

20-Nothing

By A.A. Gardner

AVA

It feels like there's this pit inside my chest. It's like this virus lies dormant and it keeps feeding on — I don't know what it keeps feeding on because I feel like there's nothing left. I'm constantly looking at the world through a pane of glass and I'm shouting and shouting and nobody can hear me. But at the same time... I don't think I want them to.

I'm not sad. I feel vacant. Like, there's nothing left of me inside. I'm full of ... dust and soot and fog and the burnt pages of books I bought but never read... I'm pacified, I'm controlled by tiny little seeds of doubt that infest my body with fantasies, and — I'm not sure which parts of me are fact and which parts of me are fiction. I'm like Alice, falling into some terrifying Wonderland and all I want to do is wake up.

I'm so tired. There's nothing about me that I remember being beautiful. I can't remember the last time I laughed. I hate myself for tripping. And I hate myself for letting go. But most of all, I hate that I hate myself.

Normal Instructor and Teachers World ,1928 Humorous Monologues Mayme Riddle Bitney,1960 A Good Night Out for the Girls E. Aston,G. Harris,2012-11-29 Moving across the boundaries of mainstream and experimental circuits from the affective pleasures of commercially successful shows such as Calendar Girls and Mamma Mia to the feminist possibilities of new burlesque and stand up this book offers a lucid and accessible account of popular feminisms in contemporary theatre and performance Place-and Community-Based Education in Schools Gregory A. Smith,David Sobel,2014-04-08 Place and community based education an approach to teaching and learning that starts with the local addresses two critical gaps in the experience of many children now growing up in the United States contact with the natural world and contact with community It offers a way to extend young people s attention beyond the classroom to the world as it actually is and to engage them in the process of devising solutions to the social and environmental problems they will confront as adults This approach can increase students engagement with learning and enhance their academic achievement Envisioned as a primer and guide for educators and members of the public interested in incorporating the local into schools in their own communities this book explains the purpose and nature of place and community based education and provides multiple examples of its practice The detailed descriptions of learning experiences set both within and beyond the classroom will help readers begin the process of advocating for or incorporating local content and experiences into their schools Resources in Education ,1998

Index to Dramatic Readings Agnes K. Silk,Clara Elizabeth Fanning,1925 Girls in Power Laura Fingerson,2012-02-01 Girls in Power offers a fascinating and unique look at the social aspects of menstruation in the lives of adolescent girls and also in the lives of adolescent boys Although there has been much research on other aspects of gender and the body this is one of the few books to examine menstruation and the first to explore how it plays a part in power interactions between boys and girls Talking openly in single and mixed gender settings individuals and groups of high school age girls and boys share their interpretations and experiences of menstruation Author Laura Fingerson reveals that while teens have negative feelings about menstruation teen girls use their experiences of menstruation as a source of embodied power in their interactions with other girls and with boys She also explores how boys deal with their own reduced power The book extends our theoretical and analytical understanding of youth gender power and embodiment by providing a more balanced view of adolescent social life
