Hot Printing Van Hendrik Nicolaas Werkman:

H.N. Werkman Alston W. Purvis, 2004-01-01 An extraordinary look at the work of a highly influential avant garde designer typographer and printmaker Dutch designer and printmaker Hendrik Werkman 1882 1945 is best known for his innovative printing techniques and avant garde typography As publisher of De Blauwe Schuit a series of underground booklets produced by Jewish dissident poets and writers during the Nazi occupation of Holland Werkman was imprisoned by German secret police in 1945 and executed without trial just three days before the country's liberation This generously illustrated book is the first in English to focus on Werkman's remarkable graphic work and fascinating life Werkman founded his own printmaking shop in 1908 His self produced magazine The Next Call was published in 1923 and included typographical and other printmaking experiments as well as the designer's own Dadaist poems and texts Werkman also developed a printmaking process he called hot printing a technique incorporating found materials that added repeated design elements directly onto the paper all without the use of a printing press Although much of his work was destroyed at the time of his execution the remarkable examples that remain tell the story of a maverick designer and typographer whose graphic vision was playful bold experimental and unwaveringly optimistic H. N Werkman (Monographics Series) Alston W. Purvis, 2004 Hendrik Werkman born in Groningen Holland in 1882 was a printer typographer painter and printmaker He is best known for his asymmetric typographic compositions and for his experimentation with letterpress printing techniques He also printed without the press a technique he called not printing In Graphic Design A Concise History Richard Hollis wrote Werkman's uninhibited graphic invention has been an inspiration to graphic designers anxious to introduce an obviously creative effect Like Piet Zwart Werkman used type as collage From 1923-26 Werkman created and printed an experimental typographic magazine The Next Call During the German occupation of Holland in World War II he ran an underground press and produced 40 issues of a subversive broadsheet The Blue Barge In 1945 he was executed by the Nazis only two days before the liberation of Holland Much of his work was destroyed at this time Hendrik Werkman Dick Dooijes, 1970 Hendrik Nicolaas Werkman J. Werkman, Typographies and Poems Whitechapel Art Gallery, Hendrik Nicolaas Werkman, 1975 Spirit of Resistance Jeroen Dewulf, 2010 The first book to offer a complete story of the extraordinary proliferation of Dutch clandestine literature under the Nazi occupation Clandestine literature was published in all countries under Nazi occupation but nowhere else did it flourish as it did in the Netherlands This raises important questions What was the content of this literature What were the risks of writing printing selling and buying it And why the Netherlands Traditionally the combative Dutch spirit of resistance has been cited a reaction not only to German oppression but to German propaganda while the Germans hoped to build bonds with their Germanic Dutch brothers clandestine literature insisted on their incompatibility However when reading clandestine literature one should not forget that this spirit of resistance came rather late and did not prevent the transportation of seventy three percent of the Netherlands Jewish population to Nazi death camps the largest percentage in Western Europe The Dutch case is complex while the country proved to be remarkably resistant to Nazi propaganda little was done to prevent the actual execution of Nazi policies The complete story of Dutch clandestine literature therefore combines resistance and complicity victory and defeat pride and shame Jeroen Dewulf is Queen Beatrix Professor of Dutch Studies in the Department of German at the University of California Berkeley Zoeken & scheuren Max Arian, 2010 Biografie van de directeur van het Stedelijk Museum in Amsterdam 1897 1984 waarin de levensperiode tot en met het einde van de Tweede Wereldoorlog centraal staat Hendrik Nicolaas Werkman 1882-1945 Hendrik Nicolaas Werkman, Jan Martinet, 1977 Hendrik Nicolaas Werkman Hans van Straten, 1963 The National Union Catalogs, 1963-, 1964 General Catalogue of Printed Books British Museum.
