Lawful Conquest? Constanze Weiske,2021-10-04 The global expansion of European colonization is commonly perceived as lawful according to the valid European colonial law of the time This book is substantially challenging this belief by uncovering its legal justifications based on discovery and terra nullius as retrospectively created legal fictions and demonstrating it s untenability in practice Focused on the critical reconstruction of Spanish and Dutch colonization practices in northeastern South America Trinidad and Tobago between 1498 and 1817 the book offers an illuminating view on the European shadow of the colonial past in the Americas Based on the application of an innovative comparative spatio legal Global History approach to 1 770 excavated European colonial written sources from archives of both sides of the Atlantic in comparison to the colonial legal provisions of Europe s most influential legal writers the book moreover provides a substantial argument to the contemporary Caribbean European reparation debate in favor of the return of Indigenous Peoples historical territories Therefore the book calls for the extension of the traditional territory approach to reparations of the United Nations Declaration of the Rights of Indigenous Peoples UNDRIPs and the Inter American Court of Human Rights IACHR Narratives of Mass Atrocity Sarah Federman,Ronald Niezen,2022-09-08 Individuals can assume and be assigned multiple roles throughout a conflict perpetrators can be victims and vice versa heroes can be reassessed as complicit and compromised However accepting this more accurate representation of the narrativized identities of violence presents a conundrum for accountability and justice mechanisms premised on clear roles This book considers these complex sometimes overlapping roles as people respond to mass violence in various contexts from international tribunals to NGO based social movements Bringing the literature on perpetration in conversation with the more recent field of victim studies it suggests a new more effective and reflexive approach to engagement in post conflict contexts Long term positive peace requires understanding the narrative dynamics within and between groups demonstrating that the blurring of victim perpetrator boundaries and acknowledging their overlapping roles is a crucial part of peacebuilding processes This title is also available as Open Access on Cambridge Core
