Industrial Colonies and Village Settlements for the Consumptive (Classic Reprint) German Woodhead,2018-01-19 Excerpt from Industrial Colonies and Village Settlements for the Consumptive Symonds and we together examined the patients sampled the climate and other conditions and argued with Unger and Ruedi Then for the second time came Hope more solid Hope Given a fairly early case and three years and recovery was in the offing And so we went on cheerfully with Davos But Davos was not for every one nor was every case an early one Then came the discovery that lower altitudes would do if certain conditions were obtained and so arose the great sanatorium movement But slowly we found that patients could not spend their lives in sanatoriums and one day on making my way up to one of them in England I met on the way patient after patient slouching along bored to death with themselves and with each other and even worse in morale than in body Better discipline and better notions of therapeutics mended some of that still I could not forget those listless saunterers and it became evident to some of us however unwillingly that Hope was drooping again The sanatorium was doing a great educative work no doubt but at the end of its four or six months what then To send the patient away with recommendations about light jobs and a regime was almost a mockery or quite

What about the wage and the family to be supported The next lesson was brought home to me by a visit with other commissioners to certain cities concerning some such problems Before me now I see a gaunt hollow eyed man coughing and leaning against the wall as he tried to talk to us saying that his mates when he came out of the sanatorium good fellows as they were had bought him a milk that he might creep round and earn a bit The brave wife shawl on head and mill apron on had just come from the factory and apologised for the dirty house as well she might The poor thing was working all day at the factory to keep the wolf from the door All being dragged down together into the pit What is the value of a good house or a clean house if no wages What is there for the children And what is to stop the infection Who then would have the imagination the initiative the business capacity to lift this burden like lifting a world About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books Find more at www.forgottenbooks.com This book is a reproduction of an important historical work Forgotten Books uses state of the art technology to digitally reconstruct the work preserving the original format whilst repairing imperfections present in the aged copy In rare cases an imperfection in the original such as a blemish or missing page may be replicated in our edition We do however repair the vast majority of imperfections successfully any imperfections that remain are intentionally left to preserve the state of such historical works

A Book of Cambridge Verse (Classic Reprint) Ernest Edward Kellett, 2018-02-02 Excerpt from A Book of Cambridge Verse Nevertheless after all deductions have been made how much true poetry is yet left He must be hard to please who cannot find intense enjoyment in the Eclogues of Phineas Fletcher in Cowley s epitaph on Harvey in the Miltonic stanzas of Gray s Installation Ode in a score of other pieces grave quaint or classical in their allusive ness of phrasing Especially grateful must we be to the number of poets of exquisite feeling and easy mastery of form who during the last fifty or sixty years have enriched the language with delicate and elegant verse from which it has been only too difficult to choose because its quantity is so great and its merit so even Of this we trust we have given a tolerably adequate selection but it would have been easy to multiply it fourfold About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books Find more at www.forgottenbooks.com This book is a reproduction of an important historical work Forgotten Books uses state of the art technology to digitally reconstruct the work preserving the original format whilst repairing imperfections present in the aged copy In rare cases an imperfection in the original such as a blemish or missing page may be replicated in our edition We do however repair the vast majority of imperfections successfully any imperfections that remain are intentionally left to preserve the state of such historical works

Observations Upon the Natural History of Epidemic Diarrhoea (Classic Reprint) O. H. Peters, 2018-02-06 Excerpt from Observations Upon the Natural History of Epidemic Diarrhoea The causative agencies from which springs the plentiful harvest of child mortality in large cities may be conceived as a felted mass of rootlets almost inextricably intertwined Those of poverty bad housing bad feeding and neglect may be severally recognized but the extent of their interrelations with actual respiratory and alimentary disease those to which the greater part of the mortality is referred can be traced only with difficulty It is the object Of this work to aid In the labour of cutting away the matrix and entangling fibres and to lay bare the hidden ramifications of at least one important causative agency epidemic diarrhoea This affection if we accept provisionally the more novel and generally favoured conception As to its nature is revealed as something very like an ordinary infectious disease and one which permeates all classes while the excessive mortality it gathers round itself in urban centres must be regarded as something superadded owing to the vicious circle it forms with those baneful conditions of slum life mentioned above On the other hand its peculiarly intimate association with the circum stances of domestic life from the continual faecal pollution of the interior of the household by infants and others tends to make it more so than other affections of the kind peculiarly a class disease and an especial scourge of dirty neighbourhoods Dirty towns may however be saved from excessive mortality by a high percentage of breast feeding A notable point in the interesting comparison that can be drawn between diarrhoea and typhoid fever is that in accordance with their peculiarly opposite age incidence curves the marked and habitual depositing of infectious excreta within the household in the former disease may make the question of water closet versus conservancy pan a matter of far less importance than in the latter About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books Find more at www.forgottenbooks.com This book is a reproduction of an important historical work Forgotten Books uses state of the art technology to digitally reconstruct the work preserving the original format whilst repairing imperfections present in the aged copy In rare cases an imperfection in the original such as a blemish or missing page may be replicated in our edition We do however repair the vast majority of imperfections successfully any imperfections that remain are intentionally left to preserve the state of such historical works

Miscellany 1557 to the last twentieth century Oxford Book of English Verse 1999 anthologies have been a prime institution for the preservation and mediation of poetry The importance of anthologies for creating and re creating the canon of English poetry for introducing new programmes of poetry as a record of changing poetic fashions audience tastes and reading practices or as a profitable literary commodity has often been asserted Despite its impact however the poetry anthology in itself has attracted surprisingly little critical interest in Britain or elsewhere in the English speaking world This volume is the first publication to explore the largely unmapped field of poetry anthologies in Britain Essays written from a wide range of perspectives in literary and cultural studies and the point of view of poets editors publishers and cultural institutions aim to do justice to the typological functional and historical variety with which this form of publication has manifested itself from early modern print culture to the postmodern age of the world wide web
