Harem Histories Marilyn Booth, 2010 An interdisciplinary collection of essays exploring the harem as it was imagined represented and experienced in Middle Eastern and North African societies and by visitors to those societies Arab Modernism as World Cinema Peter Limbrick, 2020-03-10 Arab Modernism as World Cinema explores the radically beautiful films of Moroccan filmmaker Moumen Smihi demonstrating the importance of Moroccan and Arab film cultures in histories of world cinema Addressing the legacy of the Nahda or Arab Renaissance of the nineteenth and early twentieth century when Arab writers and artists reenergized Arab culture by engaging with other languages and societies Peter Limbrick argues that Smihi's films take up the spirit of the Nahda for a new age Examining Smihi's oeuvre which enacts an exchange of images and ideas between Arab and non Arab cultures Limbrick rethinks the relation of Arab cinema to modernism and further engages debates about the use of modernist forms by filmmakers in the Global South This original study offers new routes for thinking about world cinema and modernism in the Middle East and North Africa and about Arab cinema in the world Hiding in Plain Sight Christian P. Potholm, 2021-10-22 Hiding in Plain Sight Women Warriors throughout Time and Space takes the many long standing dimensions of military history including the various modalities of warfare across cultures and periods and integrates them with the more recent and very substantial contributions of social history women's history black history feminist theory LGBTQ community and other perspectives By providing an extensive annotated bibliography of the new findings the work provides the reader with an exciting compilation of new knowledge placed within a longstanding military historical framework one which provides a broader study and understanding of warfare into which to put the very recent disparate findings culled from many disciplines The book reaffirms that women have long been deeply embedded in the practice of warfare not simply as victims or minor curiosities but as important actors tactically strategically in combat and directing warfare from afar just as their male counterparts The concomitant amalgam also shows that certain types and patterns of warfare such as the defense of castles and fortresses commanding a ship or a fleet revolutionary warfare and today's drone and cyber forms of warfare have been more conducive to female activity than other forms of warfare even as women are also present in a wider variety of other broader temporal and geographical dimensions of the history of warfare Hiding in Plain Sight is the only extensive annotated bibliography currently available which provides such a holistic overview of recent scholarship by grounding that scholarship in the existing military canon and history King and Court in Ancient Persia 559 to 331 BCE Lloyd Llewellyn-Jones, 2014-02-14 This book explores the representation of Persian monarchy and the court of the Achaemenid Great Kings from the point of view of the ancient Iranians themselves and through the sometimes distorted prism of Classical authors Gendering Culture in Greater Syria Fruma Zachs, Sharon Halevi, 2014-11-14 The Nahda lit the Awakening was one of the most significant cultural movements in modern Arab history By focusing on the neglected role of women in the intellectual Islamic renaissance of the late Ottoman Period Fruma Zachs

and Sharon Halevi provide a refreshingly interdisciplinary exploration of gender and culture in the Arab World Focusing mainly on Greater Syria this book re examines the cultural by products of the Nahda such as scientific debates journal articles essays short stories and novels and provides a new framework for rethinking the dynamics of cultural and social change in what today we know as Syria and Lebanon The lasting impact of the Nahda is given an innovative and thoroughly unique interpretation providing an indispensable perspective to studying the nuanced roles of the construction and development of gender ideologies in the nineteenth century Middle East The authors explore contemporary ideas concerning modern gender roles in the Middle East and the extent to which these emerged in nineteenth century Greater Syria How were these ideas incorporated into daily lives consumer patterns and cultural activities Was class a determining factor in the creation of gender relations in the Muslim world How were the subjectivities of gender moulded and articulated in fictional and non fictional texts The authors delineate both the evolution of a discourse on gender as well the real life activities of men and women as writers readers and participants in philanthropic and cultural societies literary salons and educational enterprises This book reemphasizes the position of the Nahda in the worlds of Damascus Aleppo and Beirut as an innovative deeply influential and significant socio cultural and political movement in its own right which played a major role in shaping modern Arab culture worldviews and self perception Zachs and Halevi here provide a new framework for rethinking the dynamics of cultural and social change and present a groundbreaking new interpretation of the cumulative impact of the Nahda on gender perception in the late Ottoman Period

