Brian Denison, 2012-03-22 Increased demands for colleges and universities to engage in outcomes assessment for accountability purposes have accelerated the need to bridge the gap between higher education practice and the fields of measurement assessment and evaluation The Handbook on Measurement Assessment and Evaluation in Higher Education provides higher education administrators student affairs personnel institutional researchers who generate and analyze data and faculty with an integrated handbook of theory method and application This valuable resource brings together applied terminology analytical perspectives and methodological advances from the fields of measurement assessment and evaluation to facilitate informed decision making in higher education Special Features Contributing Authors are world renowned scholars across the fields of measurement assessment and evaluation including Robert E Stake Trudy W Banta Michael J Kolen Noreen M Webb Kurt Geisinger Robert J Mislevy Ronald K Hambleton Rebecca Zwick John Creswell and Margaret D LeCompte Depth of Coverage includes classroom assessment and student outcomes assessment techniques for accountability and accreditation test theory item response theory validity and reliability qualitative quantitative and mixed methods evaluation context and ethics of assessment Questions and Exercises follow each Section to reinforce the valuable concepts and insights presented in the preceding chapters Bridging the gap between practice in higher education with advances in measurement assessment and evaluation this book enables educational decision makers to engage in more sound professional judgment This handbook provides higher education administrators with both high level and detailed views into contemporary theories and practices supplemented with guidance on how to apply them for the benefit of students and institutions Modeling and Measuring Competencies in Higher Education Sigrid Blömeke, Olga Zlatkin-Troitschanskaia, Christiane Kuhn, Judith Fege, 2013-04-20 Measuring competencies acquired over the course of higher education is an area of research that largely has been neglected This deficit can be attributed to the complexity of academic competencies since the variety of institutions programs occupational fields and job requirements render it difficult to define and even harder to measure outcomes Thus assessing the preconditions for and effects of competency development is a challenge methodologically In this book a comprehensive review of the international state of research on modeling and measuring competencies in higher education across several academic disciplines is presented along with an evaluation of the field's strengths and weaknesses. Renowned experts share insight into the most important recent research projects and point out controversies and challenges. Competencies are regarded as context-specific dispositions acquired and required to cope successfully with domain-specific situations and tasks. However, the range of these dispositions is controversial. Should only cognitive facets be included or is it important to consider attitudes as well? Insufficient response rates and panel attrition are further challenges, as are the limitations of paper and pencil approaches to the complex measurement of higher education outcomes. Thus, this book may serve as a platform for the exchange of research experiences and perspectives and hopefully will instigate improvements in research into higher education.

Learning Technology for Education Challenges Lorna Uden, Dario Liberona, 2023-06-09 This book constitutes the refereed proceedings of the International Workshop on Learning Technology for Education Challenges LTEC 2023 held in Bangkok, Thailand, during July 24-27, 2023. The 27 full papers included in this book were carefully reviewed and selected from 53 submissions. They were organized in topical sections as follows: serious games and virtual learning environments; learning practices and methodologies; learning technologies; learning methodologies and models; learning technologies performance.

Foundations of Assessment Joseph D. Levy, Natasha A. Jankowski, 2025-08-18 This book unpacks the philosophies and theories behind assessment and builds upon that foundation with practical guidance for effective practice. Renowned assessment experts Levy and Jankowski thoughtfully explore assessment across both academic and student affairs, highlighting equitable strategies throughout to demonstrate the transformative potential of assessment to enhance student learning outcomes, support institutional decision making, and ensure continuous quality improvement in higher education. With insights drawn from extensive research and work with over 300 institutions, this text prepares graduate students and practitioners to make informed choices around assessment.

Educational Leadership and Administration: Concepts, Methodologies, Tools, and Applications Management Association, Information Resources, 2016-10-12 The delivery of quality education to students relies heavily on the actions of an institution's administrative staff. Effective leadership strategies allow for the continued progress of modern educational initiatives. Educational Leadership and Administration: Concepts, Methodologies, Tools, and Applications provides comprehensive research perspectives on the multi-faceted issues of leadership and administration considerations within the education sector. Emphasizing theoretical frameworks, emerging strategic initiatives, and future outlooks, this publication is an ideal reference source for educators, professionals, school administrators, researchers, and practitioners in the field of education.

Evaluating Student Learning in Higher Education: Beyond the Public Rhetoric William H. Rickards, Monica Stitt-Bergh, 2016-09-26 Evaluation has played a fundamental role throughout the history of higher education. It has been key to institutional missions and for accountability concerns for public funding, policy, and fiscal oversight. In the last 30 years, there has been focused attention on the quality of education and student learning Campuses have stepped up their initiatives to evaluate educational outcomes and communicate these to their constituencies just as regional state and national efforts have emerged regarding assessment of learning outcomes In this context various methods and approaches to evaluative inquiry have emerged to support efforts to increase the effectiveness and efficiency of instructional practice and curriculum for higher learning This edition examines perspectives on evaluation studies addressing higher education learning from program to institution based studies and critiques of practice to document successes and identify significant challenges that face evaluators and the collaborating educators in the continuing development of higher education This examination represents both an investigation into the particular insights that evaluative inquiry contributes to the scholarship and practice of higher education and a reflection on the evaluation expertise that can be applied across contexts of professional practice and program development This is the 151st issue in the New Directions for Evaluation series from Jossey Bass It is an official publication of the American

Evaluation Association Learning and Performance Assessment: Concepts, Methodologies, Tools, and Applications Management Association, Information Resources, 2019-10-11 As teaching strategies continue to change and evolve and technology use in classrooms continues to increase it is imperative that their impact on student learning is monitored and assessed New practices are being developed to enhance students participation especially in their own assessment be it through peer review reflective assessment the introduction of new technologies or other novel solutions Educators must remain up to date on the latest methods of evaluation and performance measurement techniques to ensure that their students excel Learning and Performance Assessment Concepts Methodologies Tools and Applications is a vital reference source that examines emerging perspectives on the theoretical and practical aspects of learning and performance based assessment techniques and applications within educational settings Highlighting a range of topics such as learning outcomes assessment design and peer assessment this multi volume book is ideally designed for educators administrative officials principals deans instructional designers school boards academicians researchers and education students seeking coverage on an educator s role in evaluation design and analyses of evaluation methods and outcomes Research on Teaching and Learning in Higher Education Edith Braun, Rachelle Esterhazy, Robert Kordts-Freudinger, 2020-12-16 This international anthology aims at researchers and practitioners interested in the dynamic developments of research on higher education teaching and learning in Europe and beyond It includes ten chapters covering a wide array of topics and methodologies used by researchers in the Special Interest Group Higher Education SIG4 of the European Association for Research on Learning and Instruction EARLI The volume consists of three main sections the first section includes three chapters addressing different practice and research based challenges related to students transitions into higher education and their teaching internship The following four chapters investigate the assessment and development of students study paths and skills in a variety of disciplines The final three chapters present research on student emotions and cultural
