Google executives Eric Schmidt and Jonathan Rosenberg provide an insider s guide to Google from its business history and disruptive corporate strategy to developing a new management philosophy and creating a corporate culture where innovation and creativity thrive Google Executive Chairman and ex CEO Eric Schmidt and former SVP of Products Jonathan Rosenberg came to Google over a decade ago as proven technology executives At the time the company was already well known for doing things differently reflecting the visionary and frequently contrarian principles of founders Larry Page and Sergey Brin If Eric and Jonathan were going to succeed they realized they would have to relearn everything they thought they knew about management and business Today Google is a global icon that regularly pushes the boundaries of innovation in a variety of fields How Google Works is an entertaining page turning primer containing lessons that Eric and Jonathan learned as they helped build the company The authors explain how technology has shifted the balance of power from companies to consumers and that the only way to succeed in this ever changing landscape is to create superior products and attract a new breed of multifaceted employees whom Eric and Jonathan dub smart creatives Covering topics including corporate culture strategy talent decision making communication innovation and dealing with disruption the authors illustrate management maxims Consensus requires dissension Exile knaves but fight for divas Think 10X not 10% with numerous insider anecdotes from Google s history many of which are shared here for the first time In an era when everything is speeding up the best way for businesses to succeed is to attract smart creative people and give them an environment where they can thrive at scale How Google Works explains how to do just that Google Juice , Ultimate Local Marketing Makeover , Private Power, Online Information Flows and EU Law Angela Daly,2016-12-01 This monograph examines how European Union law and regulation address concentrations of private economic power which impede free information flows on the Internet to the detriment of Internet users autonomy In particular competition law sector specific regulation if it exists data protection and human rights law are considered and assessed to the extent they can tackle such concentrations of power for the benefit of users Using a series of illustrative case studies of Internet provision search mobile devices and app stores and the cloud the work demonstrates the gaps that currently exist in EU law and regulation It is argued that these gaps exist due in part to current overarching trends guiding the regulation of economic power namely neoliberalism by which only the situation of market failure can invite ex ante rules buoyed by the lobbying of regulators and legislators by those in possession of such economic power to achieve outcomes which favour their businesses Given this systemic and extra legal nature of the reasons as to why the gaps exist solutions from outside the system are proposed at the end of each case study This study will appeal to EU competition lawyers and media lawyers
