predestination to faith which includes faith in a sequence the Bible doesn't include it in The Golden Chain of Romans 8:28-30 includes 1 foreknowledge 2 predestination 3 calling 4 justification and 5 glorification Paul intentionally omits faith from this sequence because predestination is to glorification and sanctification not to faith. Paying attention to this detail alters Calvinism's TULIP. Total Depravity doesn't include an inability to believe the gospel. Election is not Unconditional since God elects all whom he has known forever in the eternal Messiah who entered into union with him through justification by unpredestined faith. Irresistible Grace is after justification for sanctification and glorification. Limited Atonement is unbiblical. And Perseverance of the Saints is confirmed in the strongest possible way to the extent it's synonymous with eternal security and the certainty of glorification. Most other anti-Calvinist books deal heavily with the moral and philosophical travesties of Calvinism. For example, I highly recommend What Love Is This by Dave Hunt. But this book tries to provide better expositions of the passages that lead good godly men to accept Calvinism in the first place like Romans 8, Romans 9, John 6 and Ephesians 1 by paying attention to the small underappreciated detail that the Bible says predestination is to sanctification and glory not to faith. If I felt this task was already accomplished I wouldn't have written this book but would have promoted the books that already did it. White Calvinist: There is no meaningful non-Reformed exegesis of John 6:37-45 available. As numerous as the attempts of Arminian exegetes to find some way around the testimony of these verses has been, not even a plausible solution has been offered that does not require the complete dismantling of the text, redefinition of words or the insertion of utterly foreign concepts. Flowers: Non-Calvinist. Would anyone dare adopt or seek to defend this most troubling doctrine of reprobation if not for the perceived defense offered by the apostle in Romans 9? I rejoice in biblical non-Calvinistic predestination to glory not to faith. Biblical predestination is about the certainty of God's completion of our salvation through sanctification and glorification. Predestination shouldn't be a word that conjures up images of Calvinistic horrors of reprobation in the minds of those who haven't been indoctrinated to focus on the good fortunes of the elect. Instead, predestination should be a word that gives great joy because it underlies the Biblical doctrine of the certainty of our future glorification. Rom 5:3: Having been justified by faith, we rejoice in the sure and certain hope of sharing in the glory of God. My hope is that this book won't only be a defense against Calvinism and its harms and rescue some born-again Calvinists from Calvinism but also that this consideration of the topic of predestination will give all readers a better understanding of the justification, sanctification and glorification that comprise our gracious salvation and this knowledge will also make us more fruitful. Jn 15:7-8: If my words abide in you, herein is my Father glorified that you bear much fruit.

Love, Language, Place, and Identity in Popular Culture María Ramos-García, Laura Vivanco, 2020-01-31. Love, Language, Place, and Identity in Popular Culture Romancing the Other explores the varied representations of Otherness in romance novels and other fiction with strong romantic plots. Contributors' approaches range from sociolinguistics to cultural studies and the texts analyzed are set on four continents with particular emphasis on Caribbean and Atlantic islands. What all the essays have in common is the exploration of representations of the Other be it in an inter racial or inter cultural relationship Chapters are divided into two parts the first examines place travel history and language in 20th century texts while the second explores tensions and transformations in the depiction of Otherness mainly in texts published in the early 21st century This book reveals that even at the end of the 20th century these texts display neocolonialist attitudes towards the Other While more recent texts show noticeable changes in attitudes these changes can often fall short as stereotypes and prejudices are often still present just below the surface in popular novels The understudied field of popular romance in which the Other is frequently present as a love interest proves to be a fruitful area in which to explore the potential and the realities of the treatment of Otherness in popular culture Scholars of literature communication romance and rhetoric will find this book particularly useful
