How Real Is Race A Sourcebook On Race Culture And Biology:

How Real Is Race? Carol C. Mukhopadhyay, Rosemary Henze, Yolanda T. Moses, 2013-12-11 How real is race What is biological fact what is fiction and where does culture enter What do we mean by a colorblind or postracial society or when we say that race is a social construction If race is an invention can we eliminate it This book now in its second edition employs an activity oriented approach to address these questions and engage readers in unraveling and rethinking the contradictory messages we so often hear about race The authors systematically cover the myth of race as biology and the reality of race as a cultural invention drawing on biocultural and cross cultural perspectives They then extend the discussion to hot button issues that arise in tandem with the concept of race such as educational inequalities slurs and racialized labels and interracial relationships In so doing they shed light on the intricate dynamic interplay among race culture and biology For an online supplement to How Real Is Race Second Edition click here

What Is Race? Joshua Glasgow, Sally Haslanger, Chike Jeffers, Quayshawn Spencer, 2019-05-15 In this debate format book four philosophers Joshua Glasgow Sally Haslanger Chike Jeffers and Quayshawn Spencer articulate contrasting views on race Each author presents a distinct viewpoint on what race is and then replies to the others offering theories that are clear and accessible to undergraduates lay readers and non specialists as well as other philosophers of race A Realist Metaphysics of Race Jeremy Pierce,2014-12-11 In A Realist Metaphysics of Race A Context Sensitive Short Term Retentionist Long Term Revisionist Approach Jeremy Pierce defends a social kind view of racial categories On this view the biological features we use to classify people racially do not make races natural kinds Rather races exist because of contingent social practices single out certain groups of people as races give them social importance and allow us to name them as races Pierce also identifies several kinds of context sensitivity as central to how racial categorization works and argues that we need racial categories to identify problems in how our racial constructions are formed including the harmful effects of racial constructions Hence rather than seeking to eliminate such categories Pierce argues that we should also make efforts to change the conditions that generate their problematic elements with an eye toward retaining only the unproblematic aspects A Realist Metaphysics of Race contains insights relevant not just to professional philosophers in metaphysics philosophy of race social philosophy philosophy of language and philosophy of science but also to students and scholars working in sociology biology anthropology ethnic studies and political science The ^AOxford Handbook of Language and Race H. Samy Alim,Angela Reyes,Paul V. Kroskrity,2020-10-02 The Oxford Handbook of Language and Race is the first volume to offer a sustained theoretical exploration of all aspects of language and race from a linguistic anthropological perspective Using state of the art research from a rapidly expanding field this handbook reveals the ways in which language and race are mutually constituted as social realities It offers theoretical reflexive takes on the field of language and race the larger histories and systems that influence these concepts the bodies that enact and experience them and finally the expressions and outcomes that emerge as a result

Becoming Human Luke A. Powery, 2022-11-01 Discussions of racial difference always embody a story The dominant story told in our society about race has many components but two stand out 1 racial difference is an essential characteristic fully determining individual and group identity and 2 racial difference means that some bodies are less human than others The church knows another story says Luke Powery if it would remember it That story says that the diversity of human bodies is one of the gifts of the Spirit That story's decisive chapter comes at Pentecost when the Spirit embraces all bodies all flesh all tongues In that story different kinds of materiality and embodiment are strengths to be celebrated rather than inconvenient facts to be ignored or feared In this book Powery urges the church to live up to the inclusive story of Pentecost in its life of worship and ministry He reviews ways that a theology and practice of preaching can more fully exemplify the diversity of gifts God gives to the church He concludes by entering into a conversation with the work of Howard Thurman on doing ministry to and with humanity in the light of the work of the Spirit

Black History Is for Everyone Brian Jones, 2025-09-30 A longtime educator explores how the study of Black history challenges our understanding of race nation and the stories we tell about who we are Black history is under attack from powerful forces that seek to excise it from classrooms libraries and the popular imagination Yet its opponents fail to understand a simple truth the best education makes us uncomfortable It challenges our assumptions helps us see larger forces at work and gives us glimpses of alternate futures In Black History Is for Everyone Brian Jones offers a meditation on the power of Black history using his own experiences as a lifelong learner and classroom teacher to question everything from the radicalism of the American Revolution to the meaning of race and nation With warmth and immersive storytelling Jones encourages us to delve deeper into our collective history explores how curiosity about our world is essential and reminds us that with stakes so high the effort is worth it

