1900-1940 Max Page,1999 The oxymoron creative destruction suggests the tensions that are at the heart of urban life between stability and change between particular places and undifferentiated spaces between market forces and planning controls and between the natural and unnatural in city growth Page investigates these cultural counter weights through case studies of Manhattan s development with depictions ranging from private real estate development along Fifth Avenue to Jacob Riis s slum clearance efforts on the Lower East Side from the elimination of street trees to the efforts to save City Hall from demolition Contrary to the popular sense of New York as an ahistorical city the past as recalled by powerful citizens was in fact at the heart of defining how the city would be built BOOK JACKET    The Moving Pageant Rick Allen,2006-10-19

How Cancer Crossed the Color Line Keith Wailoo,2011-02-04 In the course of the 20th century cancer went from being perceived as a white woman s nemesis to a democratic disease to a fearsome threat in communities of color Drawing on film and fiction on medical and epidemiological evidence and on patients accounts Keith Wailoo tracks this transformation in cancer awareness revealing how not only awareness but cancer prevention treatment and survival have all been refracted through the lens of race Spanning more than a century the book offers a sweeping account of the forces that simultaneously defined cancer as an intensely individualized and personal experience linked to whites often categorizing people across the color line as racial types lacking similar personal dimensions Wailoo describes how theories of risk evolved with changes in women's roles with African American and new immigrant migration trends with the growth of federal cancer surveillance and with diagnostic advances racial protest and contemporary health activism. The book examines such powerful and transformative social developments as the mass black migration from rural south to urban north in the 1920s and 1930s the World War II experience at home and on the war front and the quest for civil rights and equality in health in the 1950s and 60s. It also explores recent controversies that illuminate the diversity of cancer challenges in America such as the high cancer rates among privileged women in Marin County California the heavy toll of prostate cancer among black men and the questions about why Vietnamese American women's cervical cancer rates are so high. A pioneering study How Cancer Crossed the Color Line gracefully documents how race and gender became central motifs in the birth of cancer awareness how patterns and perceptions changed over time and how the war on cancer continues to be waged along the color line     *The Official Report of the ... Completing Humanity Umut Özsu,2023-12-21 Examines the history of the rise and fall of the twentieth century's last major attempt to decolonize international law     Christianity and Politics in Doe's Liberia Paul Gifford,2002-05-16 This study examines the role of Christianity in Liberia under the corrupt regime of Samuel K Doe 1980 1990 Paul Gifford shows that in general Liberian Christianity far from being a force for justice and human advancement diverted attention from the cause of Liberia's ills left change to God's miraculous intervention encouraged obedience and acceptance of the status quo and thus served to entrench Doe's power This Christianity devised in and controlled from the United States thus furthered regional American economic and political objectives which were designed to support Doe's rule     Everyman's Child Sophie Irene Loeb,1920     Economic Democracy: The Political Struggle of the 21st Century J. W. Smith,2017-10-03 This title was first published in 1999 The author contends that economic democracy is the economic system the U.S. purports to have but has thus far failed to achieve because it like all the economic powers that have gone before seeks to control the economies of weaker nations It is the shocking lack of economic democracy and the efforts of so many to achieve it that fuels today's conflicts and will fuel those of the 21st century To show how and why this comprehensive work provides a detailed analysis of the history of numerous aspects of the development of the Neo Mercantilist world economy the geopolitical systems put in place by the developed world to manage and perpetuate that economy and the numerous proposals and modeling plans that have been offered over the years for the achievement of economic democracy     Classic and Contemporary Readings in Sociology Ian Marsh,Rosie Campbell,Mike Keating,2014-05-12 Classic and Contemporary Readings in Sociology introduces the reader to sociological issues theories and debates providing extracts of primary source material from both classical and contemporary theorists Theorists are examined within their historical and sociological framework and the text provides an analysis of developments in sociological thought and research The text is divided into four main sections Part One Origins and Concepts surveys the history of the discipline of sociology and examines key themes which have influenced sociological theorising and investigation in particular social control culture and socialisation Parts Two and Four Sociological Theories and Sociological Research include a number of readings from the founding theorists and investigators including Auguste Comte Emile Durkheim Karl Marx Max Weber and Charles Booth and also include more recent theoretical writing and research approaches The focus on theory and research is extended by a selection of readings centred around the theme of Differences and Inequalities Part Three these readings provide students with examples of work from an area where sociological theorising and research has been widely applied Routledge Library Editions: Food Supply and Policy Various,2021-08-29 Reissuing works originally published between 1952 and 1999 this set provides a wide spread of scholarship on issues surrounding food provision throughout the world The earlier books look at import and export changes during times when previous trade routes and options changed while later ones mostly consider food assistance policies poverty and famine and welfare These books cover third world studies economics anthropology politics environment agriculture and population studies as well as food and nutrition United States Foreign Economic Policy-making Kenneth A. Gold,2019-07-19 This book develops an analytical framework for understanding United States foreign agricultural policy through a state interest approach and describes and analyses seven cases of food policy decisions through this perspective which shows that decision makers sought on most occasions to utilise US food resources to accomplish foreign policy objectives A fundamental aspect of the statist approach is the recognition that those sectors representing the interest of the state will inevitably confront other actors in the policy process who are likely pursuing conflicting objectives This book looks at contemporary circumstances in the formulation of US agricultural policy in particular those alterations that occurred beginning in 1972 It offers an analysis of the nature of foreign economic policy and outlines the re emergence of economics as an important component of US foreign policy and an analysis of the concept of food power The Eucharist and World Hunger Izunna Okonkwo,2011-12-21 Hunger is a menace in different parts of the globe It has more unnatural than natural causes Though efforts have been made towards alleviating its causes and consequences more actions still need to be taken for its genuine alleviation and eventual eradication in the world For Joseph Grassi painful hunger is a daily occurrence that must be countered by ongoing effective programs that enter into the lives of every Christian Such position not only recognises the frequency and excruciating nature of hunger but also suggests that Christians and other religious groups have a very important role to play in order to eradicate hunger and its devastating effects This book explores the nuances of hunger its causes dimensions and approaches as well as its connection to the Eucharist It argues that hunger can be eradicated and that the Eucharist stands out as a veritable model The Spirit of the Soil Paul B. Thompson,2017-05-25 In this second edition of The Spirit of the Soil Agriculture and Environmental Ethics Paul B Thompson reviews four worldviews that shape competing visions for agriculture Productionists have sought increasing yields to make two seeds grow where only one grew before while traditional visions of good farming have stressed stewardship These traditional visions have been challenged by two more worldviews a call for a total cost accounting for farming and an advocacy for a holistic perspective Thompson argues that an environmentally defensible systems approach must draw upon all four worldviews recognizing their flaws and synthesizing their strengths in a new vision of sustainable agriculture This classic 1995 study has been thoroughly revised and significantly expanded in its second edition with up to date examples of agriculture s impact on the environment These include extensive discussions of new pesticides and the effects of animal agriculture on climate and other areas of the environment In addition a new final chapter discusses sustainability which has become a dominant idea within environmental studies and agrarian political philosophy
