your child's guidance counselor and your mother's neighbor's cousin. Thankfully Jill Margaret Shulman, a college admissions coach, application evaluator, college writing instructor, essayist, author, and empathetic parent is here to be your fiercest ally. She'll guide you through the entire crazy ritual that college admissions has become, month by month, breath by deep cleansing breath, until you drop your kid off at college where she will ignore your phone calls and texts. Come as you are, whether chill or roiling with anxiety, and Shulman, along with a platoon of experts and fellow parents, will help you maintain your strength and sense of self-worth so easily lost somewhere between your teenager's screaming "I hate you! You're ruining my life!" and typing your credit card number into the College Board's website for the twentieth time. You've got college admissions cracked, and now this book has got your back. Admission Matters Sally P. Springer, Marion R. Franck, 2005-09-02 Provides information for students and parents on the college admission process covering such topics as financial aid, early decision, the SAT, writing an effective essay, and how colleges make their decisions. The Truth about College Admission Brennan Barnard, Rick Clark, 2023-09-05 A guide for students and families that demystifies the college process. The Enlightened College Applicant Andrew Belasco, Dave Bergman, 2023-05-15 Deluged with messages that range from "It's Ivy League or bust" to "It doesn't matter where you go," college applicants and their families often find themselves lost adrift in a sea of information overload. Finally, a worthy life preserver has arrived. The Enlightened College Applicant speaks to its audience in a highly accessible, engaging, and example-filled style, giving readers the perspective and practical tools to select and earn admission at the colleges that most closely align with their academic career and life goals. In place of the recycled entrance statistics or anecdotal generalizations about campus life found in many guidebooks, The Enlightened College Applicant presents a no-nonsense account of how students should approach the college search and admissions process. Shifting the mindset from "How can I get into a college?" to "What can that college do for me?" authors Bergman and Belasco pull back the curtain on critical topics such as whether college prestige matters, what college-related skills are valued in the job market, which schools and degrees provide the best return on investment, how to minimize the costs of a college education, and much more. Whether you are a valedictorian or a B/C student, this easy-to-read book will improve your college savvy and enable you to maximize the benefits of your higher education.
