Barash, Judith Eve Lipton, 2017-07-12 Let's face it say Barash and Lipton Males and females boys and girls men and women are different To be sure these differences are often heightened by distinctions in learning cultural tradition and social expectation but underpinning them all is a fundamental difference that derives from biology Throughout the natural world males are those creatures that make sperm females make eggs The oft noticed gender gap derives in turn from this gamete gap In Gender Gap Barash and Lipton husband and wife professor and physician biologist and psychiatrist explain the evolutionary aspects of male female differences Chasing Masculinity Alicia M. Walker, 2020-10-17 This book analyzes men's experiences and perceptions regarding their participation in infidelity and offers a glimpse into the inner workings of their most intimate relationships as well as the ways men negotiate marriages that fall short of their expectations Using a sample collected from the online dating service Ashley Madison this book finds that contrary to gendered social scripts the men in this study described motivations for outside partnerships that were not rooted in the desire for sexual pleasure or variety Rather men described those relationships as an outlet to soothe their bruised egos receive attention and validation from a romantic partner and to fight their feelings of emasculation These infidelities thus provide support and praise and aid in the processing of complex emotions This in depth analysis provides a unique insight into men s experiences of sexuality and masculinity and will be of keen interest to those seeking to understand male infidelity from a sociological perspective across gender studies psychology counselling and beyond
