Lost On The Road To Nowhere:

Lost in Transition Aaron D. Purcell, 2023-09-29 In Lost in Transition Removing Resettling and Renewing Appalachia Aaron D Purcell presents a thematic and chronological exploration of twentieth century removal and resettlement projects across southern Appalachia The book shares complex stories of loss and recollection that have grown and evolved over time This edited volume contains seven case studies of public land removal actions in Virginia Kentucky the Carolinas and Tennessee from the 1930s through the 1960s Some of the removals include the Tennessee Valley Authority and the Norris Basin Shenandoah National Park and the New River the Great Smoky Mountains National Park and the Keowee Toxaway Project in northwestern South Carolina Each essay asks key questions How did governmental entities throughout the twentieth century deal with land acquisition and removal of families and communities What do the oral histories of the families and communities particularly from different generations tell us about the legacies of these removals This collection reveals confrontations between past and present federal agencies and citizens and the original accounts of removal and resettlement and contemporary interpretations The result is a blending of practical historical concerns with contemporary nostalgia and romanticism which often deepen the complexity of Appalachian cultural life Lost in Transition provides a nuanced and insightful study of removal and resettlement projects that applies critical analysis of fact mythology and storytelling It illustrates the important role of place in southern Appalachian history This collection is a helpful resource to anthropologists folklorists and Appalachian studies scholars and a powerful volume of stories for all readers who reflect upon the importance of place and home

Lost on the Road to Jericho David L. Williams, 2005-11-07 Samantha Hannum is the kind of experienced calm under fire paramedic you'd want if you were badly injured but the crises and threats she faces each day have begun to erode her compassion and will She's lost all sense of purpose a dilemma that is affecting the relationships with her family friends and the people she serves Samantha and her rookie partner stumble onto a plot to distribute contaminated medicine Their discovery puts the medics in grave danger and tests the limits of their cunning and loyalty Set against the backdrop of a gang war and a violent protest against a local abortion clinic it's difficult at times for the partners to know if there is an actual plot against them or if they're simply in the wrong place at the wrong time Samantha's world is brutal and unpredictable but it is also a place where strangers care for others in the most extraordinary conditions To triumph and survive Samantha must find a way to rekindle the humanity she believes she has lost

Our Paper, 1915

Down a Lost Road: Extended Edition J. Leigh Bralick, 2017-08-21 Special Extended Edition of the original Down a Lost Road novel When her father disappeared unexpectedly four years ago sixteen year old Merelin could never shake the feeling that everyone stopped looking for him much too quickly Then she receives a curious medallion that once belonged to him and her whole world changes literally She finds herself swept into a harsh but beautiful world where an ancient civilization stands on the brink of annihilation at the hands of an enemy they have no weapons to fight Some fear she will be their ruin

Some believe she will save them all And one of them makes her imagine she could Yatol has been training all his life as a Guardian of the star road but it has been four years since anyone came across from the world on the other side Then without warning the portal opens and leaves a girl at his feet She has no knowledge of her role in his world or the meaning of the object she carries but Yatol cannot help feeling drawn to her stubborn strength and spirit And if she is who she says she is then Yatol has a promise to fulfill This special extended edition is the same core story as the newly revised novel but the addition of Yatol s point of view brings to life the people and struggles of Arah Byen in a way that has never been seen before

Lost Highways, Embodied Travels: The Road Movie in American Experimental Film and Video Kornelia

Boczkowska,2023-02-06 Often identified as one of the most genuine and enduring American film genres the road movie has never been explored in the context of experimental filmmaking To fill this gap Lost Highways Embodied Travels provides the first book length study of over eighty unique and often obscure films and videos and situates them within the corporeal turn in American avant garde cinema so far mostly associated with body genres and sexually explicit films Drawing on unpublished archival materials the book offers a fresh take on both past and current practices of the experimental film community for scholars students makers and film buffs

