How To Be The Best Lover A Guide For Teenage Boys:

How to Be the Best Lover - a Guide for Teenage Boys Howard B. Schiffer, 2004 Lost in Transition Christian Smith, Kari Christoffersen, Hilary Davidson, Patricia Snell Herzog, 2011-09-01

Life for emerging adults is vastly different today than it was for their counterparts even a generation ago. Young people are waiting longer to marry to have children and to choose a career direction. As a result they enjoy more freedom, opportunities and personal growth than ever before. But the transition to adulthood is also more complex, disjointed and confusing. In Lost in Transition Christian Smith and his collaborators draw on 230 in depth interviews with a broad cross section of emerging adults ages 18-23 to investigate the difficulties young people face today, the underlying causes of those difficulties and the consequences both for individuals and for American society as a whole. Rampant consumer capitalism, ongoing failures in education, hyper individualism, postmodernist moral relativism and other aspects of American culture are all contributing to the chaotic terrain that emerging adults must cross. Smith identifies five major problems facing very many young people today: confused moral reasoning, routine intoxication, materialistic life goals, regrettable sexual experiences and disengagement from civic and political life. The trouble does not lie only with the emerging adults or their poor individual decisions but has much deeper roots in mainstream American culture, a culture which emerging adults have largely inherited rather than created. Older adults Smith argues must recognize that much of the responsibility for the pain and confusion young people face lies with them. Rejecting both sky is falling alarmism on the one hand and complacent disregard on the other, Smith suggests the need for what he calls realistic concern and a reconsideration of our cultural priorities and practices that will help emerging adults more skillfully engage unique challenges they face. Even handed, engagingly written and based on comprehensive research, Lost in Transition brings much needed attention to the darker side of the transition to adulthood.

Date Rape Jill Hamilton, 2009-06-26

Teens who are victims of dating abuse are subject to long term consequences such as alcoholism, eating disorders, promiscuity, thoughts of suicide and violent behavior. Editor Jill Hamilton has carefully collected essays and personal accounts that will help readers understand issues relating to date rape. Readers will evaluate its causes, situations and behaviors that may be of concern and how to prevent it from happening. This book features a listing of organizations to aid readers in addressing the issue in their own lives.

Power to the Aspies Becca Kline, 2013-05

Power to the Aspies is exactly that: the blow by blow fight against autism, bringing her child from total despair to overcoming power. Becca, an American university student married to a German businessman, was suddenly shocked into the reality that she was the divorced mom of a son born with Asperger's autism in a country totally foreign to her. This is a detailed account of how Becca lived through the isolated, helpless, powerless grief of mothering a very sad son as he faced his school days with the pain of rejection and failure on every hand and not knowing why. After years of in the trenches, life battling school administrators, many I'm just not sure I can't help doctors and in depth studying of books written about troubled children, Becca offers this book showing parents how to help their child reach his her full potential and love every minute of it Power to the Aspies is a tremendously informative read for anyone interested in human behavior The conversational writing style is easy to read and engaging Each chapter helps one understand an aspect of Aspergers and shares helpful advice This book is loaded with compassion and practical help Barbara Booth M S LBSW Dallas Texas Becca Kline has unlocked the capabilities of her eldest son and has helped many other parents to do so I have had the opportunity to work just a bit with him in the area of basic mathematics He has a marvelous ability to focus on whatever academic pursuit he undertakes He has not only taught himself languages other than his own German and English but he has a wonderful grasp of scientific subjects as well He now has his Masters Degree in chemistry and is employed by a prominent laboratory in London England Dr Howard Duck Ed D
