English Women, Religion, and Textual Production, 1500-1625

Micheline White, 2016-05-13 Contributing to the growing interest in early modern women and religion this essay collection advances scholarship by introducing readers to recently recovered or little studied texts and by offering new paradigms for the analysis of women's religious literary activities Contributors underscore the fact that women had complex multi-dimensional relationships to the religious political order acting as activists for specific causes but also departing from confessional norms in creative ways and engaging in intra as well as extra confessional conflict The volume thus includes essays that reflect on the complex dynamics of religious culture itself and that illuminate the importance of women's engagement with Catholicism throughout the period The collection also highlights the vitality of neglected intertextual genres such as prayers meditations and translations and it focuses attention on diverse forms of textual production such as literary writing patronage epistolary exchanges public reading and epitaphs Collectively English Women Religion and Textual Production 1500 1625 offers a comprehensive treatment of the historical literary and methodological issues preoccupying scholars of women and religious writing

The Golden Key: Modern Women Artists and Gender Negotiations in Republican China (1911-1949)

Amanda Wangwright, 2021-08-16 The first monograph devoted to women artists of the Republican period The Golden Key recovers the history of a groundbreaking yet forgotten force in China's modern art world Through its detailed examination of the lives and careers of six female artists Guan Zilan Qiu Ti Pan Yuliang Fang Junbi Yu Feng and Liang Baibo this book argues that women were central to the emergence of modernist art in early twentieth century China and to the nation's larger modernization project Amanda S Wangwright's analysis of a wealth of primary sources demonstrates how these women constructed public personas negotiated space within art societies applied feminist thought to their artistic praxis and surmounted obstacles to their careers wielding art as the golden key to professional advancement and gender equality

Larsen, Diana Robin, Carole Levin, 2007-03-01 This work is a revealing combination of biographies and topical essays that describe the outstanding and often overlooked contributions of women to the science politics and culture of the Renaissance Encyclopedia of Women in the Renaissance Italy France and England is the first first comprehensive reference devoted exclusively to the contributions of women to European culture in the period between 1350 and 1700 Focusing principally on early modern women in England France and Italy it offers over 135 biographies of the extraordinary women of those times Encyclopedia of Women in the Renaissance provides vivid portraits of well known women such as Catherine of Siena Joan of Arc Mary Queen of Scots and Christine de Pizan Also included are less familiar but equally important women like Elena Lucrezia Cornaro the first woman in Europe to earn a doctorate the renowned Renaissance painter Artemisia Gentileschi and the acclaimed author of medical textbooks and midwife to a French queen Louise Boursier Based on the latest research and enhanced with thematic essays this groundbreaking work casts our understanding of women's lives and roles in Renaissance history and culture in a provocative new light      Lady's Realm , 1905      Women Writers in Renaissance England Randall Martin, 2014-07-21 Of all the new developments in literary theory feminism has proved to be the most widely influential leading to an expansion of the traditional English canon in all periods of study This book aims to make the work of Renaissance women writers in English better known to general and academic readers so as to strengthen the case for their future inclusion in the Renaissance literary canon This lively book surveys women writers in the sixteenth century and early seventeenth centuries Its selection is vast historically representative and original taking examples from twenty different relatively unknown authors in all genres of writing including poetry fiction religious works letters and journals translation and books on childcare It establishes new contexts for the debate about women as writers within the period and suggests potential intertextual connections with works by well known male authors of the same time Individual authors and works are given concise introductions with both modern and historical critical analysis setting them in a theoretical and historicised context All texts are made readily accessible through modern spelling and punctuation on the page annotation and headnotes The substantial up to date bibliography provides a source for further study and research Godey's Lady's Book ,1871 Women Editing/Editing Women

Chanita Goodblatt,Ann Hollinshead Hurley,2009-01-14 This collection of essays links current research in the writings and editing of early modern women and in those women who were themselves early editors with a new methodology of editing currently titled the new textualism As such the collection seeks to solve two problems The first concerns the difficulty of editing the works of early modern women writers for whom there is little biographical data a challenging task when the standard life and works format is thus inhibited Second related but slightly different occurs because although we know that there were women who edited in the early modern and even later periods we know little about them as well The new textualism approach to editing which focuses on the material properties of the manuscript or book its print or performance history and records of its dissemination and the sociology of texts provides a fruitful solution to both problems by broadening the concept of agency and hence provides a richer context for the production of a given text The collection includes two sets of essays One set has been reprinted from seminal works in the field of new textualism These include writings by recognized figures like Jerome McGann Leah Marcus and Wendy Wall among others As such that set provides background for the reading of the second a group of six original essays by scholars now working in the field of early modern women writers who directly apply aspects of the new textualism in their research The fusion of the research field of retrieving early modern women writers with the practices of new textualist editing is thus the core of this collection of essays and is illustrative of what can be achieved in the field of editing when this new approach to texts is put into practice The Lady's Magazine Or Entertaining Companion for the Fair Sex ,1773 Ostara Edain McCoy,2002 From coloring eggs with natural plant dyes to spring cleaning rituals to spells for love and lust this book helps readers connect with the spirit of the Ostara festival and incorporate its rituals and customs both ancient and new into their own Ostara celebrations Illustrations
