for their current relevance in relation to the new European Public Procurement Directives and beyond The original format features as is the case with the first three volumes an introductory exchange between leading academics and practitioners from differing disciplines It offers a series of sequential interactions between economists lawyers and technical experts who supplement one another so as to enrich the liveliness of the debate and improve the mutual understanding between the various professions This essential guide will be of interest to policymakers academics students and researchers as well as practitioners working in the field of EU public procurement Activity Theory in Practice Harry Daniels,Anne Edwards,Yrjo Engeström,Tony Gallagher,Sten R. Ludvigsen,2013-05-13 This ground breaking book brings together cutting edge researchers who study the transformation of practice through the enhancement and transformation of expertise This is an important moment for such a contribution because expertise is in transition moving toward collaboration in inter organizational fields and continuous shaping of transformations To understand and master this transition powerful new conceptual tools are needed and are provided here The theoretical framework which has shaped these studies is Cultural Historical Activity Theory CHAT CHAT analyses how people and organisations learn to do something new and how both individuals and organisations change The theoretical and methodological tools used have their origins in the work of Lev Vygotsky and A N Leont ev In recent years this body of work has aroused significant interest across the social sciences management and communication studies Working as part of an integrated international team the authors identify specific findings which are of direct interest to the academic community such as the analysis of vertical learning between operational and strategic levels within complex organizations the refinement of notions of identity and subject position within CHAT the introduction of the concept of labour power into CHAT the development of a method of analysing discourse which theoretically coheres with CHAT and the design of projects Activity Theory in Practice will be highly useful to practitioners researchers students and policy makers who are interested in conceptual and empirical issues in all aspects of activity based research

The New Public Governance? Stephen P. Osborne, 2010-01-21 Despite predictions that new public management would establish itself as the new paradigm of Public Administration and Management recent academic research has highlighted concerns about the intra organizational focus and limitations of this approach This book represents a comprehensive analysis of the state of the art of public management examining and framing the debate in this important area The New Public Governance sets out to explore this emergent field of research and to present a framework with which to understand it Divided into five parts the book examines Theoretical underpinnings of the concept of governance especially competing perspectives from Europe and the US Governance of inter organizational partnerships and contractual relationships Governance of policy networks Lessons learned and future directions Under the steely editorship of Stephen Osborne and with contributions from leading academics including Owen Hughes John M Bryson Don Kettl Guy Peters and Carsten Greve this book will be of particular interest to researchers and students of public administration public management public policy and public services management