Arabic Thought beyond the Liberal Age Jens Hanssen,Max Weiss,2016-12-22 What is the relationship between thought and practice in the domains of language literature and politics Is thought the only standard by which to measure intellectual history How did Arab intellectuals change and affect political social cultural and economic developments from the eighteenth to the twentieth centuries This volume offers a fundamental overhaul and revival of modern Arab intellectual history Using Hourani s Arabic Thought in the Liberal Age 1798 1939 Cambridge 1962 as a starting point it reassesses Arabic cultural production and political thought in the light of current scholarship and extends the analysis beyond Napoleon s invasion of Egypt and the outbreak of World War II The chapters offer a mixture of broad stroke history on the construction of the Muslim world and the emergence of the rule of law and constitutionalism in the Ottoman empire as well as case studies on individual Arab intellectuals that illuminate the transformation of modern Arabic thought

Ottoman Eurasia in Early Modern German Literature Gerhild Scholz Williams,2021-05-20 Europe and the Ottoman Empire through three 17th century writers

Gender, Religion and Education in a Chaotic Postmodern World Zehavit Gross,Lynn Davies,Al-Khansaa Diab,2012-12-04 The immense changes that the world is undergoing in terms of globalization and migration of peoples have had a profound effect on cultures and identities The question is whether this means shifts in religious identities for women and men in different contexts whether such shifts are seen as beneficial negative or insufficient or whether social change actually means new conservatism or even fundamentalisms Surrounding these questions is the role of education is in any change or new contradiction This unique book enhances an interdisciplinary discourse about the complex intersections between gender religion and education in the contemporary world Literature in the social sciences and humanities have expanded our understanding of women s involvement in almost every aspect of life yet the combined religious educational aspect is still an under studied and often under theorized field of research How people experience their religious identity in a new context or country is also a theme now needing more complex attention Questions of the body visibility and invisibility are receiving new treatments This book fills these gaps The book provides a strong comparative perspective with 15 countries or contexts represented The context of education and learning covers schools higher education non formal education religious institutions adult literacy curriculum and textbooks Overall the book reveals a great complexity and often contradiction in modern negotiations of religion and secularism by girls and boys women and men and a range of possibilities for change It provides a theoretical and practical resource for researchers religious and educational institutions policy makers and teachers     Precarious Modernities

Cristiana Strava,2021-12-02 Using rich ethnographic detail Precarious Modernities offers an immersive account of the multiple scales and entangled actors involved in the objectification and instrumentalization of Casablanca s margins as part of ongoing and contingent processes of modernization Focusing on the everyday lives and spaces of a mythicized community and its interaction with heritage activists international development agendas and technocratic planning regimes the book documents how the depoliticization of the urban margins aids the consolidation of deeply unequal social spatial and economic orders The result is a unique account of the political continuities security logics economic ideologies and competing forces that shape the possibilities open to precarious communities in a storied and sprawling metropolis As marginalized inhabitants develop pragmatic ways of appropriating or resisting powerful agendas unanticipated and novel forms of political engagement emerge These signal the revival and reconfiguration of notions of class and open up creative and alternative spatial avenues for participation in an era of increasing authoritarianisms     The Oxford Handbook of Arab Novelistic Traditions

