Getting Good Loving Audrey B. Chapman, 2009-03-01 Written by noted authority and radio show host Audrey Chapman this release of Getting Good Loving is a revised and updated new edition of one of the most successful relationship guides for African Americans ever published Examining case studies and first person accounts from black men and women

Audrey Chapman offers sensible and sensitive solutions for their relationship problems and shows how black men and women can get more of what everyone needs good loving Black Women, Black Love Dianne M Stewart, 2020-10-06 A powerful persuasive and devastatingly haunting examination of America's racist centuries long oppression of Black love Carol Anderson bestselling author of White Rage According to the 2010 US census more than seventy percent of Black women in America are unmarried Black Women Black Love reveals how four centuries of laws policies and customs have created that crisis Dianne M Stewart begins in the colonial era when slave owners denied Blacks the right to marry divided families and in many cases raped enslaved women and girls Later during Reconstruction and the ensuing decades violence split up couples again as millions embarked on the Great Migration north where the welfare system mandated that women remain single in order to receive government support And no institution has forbidden Black love as effectively as the prison industrial complex which removes Black men en masse from the pool of marriageable partners Prodigiously researched and deeply felt Black Women Black Love reveals how white supremacy has systematically broken the heart of Black America and it proposes strategies for dismantling the structural forces that have plagued Black love and marriage for centuries Experiences of Single African-American Women Professors Eletra S. Gilchrist, 2013-03-08 Experiences of Single African American Women Professors With this Ph D I Thee Wed edited by Eletra S Gilchrist explores the unique lived experiences of single African American women professors Gilchrist's contributors are comprised of never before married and doctorate degree holding African American women professors The authors and research participants speak candidly about their experiences exploring a myriad of topics including dating costs and rewards relationship challenges work life balance multiple intersecting identities negative perceptions and identity negotiation This volume is designed by and for an academic audience It addresses the dating and mating complexities of the population under study by combining autoethnographic accounts with empirical research and theoretical concepts As one of the few works to address the intricate interpersonal dynamics surrounding African American women in the professorate from a scholarly perspective Eletra S Gilchrist's Experiences of Single African American Women Professors With this Ph D I Thee Wed seeks to not only dispel myths and stereotypes but serve as an instructional tool for other professor hopefuls Who I Am Horace Armour, 2019-05-22 In Armour's lifetime he has been in difference to the rules of Society he avoided the pit falls of quicksand because he forgot the rules of the jungle Yet he has wondered the Wilderness of Love This book tells a story about life Not just the story of my life but life in general Like so many others that have gone down the same road as I Just like millions more will follow the path of life in their very own special way Armour being human knowing that he has made mistakes still keeps trying to correct his mistakes all along knowing that Life is Good and Sweet And through all of that Armour was seeking just One Answer I am sure that we have all sat down and thought the very same thing about ourselves Who I Am Now I sit here wondering the same thing Yet I look back to the Four Stages of my Life where it all started from and up until now That very first question is

did I say this right Who I am or should it have been Who Am I Which way is correct is all up to us How we talk about one self So I say Who I AM

Contemporary Plays by African American Women Sandra Adell, 2015-12-15 African American women have increasingly begun to see their plays performed from regional stages to Broadway Yet many of these artists still struggle to gain attention In this volume Sandra Adell draws from the vital wellspring of works created by African American women in the twenty first century to present ten plays by both prominent and up and coming writers Taken together the selections portray how these women engage with history as they delve into and shake up issues of gender and class to craft compelling stories of African American life Gliding from gritty urbanism to rural landscapes these works expand boundaries and boldly disrupt modes of theatrical representation Selections Blue Door by Tanya Barfield Levee James by S M Shephard Massat Hoodoo Love by Katori Hall Carnival by Nikkole Salter Single Black Female by Lisa B Thompson Fabulation or The Re Education of Undine by Lynn Nottage BlackTop Sky by Christina Anderson Voyeurs de Venus by Lydia Diamond Fedra by J Nicole Brooks and Uppa Creek A Modern Anachronistic Parody in the Minstrel Tradition by Keli Garrett Ho Stroll --Part 1 Red Jordan Arobateau, 2010
