historian Kerby Jackson introduces us to a classic mining work in this important re issue of Gold Hunting in the Cascade Mountains First published in 1861 this rare publication offers rare insights into an early search for placer gold near Mount Saint Helens in what was then Washington Territory This rare booklet was written by an anonymous author under the name Loo Wit Lat Kla which is a Native American word for fire mountain referring to Mount St Helens Gold Hunting in the Cascade Mountains is a fascinating read on the early history of mining in Washington as well as on the mountaineering of Mount St Helens Only one copy of the original text survives In the 1950 s a limited edition of 300 copies was produced by Yale University few of which still survive today Note This edition is a perfect facsimile of an original limited edition which was introduces cultural geography as an alternative approach to the immigrant model Cultural geography allows Hoberman to restore Jewish American writers to their roles as important active members of the American literary landscape from the 1850s to the present and to argue that Jewish history American literary history and the inhabitation of American geography are and always have been contiguous entities A Hundred Acres of America makes its case by investigating both canonical and extra canonical literary depictions of six geographies the frontier the small town the urban the suburban America as seen from Europe and Israel as seen from America Hoberman reads dozens of representative texts closely and analyzes a wide range of authors from frontier era memoirists and turn of the century native born reformers to contemporary novelists He adroitly demonstrates that Jewish American authors are not only present throughout American literary history but actively shaped this history with writings that often subverted or contradicted the ways their non Jewish peers depicted these geographies Mines Register ,1914 The Great Bonanza.
