Golfs Grand Design The Evolution Of Golf Architecture In America:

Golf Ball Harry Brown, 2015-01-29 Object Lessons is a series of short beautifully designed books about the hidden lives of ordinary things Harry Brown explores the composition history kinetic life and the long deterioration of golf balls which as it turns out may outlive their hitters by a thousand years in places far beyond our reach Golf balls embody our efforts to impose our will on the land whether the local golf course or the Moon but their unpredictable spin bounce and roll often defy our control Despite their considerable technical refinements golf balls reveal the futility of control They inevitably disappear in plain sight and find their way into hazards Golf balls play with people Harry Brown's short treatise on the golf ball serves up surprising lessons about the human desire to tame and control the landscape through technology Object Lessons is published in partnership with an essay series in The Atlantic

Links to the Past Patricia Kuhn Babin, 2018-06-29 In summer 2016 the U S National Park Service began a study on the history and design of the National Park Service golf courses at East Potomac Park Rock Creek Park and Langston As enthusiasm for the sport began in the early 20th century the District of Columbia's public golf courses were built by the federal government for those who could not afford to play at the area's private clubs and as part of the expansion of parks and recreation facilities in the nation's capital Initially built between 1918 and 1939 the three courses hosted numerous tournaments Presidents of the United States renowned American golfers as well as countless local citizens The golf courses also played a role in the city's Civil Rights movement the National Park Service's position against segregation and the integration of the city's recreational facilities between 1941 and 1954 The National Park Service will use these studies as critical planning tools for the on going management interpretation and public use of the golf courses Discover more resources relating to Civil Rights Equal Opportunity EEO here <https://bookstore.gpo.gov/catalog/civil-rights-equal-opportunity-eeo> Other products produced by the U S Department of Interior National Park Service is available here <https://bookstore.gpo.gov/agency/national-park-service-nps>
