into a bygone era DigiCat's commitment to preserving the integrity of this classic guarantees a reading experience that honors Jewett's legacy as a cherished voice in world literature The Cape Doctor in the Nineteenth Century ,2016-08-29

The Cape Doctor is a social history of medicine which places formal Western medicine within its political social and economic context The work shows the way in which the Cape medical profession excluded all but a few women and black practitioners and discriminated along lines of race class and gender in their practice It revises traditional whiggish and linear accounts of professional advancement but it also moves beyond the classic revisionist tradition which documents the emergence of a society divided along lines of race and gender by providing examples of cultural crossover and medical pluralism It also provides a perspective on a broad historical process within which to understand present debates about the most appropriate health policies in South Africa today Young at Heart Kate Forgach,Roger Allan Young,2015-06-30 Linnea Lindgren

Young wrote a weekly column for 29 years for the Oakland Independent Newspaper In a natural voice attuned to her audience Linnea recalled life on a small farm in Eastern Nebraska Young at Heart is a representative selection drawn from thousands of these columns covering such topics as what people wore how they ate how they entertained themselves and much more Youngs memory was prodigious and her interests wide and varying Shell take you back to the Nebraska of yesteryear when lives were at once simpler and incredibly difficult Memories In Ink Edgemont A Country Hamlet Nancy Larimore Hellane,2014-03-22 Nancy Larimore Hellane was born and raised in the little Washington County Maryland village of Edgemont Although she left the area following her marriage to Vince Hellane she never lost her love for the mountain or the little village she called home This book describes the many fond memories of family and friends who also lived there