Finding Myself Lost in Louisiana Keagan LeJeune,2023-09-11

Winner of the 2024 Summerlee Book Prize for Nonfiction In Finding Myself Lost in Louisiana author Keagan LeJeune brilliantly weaves the unusual folklore landscape and history of Louisiana along with his own family lineage that begins in 1760 to trace the trajectory of people s lives in the Bayou State His account confronts the challenging environmental record evident in Louisiana s landscapes LeJeune also celebrates and memorializes traditions of some underrepresented communities in Louisiana communities that are vanishing or have vanished communities including the author s own Each section in the memoir is a journey to a fascinating place but it s also a search for LeJeune s own sense of belonging The book is an adventure and a pilgrimage across Louisiana to explore its future and to reckon with feelings of loss and anxiety accompanying climate disasters LeJeune travels to Louisiana s geographic center to learn what waits there He chases the ghosts of Hot Wells a shuttered healing resort and he kneels at the tomb of folk saint Charlene Richard With every adventure every memory he ends up much closer to home

this subjugated land is Owen a young Alarian mage and a member of the Headhunters Mercenary Company Being a mercenary allows for more freedom and better pay than most Alarians are given under Untveski rule but it also requires them to fight alongside the Untveski legions whenever they require it This situation was at least tolerable so long as the mercenaries were only asked to help defend the borders from marauders and the like but then one day they are ordered to assist in ruthlessly crushing the rebellion of an Alarian town This traumatic event motivates the mercenaries to consider a third option outside the dichotomy of living as slaves or assisting the oppressors and the solution may just reside with the fiercely independent wood elves of the western forest region a long standing enemy of the Untveski

Talendia: The Lost Boy A. E. Colmer, 2017-09-12 The first fantasy novel in the Talendia series A fantastic world hidden beneath our own A resourceful heroine and hero with a mystery to unravel The story began in Merrymead a fictional town in Cornwall where a young boy Samuel Lucas vanished after a stormy night chasing a cat in his uncle's garden and discovered a staircase in the trunk of an old mulberry tree The only clue to his disappearance was his book Tales from Talendia that he had received from his uncle the same day Thirty years later a young and troubled girl called Frida who lives in London with her single mother meets a mysterious bookseller who sells an old book with the same title to her Frida quickly notices that the book is dedicated to Samuel Lucas The same night Frida and her mother have strange visitors who can turn into birds and are seeking Frida out She manages to escape from them through a small door under her bed that leads her to Talendia a kingdom inhabited by wizards witches centaurs dwarves and other fantastic creatures Frida quickly makes friends but realises that Talendia must face a dangerous enemy She comes to believe that Samuel also somehow got to this magical world She is determined to find him before it is too late for all of them

Lost Decade Robert D. Blackwill, Richard Fontaine, 2024 Across the political spectrum there is wide agreement that Asia should be at the center of US foreign policy But this worldview the Pivot to Asia announced by the Obama Administration in 2011 is a dramatic departure from the entire history of American grand strategy Ten years on we now have some perspective to evaluate it in depth In The Lost Decade Robert Blackwill and Richard Fontaine take this long view They conclude that there are few successes to speak of and that we lack a coherent approach to the Indo Pacific region They examine the Pivot through various lenses situating it historically in the context of America's global foreign policy revealing the inside story of how it came about assessing the effort thus far identifying the ramifications in other regions namely Europe and the Middle East and proposing a path forward

The Saturday Evening Post, 1929

Lost Soul Alonzo Smith, 2013-03-12 The poems in this book were written between the ages of 14 and 22 years old This book started during my youth when I was sentenced to Juvenile Life with the Department of Juvenile Justice system Long nights bad dreams and a temper that caused bad judgment I was encouraged to write what I feel It is the poems in this book that helped me through so much and allowed me to express what I feel in an exceptional way I never knew writing my first poem would be the beginning of a book that told a different part of my life through each page

So I wrote this book for those who dont understand me for others who are misunderstood and to express what I have felt through the toughest times a teenager can imagine This book is to show lost souls can be found and those with no soul still have a chance
