Hajj Journey To The Heart Of Islam:

Hajj M. A. Abdel Haleem, 2012 The Hajj is the largest pilgrimage in the world today and a sacred duty for all Muslims With contributions from renowned experts this book opens out onto the full sweep of the Hajj as a sacred path walked by early Islamic devotees as a sumptuous site of worship under the care of sultans and as an expression of faith in the modern world Hajj M. A. Abdel Haleem, 2012 Hajj to the Heart Scott Kugle, 2021-12-28 Against the sweeping backdrop of South Asian history this is a story of journeys taken by sixteenth century reformist Muslim scholars and Sufi mystics from India to Arabia At the center is the influential Sufi scholar Shaykh Ali Muttaqi and his little known network of disciples Scott Kugle relates how Ali Muttaqi an expert in Arabic scriptural hermeneutics and hadith left his native South Asia and traversed treacherous seas to make the Hajj to Mecca Settling in Mecca he continued to influence his homeland from overseas Kugle draws on his original translations of Arabic and Persian manuscripts never before available in English to trace Ali Muttaqi's devotional writings revealing how the Hajj transformed his spiritual life and political loyalties The story expands across three generations of peripatetic Sufi masters in the Mutaqqi lineage as they travel for purposes of pilgrimage scholarship and sometimes simply for survival along Indian Ocean maritime routes linking global Muslim communities Exploring the political intrigue scholarly debates and diverse social milieus that shaped the colorful personalities of his Sufi subjects Kugle argues for the importance of Indian Sufi thought in the study of hadith and of ethics in Islam We are proud to announce that this book is freely available in an open access enhanced edition thanks to TOME Toward an Open Monograph Ecosystem a collaboration of the Association of American Universities the Association of University Presses and the Association of Research Libraries and the generous support of Emory University and the Andrew W Mellon Foundation Learn more at the TOME website openmonographs.org The open access enhanced edition of Hajj to the Heart can be found here <https://manifold.emory.edu/projects/hajj-to-the-heart> The Hajj Eric Tagliacozzo, Shawkat M. Teaching for a Multifaith World Eleazar S. Fernandez, 2017-05-05 When religious diversity is our reality radical hospitality to people of other faiths is not a luxury but a necessity More than necessary for our survival radical hospitality to religious diversity is necessary if we are to thrive as a global society By no means does the practice of hospitality in a multifaith world require that we be oblivious of our differences On the contrary it demands a respectful embrace of our differences because that is who we are Neither does radical hospitality require that we water down our commitment because faithfulness and openness are not contradictory We must be able to say with burning passion that we are open to the claims of other faiths because we are faithful to our religious heritage The essays in this book do not offer simply theological exhortations they offer specific ways of how we can become religiously competent citizens in a multifaith world Let's take the bold steps of radical openness with this book on our side

Land and Trade in Early Islam Hugh Kennedy, Fanny

Bessard, 2025-01-20 Land and Trade in Early Islam discusses the latest developments in the field of early Islamic economic and social history and explores the notion of polycentrism and the dialectic between global and local between 700 and 1050 CE. The volume explores the political mechanisms and the role of Islamic states in regulating and developing demand in the economy. The chapters question the binary of core periphery and demonstrate how the growing scholarship on the liminal regions of the Caliphate has transformed our understanding of the early Islamic world by offering a more nuanced picture of its regional urban and socio-economic dynamics. Changes in the peripheries of the early medieval Caliphate have traditionally been conceived as resulting from initiatives by the core. An increased focus on the comparatively under-explored regions in central Asia, north Africa, south-east Asia and the Caucasus has thrown this into question. Land and Trade in Early Islam draws on this growing body of scholarship to question the notion of peripherality, explore lines of economic influence and interdependence and to better understand the regional economic, social and political dynamics of this period.

Encounters: Medieval Islamic History in 50 Objects Marcus Milwright, 2025-10-27 This book consists of fifty case studies and offers an innovative approach to the study of Medieval Islamic history, concentrating on the analysis of physical objects from the seventh to the eighteenth centuries and across most of the regions that make up the pre-Modern Islamic world. These include a wide range of objects from portable items like coins, vessels and books to major constructions including mosques, tombs, castles, dams and canal systems. The central argument is that the interdisciplinary study of physical objects provides invaluable perspectives that can deepen or challenge the evidence in the written record. Object-based study can also shed light on the lives of social groups who are seldom discussed in Islamic texts written before the modern period. To demonstrate these points, each case study focusses on a single object or small group of related objects. The case studies combine close analysis of the material and visual characteristics with a discussion of the wider context in which such objects were commissioned, made, used, adapted and exchanged. The book is intended as an introduction to the historical study of Islamic objects, employing perspectives from the fields of art history, archaeology, numismatics, ethnography and epigraphy. Written with a minimum of technical language and supported by a critical introduction, an extensive glossary, a timeline and guide for further reading, the book is aimed at students and general readers who are interested in the political, economic, social, cultural, religious and intellectual histories of the Islamic world.

Islamic Arts and Crafts Marcus

Milwright, 2017-02-03 Islamic art is justly famed for its technological sophistication, varied approaches to ornament and innovative employment of the written word. But what do we know about the skilled artisans who spent their lives designing and creating the paintings, objects and buildings that are so admired today? This anthology of written sources dating from the seventh to the twentieth centuries explores numerous aspects of the crafts of the Middle East, from the processing of raw materials to the manufacture of finished artefacts. You will learn about the legal and ethical dimensions of the arts and crafts.

the organisation of labour in urban and rural contexts the everyday lives of artisans the gendered dimensions of making things and the impact of industrialisation upon traditional methods of manufacture Each chapter begins with an introduction providing a wider context for the primary sources There are also suggestions for further reading
