

20 things every teacher should do

| | |
|---|--|
| Listen to their students more than they talk. | Try and understand what their students are thinking when students describe their work. |
| Gather evidence every day on what every one of their students understands from the day's lesson. | Plan lessons with clear, achievable goals that build toward longer-term goals. |
| Learn something new every day. | Experiment to see what helps their students learn best. |
| Become an expert on the different ways of understanding each topic they teach. | Learn how the subject or year they teach is connected to other subjects or years. |
| Follow the schedule of one of their students for the entire day. | Take notes and reflect on their teaching and their students' learning. |
| Use a variety of modalities with all of their students so they experience the subject area in different ways. | Ask questions that prompt thinking from all of their students. |
| Establish and maintain norms and routines in their classroom. | Read research on teaching and learning on a regular basis. |
| Give feedback to students that is clear, actionable, timely, consistent, and goal-oriented. | Separate feedback from grading. |
| Collaborate with other teachers to study and improve their practice. | Share what works with other teachers and why they know it works. |
| Become an expert in the ways students typically understand their subject area or grade level. | Believe that all of their students can achieve success. |
