Architecture 1870-2000 Jeffrey W. Cody, 2005-06-27 The export of American architecture began in the nineteenth century as a disjointed set of personal adventures and commercial initiatives It continues today alongside the transfer of other aspects of American life and culture to most regions of the world Jeffrey Cody explains how why and where American architects planners building contractors and other actors have marketed American architecture overseas In so doing he provides a historical perspective on the diffusion of American building technologies architectural standards construction methods and planning paradigms Using previously undocumented examples and illustrations he shows how steel frame manufacturers shipped their products abroad enabling the erection of American style skyscrapers worldwide by 1900 and how this phase was followed by similar initiatives by companies manufacturing concrete components Great Houses of Havana Hermes Mallea, 2011-11-08 Great Houses of Havana celebrates one hundred years of creativity design and style that made the city the Paris of the Caribbean For four hundred years Havana was the center of Spanish trade in the western hemisphere With the expansion of the sugar industry independence from Spain and North American investment Havana became a city of great wealth great style and great houses in a vocabulary that was a unique amalgam of European American and Caribbean elements Great Houses of Havana traces the evolution of the Cuban home from the classic Spanish colonial courtyard house to the Tropical Modernist villas of the 1950s houses reflecting international architecture trends while remaining true to the Cuban tradition Cuba's social history is woven throughout the book Vintage photographs illustrate Havana's sophisticated lifestyle the masked balls yacht club picnics and dynastic weddings of fashionable Cubans and their international guests Popular cafes hotels theaters and weekend resorts are also featured creating a view of the privileged life inside the gated mansions of the city's grandest neighborhoods Beyond the Walled City Guadalupe Garcia, 2016 Once one of the most important port cities in the New World Havana was a model for the planning and construction of other colonial cities This book tells the story of how Havana was conceived built and managed and explores the relationship between colonial empire and urbanization in the Americas Guadalupe Garcia shows how the policing of urban life and public space by imperial authorities from the sixteenth century onward was explicitly centered on politics of racial exclusion and social control She illustrates the importance of colonial ideologies in the production of urban space and the centrality of race and racial exclusion as an organizing ideology of urban life in Havana Beyond the Walled City connects colonial urban practices to contemporary debates on urbanization the policing of public spaces and the urban dislocation of black and ethnic populations across the region Provided by publisher

Cuban Palimpsests Jose Quiroga, 2005 Four decades ago the Cuban revolution captured the world's attention and imagination Its impact around the world was as much cultural as geopolitical Within Cuba the state developed a strictly defined national and collective memory that led directly from a colonial past to a utopian future but this narrative came to a halt in the early 1990s The collapse of Cuba's sponsor the Soviet Union and the end of the Cold War preceded the so called Special Period in Times of Peace a euphemistic phrase that masked the genuine anxiety shared by leaders and people about the nation's future In Cuban Palimpsests Jos Quiroga explores the sites both physical and imaginative where memory bears upon Cuba's collective history in ways that illuminate this extended moment of uncertainty Crossing geographical political and cultural borders Quiroga moves with ease between Cuba Miami and New York He traces generational shifts within the exile community contrasts Havana's cultural richness with its economic impoverishment follows the cloak and dagger narratives of revolutionary and counterrevolutionary spy fiction and film and documents the world's ongoing fascination with Cuban culture From the nostalgic photographs of Walker Evans to the iconic stature of Fidel Castro from the literary expressions of despair to the beat of Cuban musical rhythms from the haunting legacy of artist Ana Mendieta to the death of Celia Cruz and the reburial of Che Guevara Cuban Palimpsests memorializes the ruins of Cuba's past and offers a powerful meditation on its enigmatic place within the new world order Jos Quiroga is professor and department chair of Spanish and Portuguese at Emory University He is the author of Understanding Octavio Paz and Tropics of Desire Interventions from Queer Latino America
