 questions you re asked when you move to Chicago And the answer you give be it Bucktown Bronzeville or Bridgeport can give your inquisitor a good idea of who you are especially in a metropolis with so many different neighborhoods and suburbs to choose from Many of us know little of the neighborhoods beyond those where we work play and live This is particularly true in Chicagoland a region that spans over 4 400 square miles and is home to more than 9 5 million residents Now of Chicago neighborhoods to life Back cover Harvey's Weekly ,1921 Governance in Transition Ján Buček, Andrew Ryder, 2015-04-15 This book looks at experience in government restructuring and devolution from a variety of national and international perspectives both within the European Union and elsewhere focusing on lessons learned and ways forward Since the 1980s there has been a global trend to give more power to local governments Even in Korea and the United Kingdom the most centralised countries in the OECD local government powers have increased with substantial economic benefits Within the European Union the principle of subsidiarity has enshrined the idea of devolution New member states particularly in central and eastern Europe have significantly created new and self sufficient local and regional governments However this process has been complicated Devolution is not a panacea in its own right and need not lead to economic growth While it can encourage savings through collaboration it can also lead to confused lines of authority and can complicate policy formation and implantation Devolution can strain local budgets forcing local governments to rely on their own sources of finance rather than central government transfers Suburbanisation rural depopulation the growth of some regions and the decline of others have raised new problems particularly related to inter governmental cooperation among local governments and different levels of government In many cases an increased number of governments has increased
