Robinson, 2021-05-27 Passion's Fictions traces the intimate links between literature and the sciences of mind and soul from the age of Shakespeare to the rise of the novel It chronicles the emergence of new sciences of the passions between the sixteenth and eighteenth centuries and it argues that this history was shaped by rhetoric that contained the most extensively particularized discourse on the passions offering principles for moving and affecting the passions of others in concrete social scenes This rhetoric of the passions centered on narrative as the instrument of a non theoretical knowledge of the passions in their particularity predicated on an account of passion as an intimate relation between an impassioned mind and an impassioning world rhetoric offers a kind of externalist psychology formalized in the relation of passion to action and underwriting an account of narrative as a means of both moving passion and knowing it This volume describes the psychology of the passions before the discipline of psychology tracing the influence of rhetoric on theories of the passions from Francis Bacon to Adam Smith and using that history to read literary works by Shakespeare Milton Haywood Richardson and others Narrative offers a means of knowing and moving the passions by tracing them to the events and objects that generate them the history of narrative practices is thus a key part of the history of the psychology of the passions at a critical moment in its development The corn and wheat, meditations on the later ministry, passion and resurrection of our Lord [ed. by L.J. Hutton]. Vernon Wollaston Hutton, 1888 In Wisdom and in Passion John Queripel, 2024-07-16 Two faiths of great influence making great claims of their founders How do such faiths enter into dialogue so necessary in our fractured world What do Buddha in deep meditation and Christ with a deep yearning for the justice of the reign of God say to each other and to us What commonalities and differences do they share as those in whose name new faiths were founded What caused the followers of each to believe their messages were such that they broke free of their old faith traditions How are the stories of each shaped by universal myths and what do they do with these myths in each account How has each faith spread around the world encountering very different cultures shaping and being shaped by them What did Buddha and Jesus teach and how have those teachings been understood What place do the Scriptures play in each How is the divine understood and by what method do we penetrate to the divine How are ethics and living understood in each faith These questions among others shape this book a wide ranging exploration of a challenging yet necessary interfaith dialogue Unfollow Your Passion Terri Trespicio, 2023-01-03 Is following your passion the key to personal and professional success Your average self help book or motivational speaker would likely respond to this question with a resounding YES and proceed to offer a detailed how to guide to finding that passion and living up to it Unfollow Your Passion does the unconventional opposite In the spirit of Pixar's Soul it encourages you to consider what you lose when you get laser focused on a single pursuit There is more to life than a single spark By narrowly focusing on the constant search for your one defining passion you might miss the infinite number of sparks that exist in anything and everything around you Rich in playful banter psychological research and personal anecdotes Terri Trespicio encourages you not to succumb to the pressure of defining yourself by your passion Instead it emboldens you to keep moving and engage passionately with your present Lectures Vpon the History of the Passion, Resurrection, and Ascension of Our Lord Iesus Christ.