Hacking Education in a Digital Age Bryan Smith, Nicholas Ng-A-Fook, Linda Radford, Sarah Smitherman Pratt, 2018-04-01 In this collection the authors put forth different philosophical conceptions of hacking education in response to the educational societal and technological demands of the 21st century Teacher Educators are encouraged to draw on the collection to rethink how hacking education can be understood simultaneously as a praxis informed by desires for malice as well as a creative site for us to reconsider the possibilities and limitations of teaching and learning in a digital era How do we hack beyond the limits of circumscribed experiences regulated subjective encounters with knowledge and the limits imposed by an ever constrained 21st century schooling system in the hopes of imagining better and more meaningful futures How do we foster ingenuity and learning as the end itself and not learning as economic imperative in a world where technology in part positions individuals as zombie like and as an economic end in itself Can we hack education in such a way that helps to mitigate the black hat hacking that increasingly lays ruin to individual lives government agencies and places of work How can we as educators facilitate the curricular and pedagogical processes of reclaiming the term hacking so as to remember and remind ourselves that hacking's humble roots are ultimately pedagogical in its very essence As a collection of theoretical and pedagogical pieces the chapters in the collection are of value to both scholars and practitioners who share the same passion and commitment to changing challenging and reimagining the script that all too often constrains and prescribes particular visions of education Those who seek to question the nature of teaching and learning and who seek to develop a richer theoretical vocabulary will benefit from the insightful and rich collection of essays presented in this collection In this regard the collection offers something for all who might wish to rethink the fundamental dynamics of education or as Morpheus asks of Neo in The Matrix bend the rules of conventional ways of knowing and being

Regimes of Belonging – Schools – Migrations Lydia Heidrich, Yasemin Karakaşoğlu, Paul Mecheril, Saphira Shure, 2021-12-14 This edited volume aims to critically discuss in how far the national orientation of schools and teacher education is appropriate in light of increasing migration and transnationality The contributions offer ideas from teacher education research and school pedagogical practice in different nation state contexts such as Austria Canada Chile Greece Israel Japan Switzerland Turkey the UK and the USA They ask which empirical and theoretical approaches are suitable for describing the phenomena of pedagogical professional dealings with migration related and transnational demands on schools In raising this question they do not reduce the analytical focus on migrants their migration paths actions or attitudes Instead the authors analyse the global interconnectedness and entanglements each embedded in their specific national and global societal power structures and hierarchical relationships and the country specific and transnational structures and contextual conditions of schools and teacher education

Courageous Leadership in Early Childhood Education Susi Long, Mariana Souto-Manning, Vivian Vasquez, 2016 In this inspiring collection 13 early childhood leaders take action to challenge and change inequitable educational practices in preschools and elementary schools For them educating for social justice is not an empty platitude Steadfast and resolute they turn rhetoric into reality as they guide early childhood teachers to teach for social justice innovatively and strategically Through the voices of families teachers and the administrators themselves each chapter shares ways that these leaders use the power entrusted in them to question and disrupt discriminatory and marginalizing practices that deny opportunities for some students while privileging others The book includes insights strategies and resources that administrators can use to build confidence knowledge and skills as they invest in more equitable and just pre schools Book Features Highlights the actions of administrators as they take a stand to transcend standardized approaches to teaching and learning creating more equitable educational environments Portrays strategies and resources used to engage teachers in critical examination of self and the institutions in which they work Describes principles and practices that guide administrators as they support the development of culturally relevant practices and policies Offers powerful ways early childhood administrators can approach inequitable mandates Highlights the voices of families as they participate in and are impacted by the work of administrators Susi Long Mariana Souto Manning and Vivian Vasquez scholars with stellar reputations in the fields of early childhood education critical literacy and social justice education have combined their considerable talents to edit a book that will serve as a beacon of hope for administrators policymakers and educators at all levels of learning and teaching From the Foreword by Sonia Nieto professor emerita University of Massachusetts Amherst and bestselling author
