Holocaust Cinema Complete Rich Brownstein, 2021-10-01 Holocaust movies have become an important segment of world cinema and the de facto Holocaust education for many. One quarter of all American produced Holocaust related feature films have won or been nominated for at least one Oscar. In fact from 1945 through 1991 half of all American Holocaust features were nominated. Yet most Holocaust movies have fallen through the cracks and few have been commercially successful. This book explores these trends and many others with a comprehensive guide to hundreds of films and made for television movies. From Anne Frank to Schindler's List to Jojo Rabbit more than 400 films are examined from a range of perspectives: historical, chronological, thematic, sociological, geographical, and individual. The filmmakers are contextualized including Charlie Chaplin, Sidney Lumet, Steven Spielberg, Quentin Tarantino, and Roman Polanski. Recommendations and reviews of the 50 best Holocaust films are included along with an educational guide, a detailed listing of all films covered, and a four part index/glossary.

Performing Difference Jonathan C. Friedman, 2008-12-24 Performing Difference is a compilation of seventeen essays from some of the leading scholars in history, criticism, film, and theater studies. Each author examines the portrayal of groups and individuals that have been traditionally marginalized or excluded from dominant historical narratives. As a meeting point of several fields of study, this book is organized around three meta themes: race, gender, and genocide. Included are analyses of films and theatrical productions from the United States as well as essays on cinema from Southern and Central America, Europe, and the Middle East. Typically the contributing authors write about the depiction of race, ethnicities, gender, and sexual orientation and genocides. This volume assesses how the performing arts have aided in the social construction of the other in differing contexts. Its fundamental premise is that performance is powerful and its unifying thesis is that the arts remain a major forum for advancing a more nuanced and humane vision of social outcasts, not only in the realm of national imaginations but in social relations as well. Cinematic Social Studies William B.