Wail S. Hassan,2017-08-01 The Oxford Handbook of Arab Novelistic Traditions is the most comprehensive treatment of the subject to date In scope the book encompasses the genesis of the Arabic novel in the second half of the nineteenth century and its development to the present in every Arabic speaking country and in Arab immigrant destinations on six continents Editor Wail S Hassan and his contributors describe a novelistic phenomenon which has pre modern roots stretching centuries back within the Arabic cultural tradition and branching outward geographically and linguistically to every Arab country and to Arab writing in many languages around the world The first of three innovative dimensions of this Handbook consists of examining the ways in which the Arabic novel emerged out of a syncretic merger between Arabic and European forms and techniques rather than being a simple importation of the latter and rejection of the former as early critics of the Arabic novel claimed The second involves mapping the novel geographically as it took root in every Arab country developing into often distinct though overlapping and interconnected local traditions Finally the Handbook concerns the multilingual character of the novel in the Arab world and by Arab immigrants and their descendants around the world both in Arabic and in at least a dozen other languages The Oxford Handbook of Arab Novelistic Traditions reflects the current status of research in the broad field of Arab novelistic traditions and signals toward new directions of inquiry

Orientalism and Literature Geoffrey P. Nash, 2019-11-14 Orientalism and Literature discusses a key critical concept in literary studies and how it assists our reading of literature It reviews the concept's evolution how it has been explored imagined and narrated in literature Part I considers Orientalism's origins and its geographical and multidisciplinary scope then considers the major genres and trends Orientalism inspired in the literary critical field such as the eighteenth century Oriental tale reading the Bible and Victorian Oriental fiction Part II recaptures specific aspects of Edward Said's Orientalism the multidisciplinary contexts and scholarly discussions it has inspired such as colonial discourse race resistance feminism and travel writing Part III deliberates upon recent and possible future applications of Orientalism probing its currency and effectiveness in the twenty first century the role it has played and continues to play in the operation of power and how in new forms neo Orientalism and Islamophobia it feeds into various genres from migrant writing to journalism The Digital Future of Hospitality Lindsay Anne Balfour, 2023-03-31 This book asks how an unconditional welcome to strangers is both challenged and made possible by new digital technologies machine learning and human computer interaction HCI It argues that the digital the advancement of data the proliferation of machines embodied or not in our homes and on our screens and the millions of lines of code that organize and predict our lives is not the absence of hospitality but rather the beginning though not without its challenges While such an ethic remains more important than ever The Digital Future of Hospitality updates this enduring philosophical imperative for digital times Through the lens of cultural studies intersectional feminism and posthumanism this book reanimates hospitality in relation to a series of digital texts that are relevant to the twenty first century and beyond android figures on television virtual domestic assistants home and ride sharing apps wearable devices and a renewed cultural obsession with viruses and immunity Housing in the Ancient Mediterranean World J. A. Baird, April Pudsey, 2022-07-21 One of the greatest benefits of studying the ancient Greek and Roman past is the ability to utilise different forms of evidence in particular both written and archaeological sources The contributors to this volume employ this evidence to examine ancient housing and what might be learned of identities families and societies but they also use it as a methodological locus from which to interrogate the complex relationship between different types of sources Chapters range from the recreation of the house as it was conceived in Homeric poetry to the decipherment of a painted Greek lekythos to build up a picture of household activities to the conjuring of the sensorial experience of a house in Pompeii Together they present a rich tapestry which demonstrates what can be gained for our understanding of ancient housing from examining the interplay between the words of ancient texts and the walls of archaeological evidence Domesticity and

Consumer Culture in Iran Zahra Pamela Karimi, 2013 This book explores the transformation of home culture and domestic architecture in twentieth century Iran While highlighting the role of architects and urban planners since the turn of the century the book also studies the interplay between foreign influences gender roles consumer culture and women s education as they intersect with taste fashion and interior design

Accidental Orientalists Barbara Spackman, 2017-07-28 This is the first monograph in English to address Orientalism in the writings of Italian travellers in the nineteenth and early twentieth centuries and to do against a backdrop of comparative reference to works in English and French that preceded or were contemporary to them

