Saturday February 6 1848 at nine o'clock A M we sighted the coast of China in the vicinity of bong kong the port of our destination It was the first day of the Chinese New Year and our captain was unable to procure a pilot until two o'clock P When a Chinese pilot came on board and took charge of the ship Mean while the captain by aid of his charts had verified his position and placed his good ship one hundred and fifteen days from New York at the mouth of the entrance to the harbor of bong kong The wind being light and ahead it was nine o'clock r M When with grateful hearts we dropped anchor in the harbor and looked shoreward on the ashing lights of Victoria the name given to the English settlement on the island This name however as we soon ascertained is but little used every per son applying hong kong the name of the island to the settlement About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books Find more at www.forgottenbooks.com This book is a reproduction of an important historical work Forgotten Books uses state of the art technology to digitally reconstruct the work preserving the original format whilst repairing imperfections present in the aged copy In rare cases an imperfection in the original such as a blemish or missing page may be replicated in our edition We do however repair the vast majority of imperfections successfully any imperfections that remain are intentionally left to preserve the state of such historical works The Gospel in All Lands, 1893 (Classic Reprint) Eugene R. Excerpt from The Gospel in All Lands 1893 Let us not be guilty of fearing for our Bible It has survived the shocks of eighteen centuries and now it sways more human hearts than ever In our own time controversies have broken over it like fierce summer atoms which only brighten and enrich the face of the landscape they threaten to ruin For a little while the theory of evolution was confidently affirmed to have shaken a strong ground for our belief in the Bible it was soon made clear that it had only strengthened it For fifty years unsparing criticism played upon the historical Christ it only brought him nearer and made his glory more visible to men Hostile investigation has contributed to our knowledge of the New Testament and has left its credit and authority unimpaired and now the Old Testament is passing through the same fire About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books Find more at www.forgottenbooks.com This book is a reproduction of an important historical work Forgotten Books uses state of the art technology to digitally reconstruct the work preserving the original format whilst repairing imperfections present in the aged copy In rare cases an imperfection in the original such as a blemish or missing page may be replicated in our edition We do however repair the vast majority of imperfections successfully any imperfections that remain are intentionally left to preserve the state of such historical works

Urio, 2020-01-01 The US has historically disguised to itself and to others the true nature of its relations with those nations that stood in the way of its ambitions Reversing the order of cause and effect it has projected fear of harm from other nations even as it was expanding its dominion over them With the collapse of the Soviet Union which was so to be feared that the American people could even be told they would be better dead than Red the US rejoiced in the belief that the world was at last under its uncontested leadership celebrating Francis Fukuyama's then acclaimed book The End of History and proclaiming perhaps even believing that it alone can assure peace stability and prosperity in the international system However at the beginning of the 21st century a formidable new competitor emerged China Now we hear the fear stoked mantra The Chinese are coming But is China really a threat to the US or just to its sole superpower status This book debunks among many others the myth of the universality of US values and the myth of the imperial dictatorial and state capitalist character of today's China It explains the division between the US and China through an historical analysis of their ideologies It reveals the source of the extraordinary difficulty the US faces in adapting to the changes occurring in the international system inter alia the firm belief in its exceptionalism and good intentions By contrast the Chinese ideology while also possessing a remarkable internal coherence through time has achieved greater flexibility by integrating values imported from the West and several Confucian values to form a new ideology better able to adapt its public policies to changes in the national and the international environments China's significant military and economic advances are addressed along with its new investments and One Belt One Road Initiative Matthew Jason K. Lee, William M. Marsh, 2021-11-23 The sixteenth century Reformers turned to Scripture to find the truth of God's Word but that doesn't mean they always agreed on how to interpret it This RCS volume guides readers through a wealth of early modern commentary on the book of Matthew drawing upon a variety of resources and voices from a diversity of theological traditions The Expository Times ,1898
