Monthly Catalog of United States Government Publications ,1982 The Social Divide Margaret Weir,1998-02-01 A Brookings Institution Press and Russell Sage Foundation publication The extraordinary swings in the scope and content of the policy agenda during the first Clinton administration revealed a fundamental partisan divide over the social role of the federal government This book argues that the recent conflicts over social policy represent key elements in strategies that parties designed in an attempt to consolidate their hold over the federal government Long frustrated by divided government each party exceeded its electoral mandate in hopes of enacting major policy reforms aimed to shift politics in their direction for the foreseeable future The book traces the overreaching and limited legislative success that characterized the first Clinton administration s approach to three distinctive features of politics and policymaking the polarization of political elites the predominance of advertising campaigns and intense interest group politics as political parties have ceased to mobilize ordinary people and the unprecedented role that budgetary concerns now play in social policymaking Although neither party managed to enact its major transforming agenda Congress did pass new policies most notably welfare reform that together with a host of other changes in the states and the private sector altered the landscape for social policy The poor have been the biggest losers as Democrats and Republicans have fought to win the middle class over to their vision of the future The authors first analyze the institutions and tools of policymaking including Congress the political use of public opinion polling and the politics of the deficit They then consider policies designed to win over the middle class including health care policy employer provided social benefits wages and jobs and crime policy Last they address policies targeted at the disadvantaged including welfare affirmative action and urban policy In addition to the editor the contributors include John Ferejohn Lawrence R Jacobs Robert Y Sha Challenges of Urbanization in the 21st Century Kalpana Markandey, B. Srinagesh, Ashok Kumar Lonavath, 2013-01-01 This series on Challenges of Urbanization in the 21st Century is a five volume compendium that contains the articles presented at the 11th Asian Urbanization Conference held at Hyderabad India in collaboration with the US based Asian Urban Research Association The Fourth Volume on Urbanization and Urban Growth discusses topics as diverse as Land Use and Land Cover Demographics Spatiality in Urbanization Urban Impact on Economy and Sustainable Urbanization gentrification media and development role of Indian Judiciary in Urban Development