The Black Eunuchs of the Ottoman Empire George H. Junne, 2016-06-22 The Chief Black Eunuch appointed personally by the Sultan had both the ear of the leader of a vast Islamic Empire and held power over a network of spies and informers including eunuchs and slaves throughout Constantinople and beyond The story of these remarkable individuals who rose from difficult beginnings to become amongst the most powerful people in the Ottoman Empire is rarely told George Junne places their stories in the context of the wider history of African slavery and places them at the centre of Ottoman history The Black Eunuchs of the Ottoman Empire marks a new direction in the study of courtly politics and power in Constantinople

A Short History of the Ottoman Empire Renée Worringer, 2021 The question of who were the Ottomans has occupied many scholars over the last hundred years The Ottoman Empire was a formidable force involved in European politics and commerce almost since its inception yet despite its prominence the Ottomans are often not emphasized in narratives of medieval and early modern Europe Beginning with an introduction to pre Ottoman history this book traces the emergence of the Ottoman Empire from the Turkic migrations out of Central Asia to their encounters with the Islamic world It also explores the expansion of Ottoman rule not just into the Middle East but into the Balkans and North Africa Uncovering the strategies behind the longevity of the Ottoman Empire the author highlights the Empire s pragmatism and flexibility in governing over vast territories and diverse peoples Beautifully illustrated in full color throughout A Short History of the Ottoman Empire utilizes clear headings themes text boxes primary source translations and maps to assist students in understanding the Empire s complex and lengthy history

Women, Collecting, and Cultures Beyond Europe Arlene Leis, 2022-11-04 This book examines collecting around the world and how women have participated in and formed collections globally The edited volume builds on recent research and offers a wider lens through which to examine and challenge women s collecting histories Spanning from the seventeenth century to the twenty first although not organized chronologically the research herein extends beyond European geographies and across time periods it brings to light new research on how artificials and naturals were collected transported exchanged and or displayed beyond Europe Women Collecting and Cultures Beyond Europe considers collections as points of contact that forged transcultural connections and knowledge exchange Some authors focus mainly on collectors and what was collected while others consider taxonomies travel patterns of consumption migration markets and the after life of things In its broad and interdisciplinary approach this book amplifies women's voices and aims to position their collecting practices toward new transcultural directions including women's relation to distinct cultures customs and beliefs as well as exposing the challenges women faced when carving a place for themselves within global networks This study will be of interest to scholars working in collections and collecting conservation museum studies art history women's studies material and visual cultures Indigenous studies textile histories global studies history of science social and cultural histories

Fashioning the Modern Middle East Reina

Lewis, Yasmine Nachabe Taan, 2021-06-03 In the first book to address the critical role of the undressed body in the formation of the modern Middle East these essays unveil contemporary struggles over nation gender modernity and post modernity Contributions from leading interdisciplinary scholars exploring gender representation photography dress and visual culture recount the role of the visible elite body in campaigns for gender and social emancipation dress histories concerning early nationalist women and men and legal frameworks used by those who seek to control the movement of gendered bodies The result is a rich picture of a historical period and cultural landscape which brings dress and visual culture back into historical narratives of the modern Middle East Recognising multiple modernities multiple imperialisms and diverse regional experiences of post colonialism Fashioning the Modern Middle East contains a range of theoretical frameworks invaluable to students of fashion studies Middle Eastern studies anthropology photography and gender Bringing forward new primary material and re investigating extant sources from new perspectives this is the essential introduction to the role of the dressed and undressed body in the formation of the modern Middle East

On the Way to the "(Un)Known"? Doris Gruber, Arno

Strohmeyer, 2022-09-06 This volume brings together twenty two authors from various countries who analyze travelogues on the Ottoman Empire between the fifteenth and nineteenth centuries The travelogues reflect the colorful diversity of the genre presenting the experiences of individuals and groups from China to Great Britain The spotlight falls on interdependencies of travel writing and historiography geographic spaces and specific practices such as pilgrimages the hajj and the harem Other points of emphasis include the importance of nationalism the place and time of printing representations of fashion and concepts of masculinity and femininity By displaying close comparative and distant readings the volume offers new insights into perceptions of otherness the circulation of knowledge intermedial relations gender roles and digital analysis
